On the Fairways

A number of events are on the calendar for the closing month of the season for the Salem Women's Golf association. Next Wednesday will be regular play and the following Wednesday, October 19, will be the annual meeting and election of officers, following the round of play and luncheon at the clubhouse.

Slated for Sunday, October 16, will be the final two-ball tournament of the season and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Reynolds Allen, Mrs. John Helzel or Mrs. Conrad Paulson.

The annual stagette, which officially ends the golfing season for the women, will be Wednesday, November 2 at the Salem Golf club with a dinner and floor show by members.

At Wednesday's play, match vs. bogey, prizes went to Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, class A; Mrs. Kate G. Bell, class B, and Mrs. Louis Gerlinger, class C.

Hazel Bartlett to Speak on Flowers

SILVERTON — Hazel Bartlett, formerly of Portland but now of Brooks, will be guest speaker Monday at the opening meeting of the Silverton Woman's club for the fall season. Mrs. Bartlett will speak on "Flower Arrangements."

Arranging the program are Mrs. Tom Anderson and Mrs. Glenn Briedwell. The meeting will be held at the First Christian church at 2 o'clock and guests are invited to attend, Mrs. P. A. Loar, president, has announced.

Mary Hedrick Returns Home

Mary Talmadge Hedrick, former Salem violinist and teacher, has returned from Hollywood to open a music studio here at her home, 965 N. 5th st. Mrs. Hedrick has done extensively concert and orchestra work in the south, both as a member of the famed Hancock Ensemble and in motion picture studio orchestras.

The Hancock Ensemble was sponsored by the Allan Hancock foundation at the University of Southern California and presented an average of 150 concerts a year on tour throughout the state as well as regular weekly radio broadcasts from the university. Last January the group was disbanded due to other activities of its mentor and cellist, G. Allan Hancock. Mrs. Hedrick was solo violinist with the organization for four years.

String quartets and chamber music groups are an important part of musical life in Los Angeles and

Mrs. Hedrick played in musicales with such notables as Feri Roth, leader of the Roth quartet, Horace Britt, cellist, recently with the Persinger trio, Bruno Steindel, world famed cellist of the Chicago symphony, Gaylord Brune, violinist and others. She also played with orchestra under the batons of such famous conductors as Jose Iturbi, Vladimir Backleinkoff, Roy Harsh, Aaron Copeland and Franz Waxman.

Plans for classes in both violin and viola will be offered by Mrs. Hedrick. She has done advanced coaching in viola with William Primrose, Abraham Weiss and Germaine Prevost of the Pro Arte quartet.

To Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lutz go felicitations on the birth of a daughter, Donna Marie, on Wednesday at the Salem General hospital. The little girl, who weighed eight pounds, ten ounces, has a sister, Cynthia Ann. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Egil Olson of Silverton and F. C. Lutz of Salem.

Matrons, Patrons Honor Guests

Members who attended the regular meeting of Chadwick chapter Order of Eastern Star in the Masonic Temple on Tuesday were surprised to find the chapter redecorated and furnished with new plush opera chairs.

The worthy matron, Mrs. D. M. Eby, paid honor to all the matrons and patrons under whom she had served on her way to the East as worthy matron. Honored were Mrs. G. A. Reeher, Mrs. Fred Keeler and Mrs. E. E. Bergman, worthy matrons of other years and Herman Johnston, Earl Wipier and Fred Keeler, past patrons. A special guest was Mrs. William Merriott of Woodburn, who is the grand chaplain of Oregon.

Invitations were read to be guests of Albany chapter on October 25 and Venus chapter on October 21 for their friendship nights. Also invitations to various receptions for grand offers including one at Independence chapter on October 29 honoring Mrs. Paul Robinson, grand conductress.

It was announced that Chadwick chapter will participate with the other Masonic orders of Salem in religious services at the Masonic and Eastern Star home at Forest Grove on November 27. On November 1 Chadwick chapter will have another friendship night with nine chapters as their guests.

Refreshments were served with Mr. and Mrs. Mem Pearce in charge of the serving, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Van Wyn-garden, Mrs. Gordon Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bramble and Mrs. Leona Stutzman.
