Travelers Return to Capital

By Jeryme English Statesman Society Editor

Early fall travelers seemingly are returning home this week after trips abroad, east and south. Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dyer, ir. returned home Tuesday from a ten day motor trip south. Enroute they stopped in Reno, Virginia City and sojourned several days at Lake Tahoe. They went on to San Francisco for a stay and while there were at the Fairmont

One day Mrs. Dyer had lunch with her niece, Mrs. Clay Walker, formerly of Forest Grove, who is a member of the chorus of the San Francisco Opera association, which opened its season last week.

Mrs. Kenneth Potts, who left the first of September for Chicago to attend the national PEO conference, will arrive in Portland Saturday morning. She will be met by her husband and sons, Larry and Ronny. From Chicago Mrs. Potts went on to Washington, DC. New York and Philadelphia to visit friends and relatives.

visited with relatives in England and toured France, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium and Holland, Switzerland being her favorite country. Mrs. Ralph H. Campbell, who accompanied Mrs. Adolphson east, will return home Friday by train from a summer on the east coast and in Pennsylvania with her relatives and son, Ralph, jr., who is stationed in New Jersey with the a custom-made masterpiece into navy.

Mrs. Tripp Guest Of Auxiliary

Marion auxiliary Veterans of are: Foreign Wars held a business meeting Monday night at the Vet- makers are keeping hemlines erans of Foreign Wars hall. The around 13 and 14 inches from the department president, Mrs. Stan- floor. Dior, that quiet little man ley Tripp, was a guest and gave who precipitated the "New Look," a report on her trip to Florida has about the shortest skirts of stated the Veterans of Foreign from the floor. Wars had spent more than one and six hundred and ninety thousand for cancer research work this past year. The national president will visit in Portland November #2 and 13. Mrs. Tripp presented the district president, Mrs. Clara Tokstad, a charter for dis-

The district commander, Douglas Parkes, presented Mrs. Joe Horneffer a medal from the national commander-in-chief and one from the department com-

Mrs. Ivell Haley, sewing chairman, announced plans are completed for making articles for designer who shot up like a comet a season or so back, has a whole pitals. The delinquent dues com- collection based on a side drape mittee will meet at the home of he calls a "kite" line and a spiral Mrs. Leon Hansen October 4 at sort of drape he calls a "lasso." Mrs. Clarence Forbis, has flags tures up until you find his dress- girls to make a sensational exit for the new Lincoln school to es with winged effects rising from use and when the school is com- the shoulder, or shooting off to pleted flags will be presented to one side. all the rooms. The Maete Animo club will meet at the home of around with shoulders - some-Mrs. Genevieve Olson October 4 times putting a separate strip of with Mrs. Lulu Humphreys as material over them or staging and entertainment were enjoyed of us decided looked like a pafollowed by refreshments. Other poose pouch-but handsome. guests present were Mrs. Bill Kelso, president of Meadowlark off the shoulder to somewhere auxiliary, Mrs. Edna Walker, down the arm near the elbow, and president of Silverton auxiliary, then has gone in for all sorts of Mrs. Joe Hopkins of Salem, Mrs. fancy sleeve effects—mostly out-Sarah Burch, Mrs. Anna Hansen, Mrs. Lenna Elliott, Mrs. Mathilda Pierce, Mrs. Bernice Grant and Mrs. Mary Lou Edgerton all of Mrs. Harry U. Miller returned to mer's stay on the Metolius with members of her family.

Miss Evelyn Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bishop, whose engagement to Raymond Cummings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cummings, has been revealed. No wedding date has been set. (Kennell-Ellis).

Paris Fashion Trends Soon to Be the capital Tuesday night from a two months trip to Europe. She wisited with the States

By Cynthia Lowry

AP Newsfeatures Writers PARIS - Well, the great Dior has spoken so most people are ready now to express their opinions on what our own American clothes are going to look like a few months hence. It takes a few months, you know, for Paris "inspiration" to get translated from plus time for us to get our point of view educated to the new mode.

You'll probably be hearing quite a bit about what Paris decrees. I think it boils down to only a few things and here's what they Generally speaking, Paris dressto the national convention. She any of them-15 and 151/2 inches

There are lots of full skirts in hospital work all the collections, but on a per- square finger-ends. Dior presents centage basis, I'd say that the gloves of cloth and leather which very slim skirt was the winner. Some of the suit skirts are so shoulder, and sometimes uses a slender it's been necessary to slash | single one as a sort of sleeve in riage in an aqua gown and corthem so the mannequins can slither about the showrooms.

Then, of course, there is the shoulder business—and I think ed to know, saything goes as long parents. that is what's going to make the news. The rarest thing in Paris today, with the possible exception of American coffee, is a shoulder mander for having obtained so pad. Everybody, from the smallmany members for the post the est dressmaker to the biggest, has gone back to the natural shoulder

Jean Desses, the young Greek p.m. Americanism chairman, He has carried these super struc-

Pierre Balmain also is fooling effects that carry the eye around Following the meeting the aux- to the back, where he often puts iliary joined the post and games a graceful little pouch which most

Dior has moved shoulder seams size-and the effect is a new upper silhouette. Another thing which everyone refers to as a "trend" is collars. The inescapable conclusion is that coat collars are going to be very high. From Balmain, whose colthe capital this week from a sum- lection opened the two weeks of fashion showings, through Desses, Lanvin, Piquet, Patou, Schiapar-

You can make your Christmas Packages

IT'S NOT TOO EARLY

TO SHOP FOR CHRISTMAS

cards and gift wrappings

THE MODERNE

"Gifts - Our Specialty" 305 COURT

today and see our lovely selection of

as lovely as your gifts with

Norcross

Matched Gift Wrappings

Matching papers, tags

to make your packages

bring Ohs and Ahs on Christmas morning!

and seals - gay,

colorful ribbons -

elli, and all the rest, designers show top coats and fur coats with collars that come up the ears and conceal most of the face.

This, of course, means that big hats are out. Everyone shows Nuptials Read at little hats. Some of them fit tightly like helmets. Others sit square- St. Vincent's ly on top of the head-and heaven on, because short hair is the rings, ropes of fake pearls wound like a collar around the neck, collars of rhinestones. But, except tendency to keep away from with roses and gardenias. jewelry until at least tea-time.

continue up the arm right to the some of his asymmetrical bodice sage of roses.

For evening, you'll be interestas it's strapless or has only one strap. As to fabric, velvet is popular, and so are luxurious satins, brocades and wonderful lace and embroideries.

And finally, if you really want to startle the local citzenry, Balmain has an idea which we can adopt easily. He figures people have been wearing their corsages and fewels in front too long. So on a large number of his evening things, he puts the jewelry and the flowers in back-with the logical explanation it will permit instead of an entrance.

ington grid classic in Seattle.

New Arrivals Welcomed

To Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Williamson (Joan Lochead) go felicitations on the birth of a son. Peter Livington, II, on Tuesday at the Salem Memorial hospital.

The little boy, who welched the salem Memorial hospital. The little boy, who weighed seven pounds ten ounces, has a brother. John Stuart. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lochead of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Peter L. Williamson of Long Beach, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver T. Mansfield are the parents of an eight pound, seven ounce daughter, Margaret Helen, born on Tuesday at the Salem Memorial hospital The baby has a sister, Emily Ann. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rowan of Chagrin Falls, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Mansfield of Cleveland Heights, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Schenk (LaForrest McDonald) of Mc-Minnville are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on Wednesday at the Salem General hospital. The baby's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F. lenn McDonald of Silverton.

Miss Moore Is Married

Miss Myrna Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Moore of Salem, became the bride of Harvey Crim, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Crim of Myrtle Point. Mrs. W. J. Crim of Myrtle Point, on September 21 at the First THURSDAY Evangelical United Brethren church at a 3 o'clock ceremony, before members of the immed-

For her wedding the bride wore black and white check suit with a black and white check suit with white accessories and carried a bouquet of white carnations and Past Regents, DAR, meet with Mrs.

Homer Goulet, sr. for 12 o'clock coverbouquet of white carnations and bouquet of white carnations and Miss Mirbel Stone of Corvallis was the honor maid and wore a black dress with pink carnation corsage. Russel Wilmont of Vallejo. Calif. was the best man. The newlyweds are now at home in Corvallis, where he is attending Oregon State college.

ring ceremony on September 24 when Miss Genevieve Ventiecher, Jewelry is big, glittering and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John splashy. There are great heavy Ventiecher, became the bride of Golf Winners Listed Gerald Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Wolf of Aumsville.

The bride wore a white satin gown with fingertip veil and carfor rings, there seems to be a ried a white prayer book marked Miss Arlene Wolf, sister of the

They are doing interesting wore an orchid satin gown and for next Wednesday's play is Up club. things with gloves. A number carried a nosegay of autumn of the houses show gloves that flowers. Donald Ventiecher, broare bulky and loose fitting, with ther of the bride, was best man. square finger-ends. Dior presents Mrs. Ventiecher chose a blue Portland with a group of Salem there will be drill team practice. Mrs. Ventiecher chose a blue green gown with corsage of roses for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Wolf attended her son's mar-

A wedding dinner and reception followed at the home of the bride's

The groom served in the U. S. army for three years.

Traffic Safety Theme of Talk

Jim Banks of the tsaffic safety enforcement bureau, was guest speaker at the Soroptomist club luncheon Wednesday noon at the Golden Pheasant. He spoke informally on traffic safety. Guests present were Mrs. Alice White, Miss Betty Marsh, Mrs. Mary Brown, and Mrs. Hazel Guenther.

The club presented Mrs. John Governor and Mrs. Douglas Me- Beakey with an au revoir gift Kay will leave this afternoon for prior to her departure for Tucson, Seattle and Olympia to spend a Arizona, where she will spend the few days, Governor McKay to winter. The tables were festive confer with Governors Arthur with bouquets of giant marigolds Langlie and Earl Warren of Cal- and perennial savia. Members met ifornia. Saturday the McKays will at the home of Mrs. Hope Ranbe guests of the Langlies at the dall Wednesday night to wrap Notre Dame-University of Wash- gifts to send the sister club in

Withrow Hardware Save on These Weekend Specials

Presteline Electric Ranges

Fully automatic—Large oven and storage. Seven heat surface elements— Full 40-inch width. Regular 284.00 ...

Electric Water Heaters

40 gal. Reg. 99.95 . . . SPECIAL 79.95 52 gal. Reg. 121.95 . . SPECIAL 94.45

Gas Water Heaters Manufactured By Mission

30 gal. Reg. 89.95 . . . SPECIAL 69.95 40 gal. Reg. 109.95 . . SPECIAL 79.95

> Terms On Application Prices Effective Through Monday, October 2

> > 1280 STATE STREET University Shopping Center

More for Your Money

Fused Fabrics Stiffen

en men their permanently stiff collars on certain types of shirt for well over a decade, are gaining popularity in ready-to wear for women, girls and small tots. You-'ll find them used most frequently in the collars and cuffs of the gingham school dresses, and also in some skirts to achieve

WEDNESDAY

Golden Pheasant, 6 p.m.

Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Bone-

with an arrangement of grapes

autumn flowers used about the following the dinner hour.

OWGA members attending.

a hoop-like silhouette. They also are being used in tailored blouses, so loved by the college girl and careerist. Still another new use of the fused fabrics is in the foundation garment field, particularly in strapless

CLUB CALENDAR Miss Price Royal Neighbors Sewing club, May-lower hall, covered dish luncheon Sets Date

Soroptomist club luncheon Golden Pheasant, noon, Captain Walter Lan-Invitations were in the mail Wednesday to the wedding of Miss Marjorie Annette Price, daughter of Mrs. Wayne M. Price and the late Mr. Price, and James Richard Zigler, son of Mr. and DAV auxiliary, all day sewing with Mrs. Rose Hagedorn, 1405 Fir st., no-host luncheon at noon. Salem Toastmistress dinner meeting Mrs. Dale Zigler of West Unity, Ohio. The ceremony will take place in the prayer room of the First Presbyterian church on Tuesday night, October 11. The 8 o'clock nuptials will be performed

you would for a rayon fabric.

(Copyright 1949, General Features

bras and girdles where more than ordinary molding is desired. All of which brings up a ques-mand of the garment.

by Dr. Chester W. Hamblin. Mrs. Georgi Lamka will be the bride's only attendant and her brother, Robert Price, will stand with the benedict as best man.

A reception will follow in the fireplace room. After a wedding steele will be hosts for a buffet trip the couple will be at home dinner party tonight at 6:30 in Salem.
o'clock at their Saginaw street home for twelve of their friends.

The buffet table will be centered Musical Program and fall fruits, with bouquets of For Rebekahs rooms. Bridge will be in play Salem Rebekah Lodge was honored Monday night with an interesting program, which consisted of vocal selections by Mrs. Opal Bayer and Mrs. Viola Henne of the Chin-Up club, Mrs. Scott Prize winners at the weekly ladies day play at the Salem Golf Wheatley gave a constructive talk club on Wednesday were Mrs. Harold Olinger, class A; Mrs. Piano selections were given by Morris K. Crothers, class B; Mrs. Mrs. Grechen Castle of Iowa. A W. J. Grant, class C; and Mrs. silver collection was taken and the groom, was the honor maid and Orval Lama, class D. Scheduled proceeds turned over to the Chin-

Refreshments were served by Mrs.

Don Muellhaupt. The reception Mrs. Pearl Swanson, Mrs. Ethelyn committee for October will be Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Neil Thorn-Dae Stafford Mrs. C. C. Sumpter, quist.

AT MILLER'S

COME SAVE ON GOOD QUALITY BARGAINS!

-DRESSES!

-COATS!

-SPORTSWEAR! -FOOTWEAR! -LINGERIE!

-FABRICS!

-ACCESSORIES! -MANY OTHERS!

Millers

BUY NOW - PAY IN NOVEMBER

SKIRT STYLES FROM

Left to right: Dressy, four-paneled rayon shepard check with self-belt and side zipper . . . "Flying pocket"; four paneled glen plaid with self-covered buttons and side zipper . . . "Market Square"; rayon crepe with genuine leather dog leash belt and brass ornament with tag . . . Smart rayon, stripe-fly front style with self-buckle . . . Rayon, four-paneled, glen plaid with stylish darted waist and self-belt.

An eye-catching wool or nylon slip-over sweater completes this ensemble, 2.98

SECOND FLOOR

AT DENNEY'S