

Hair Stylist Is Speaker

Erich Laetsch, noted hair stylist and cosmetologist, who has recently come to Salem from New York, was guest speaker at the Salem Business and Professional Women's club dinner meeting Tuesday night at the Senator hotel. Mr. Laetsch commented favorably upon the well-groomed appearance of western women. "There is no excuse nowadays for any woman to be unattractive," observed Mr. Laetsch, and he then pointed out that the recognition of the importance of good grooming and proper hair styling in achieving a smartly groomed appearance at all times has made cosmetology the seventh largest business in the United States today. The necessity of maintaining harmony between the natural contours of the face and features and the style of hair which frames the face was stressed by the speaker. He believes that short hair, which naturally tends to give a woman "a lift," will be popular for about two more years in the present style cycle.

Following his address, Mr. Laetsch demonstrated two very attractive hair styles that could be easily kept neat and attractive by the wearer at home. Mr. Laetsch was introduced by Miss Margaret Magee of the health and safety committee, who was in charge of the evening's program. Mrs. John Versteeg, president, presided over a brief business meeting. Miss Merle Dimick, legislative chairman, urged all BPW clubwomen to register to vote if they have not already done so. She also gave a resume of the recent address made in Salem by Robert Ormond Case on the CVA. Miss Ellen Schulte, a new member, was welcomed into the club. Guests for the evening included

Mrs. Erich Laetsch, Mrs. June Herron, Mrs. Frances Phelps, Miss Gertrude Hacker, Mrs. Pat Lehto, Mrs. W. R. Newmyer, Miss Dolores Ebner, Miss Alma Schroeder, Miss Charlotte Kendall, and Miss Nanette Schmuck.
