New Pastor Locates Home At Four Corners

FOUR CORNERS — The Rev. Victor Loucks, new resident pastor of the Four Corners Baptist church, together with Mrs. Loucks and their daughter Janet are at home in the Marshall residence, 140 N. Elma ave. Loucks came to Four Corners from Scio, where he was pastor of the Baptist church for 17 years. Visiting the Loucks over the week end were their daughter and children, Mrs. Howard Paschall, Carol and Ilene of Mitchell.

Ronald William Pearson, son of Mrs. Mabel Pearson, 3745 Mahrt ave., left Thursday morning for San Diego, Calif., where he will take his basic training in the U. S. marines. His enlistment is for three years.

Recent visitors to Four Corners were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shipman and children of Newberg, who were guests of the Willis and Harry Shipman families.

Mrs. Florence Haines, formerly of Portland, is living in the cottage adjacent to the Shipman residence, 4060 Durbin ave. She is a sister of Willis Shipman.

Montford Hammond, son of Mrs. Harry Hammond, Glenwood drive, has returned from visiting relatives in Duluth, Minneapolis and Brainard, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Binegar, 160 S. Lancaster dr., are home from a vacation spent at The Dalles, Pendleton and other points in eastern Oregon.

Auburn Mother Club Elects New Officers

AUBURN — The September meeting of the Auburn Mothers club was held at the school house Friday afternoon. It was necessary to elect different officers from those elected in the spring because of the change in school boundary lines.

New officers are, president, Mrs. Ervin S. Sunderli; vice president, Mrs. Orval Prunk; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Loran Richey. Serving on committees are, telephone, Mrs. Enoch Merrell; hospitality, Mrs. Arthur Ferre; finance, Mrs. S. W. Burris; special projects, Mrs. Richey, and reporter, Mrs. Richey. One special group will again be "Beautifying the School Grounds." The club will again sponsor both Brownie and Cub Scout troops, and some 4-H club work was considered. Arthur Meyers, school superintendent, explained the new year books sent home to parents. There are 55 mothers and school children in the district and about 30 were present for the first meeting. Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. Charles Gilling and Mrs. Floyd Seamster. Teachers were introduced.

Beals Family to Move from Silvertown

SILVERTON — Loyall Beals has disposed of his partnership in a Portland restaurant which he has owned and assisted in managing for the past few months. He will leave this week for Santa Monica to make his home at least for the present. Mr. Beals returned late last week from Los Angeles where he had been called because of the fatal illness of his father, the Rev. Roy Beals. Mrs. Beals, the former Bonnie Jean McPike, lived in California while her husband was in the service during the late war, and will join him there shortly with their two daughters.

Catholic Women Elect New Leaders At St. Paul Meet

MT. ANGEL — Mt. Angel delegates at the quarterly meeting of the Oregon City deanery, Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, held in St. Paul last Friday afternoon, were Mrs. Joseph Faulhaber, Mrs. Fred J. Schwab and Mrs. Al Lulay. Also attending was Mrs. Joseph L. Wachter, Mt. Angel, secretary of the organization.

Mrs. John McKillip, president of the St. Monica's Altar society of St. Paul, was named vice-president to serve out the unexpired term of Mrs. Gordon Bruce of Oswego, who resigned. President Merton Miller of Oswego reported on the national convention held in Anaconda, Mont.

Comprising the deanery are the Catholic Women's organization of Oregon City, St. Paul, Milwaukie, Oswego, Stayton, Salem and Mt. Angel. The next quarterly meeting will be held in Oregon City in December, exact date to be announced later.

Marion Forks Fish Hatchery Taking Shape

MARION FORKS — The Marion Forks hatchery, located on Horn creek, is a scene of action daily. Crews of all descriptions are fast shaping the building and ponds into line. The main hatchery building is under way. The flat bases of concrete for about 12 circular ponds have been poured. The weather has been ideal for concrete work with no frost or rain to interfere. The dwellings on the hill are taking form and before long their roofs will protect the workers from the storms. About 75 men are employed in the operation so far.

Mrs. Dean Smith, a resident here, has returned from a vacation in Iowa where she visited with relatives there.

Arnold Snyder was a recent visitor here. He was off duty with the merchant marine for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Klug of Portland have been spending their vacation on Marion creek, building their summer home. Mrs. Klug is a niece of the Scott Youngs.

The first snowfall of the season hit the higher ridges of the Cascades. Bugabo was white and Mt. Jefferson looked very beautiful with her new robes on. However summer weather has returned and the fire hazard returned. Hunters have been worried that they might not be able to roam around thru the brush. The rains of the past two days have made it possible to open the season on time.

Jack Lindeman and party of two made a horseback trip into Bowerman lake and those adjoining it. They reported fishing good.

Gene Ware is moving his saddle and pack horses from Big Meadows today. He will continue in the elk hunting territory.

A large octopus may be as much as 28 feet across.
