Lunch Program Started at Amity Grade School

Statesman News Service
AMITY—A hot lunch program was started at Amity grade school Monday with Mrs. Earl Tallman and Mrs. Fred Buck in charge of the kitchen.
 A total of 261 pupils now enrolled will be served under the program. The U. S. government delivered 18 boxes of pears on the opening day of the program. These were sent to a McMinnville cannery to be prepared for use during the winter.

Bible Classes Planned In Keizer District

Statesman News Service
KEIZER—Mrs. Paul Geil was hostess at a Wednesday luncheon for Keizer residents interested in neighborhood Bible classes.
 Myrna Stove, city director of child evangelism, was a guest. Plans were made to hold classes in homes throughout the district. Class will probably begin October 12.
 Present were Mrs. Walter Woodcock, Mrs. Charles Ronk, Mrs. Gustav Klempel, Mrs. Edgar Sawyer, Mrs. Frank Hughes, and Mrs. Lee Wiens.

Albany Hardware Store Purchased

Statesman News Service
ALBANY—After 28 years in the hardware business in Albany, Roscoe Ames has sold the Barker Hardware store to W. S. McNab of Detroit, Mich. and is retiring from business.
 Ames came to Albany from Silvertown in 1922 and bought the Hulbert-Ballisek hardware store. In 1928 he bought the Barker hardware, and a year later consolidated the two stores, moving the stock from the former store to the Barker building where it has been continued since.
 McNab for 15 years was an official with General Motors in Detroit. This will be his first experience in the hardware business.

SPECIAL SERVICES PLANNED
SILVERTON—The Rev. Homer Williams of Portland will speak at four special meetings, Thursday through Sunday, at the Pilgrim Holiness church, 942 E. Water st., reports David E. Olson, local pastor. The meetings start at 7:30 each night and there will be special services for the young people Friday night.

Dallas Rose Expert Returns From Utah

Statesman News Service
DALLAS—Dr. Earl W. Benbow returned Monday from Salt Lake City, Utah, where he attended the annual meeting of the American Rose Society at the Utah hotel.
 The Utah Rose society, was host to the 280 registered delegates from all parts of the nation with Oregon, Washington and California being well represented. Dr. Arthur H. Norton and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grayson all of Eugene and Benbow, who was a member of the nominating committee, represented Oregon.
 Utah has many beautiful rose gardens especially the municipal rose garden of Salt Lake City, Dr. Benbow stated. A rose show was held at the capital building for the visitors.
 The new officers for the ensuing year will be: Dr. William L. Ayers, Dean of school of science, Purdue, LaFayette, Ind., president; C. Eugene Pfister, Mundeling, Ill., vice-president; Dr. Roy Allen, secretary-treasurer.
 The Tri-city Rose society of Davenport, Iowa, will be host to the American Rose society in June, 1950 and the Seattle Rose society will be the host in 1951.
 Nine Ole Miss seniors are in line for their fourth football letters this season.

Other brands claim it . . .

Only S&W dares to prove it!

We could simply claim—like others do—that S&W is the best you can buy. But we prefer to let our Fine Foods speak for themselves. Every day, in stores throughout the land, we make this simple test. We invite the grocer to select other brands—any brands—from his shelves. Then together we open each can and compare its quality with S&W. For more than 50 years, grocers who have made this actual store test have judged S&W best, every time.

See for Yourself
 Try any S&W Fine Food—fruits, vegetables, juices, oven-baked beans and brown bread, or delicious S&W mellow'd coffee. We are confident you will agree that S&W is in a class by itself.

S&W quality is so much better
