Thirtieth Anniversary

Breakfast, Banquet and Tea on Business Women's Week Slate

The Salem chapter of the Business and Professional Women's club will celebrate its thirtieth annual observance of National Business Women's Week, October 9-16. The week's activities will begin with this morning's nine o'clock breakfast honoring the club's president, Mrs. John Versteeg, at the Cave room in the Senator hotel. Miss Betty Eklund is general chairman for the breakfast, and is assisted by Mrs. Eugene Estes and Mrs. Louis Neuman, decorating the dining room; Mrs. Alma Werstein and Mrs. Jessie Bush Mickelson, providing special music; and the Misses Helen Hiller and Minnie Just, in charge of tickets. Miss Alberta Shoemaker, the Salem club's first vice-president, will preside at the breakfast with Mrs. Zula Van Gilder and Mrs. Katherine Hughes assisting as hostesses.

Following the breakfast the club will attend as a group the eleven o'clock church services at the Jason Lee Methodist church where the Reverend Louis C. Kirby will deliver the morning address. Mrs. Margaret Jorgensen and Miss Vada Hill are in charge of arrangements for this annual Go-to-Church Sunday.

Public Relations Banquet

The highlight of National Business Women's week will be the public relations formal banquet, Wednesday, October 12, at 6:30 p. m., in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel. Mrs. Victor P. Morris of Eugene will be the speaker of the evening. Special music will be provided by a string trio composed of Miss Hazel Brockholm, Mrs. Margaret Rawlins and Mrs. Delbert Jepsen; Mrs. Robert Anderson will be the soloist.

General chairman for the banquet arrangements is Mrs. Arthur Weddle, junior past president of the state federation, who will be assisted by the following sub-chairmen: Mrs. Mathilda Gilles, Mrs. Sue Booch, Miss Mildred Yetter, and Mrs. Hallie Shard, tickets; Mrs. Vivian Hoenig, Mrs. Helen Heath, Mrs. Ruth Voorhees, Mrs. Dorothy Linfoot, decorations; Mrs. Jessie Davidson and Mrs. Dana Billeter, hostesses.

Tea for Past Presidents

The final event of the week's activities will be a tea honoring past presidents of the Salem club. This tea, a new feature in the Salem Business Women's Week, is being added to the scheduled events for the first time this fall and promises to become an annual event. The tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Emily Howard, 329 North Nineteenth street, from 3 to 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, October 16.

Mrs. LuVerne Hardwicke, Mrs. Mabel Clock and Miss Vada Hill are in charge of general arrangements and are assisted by the following: Mrs. Vivian Hoenig, invitations; Mrs. Alma Werstein, Mrs. Sue Booch, who will greet the guests at the door; Mrs. Viola

Parks and Miss Minnie Just, reception committee; Mrs. Dana Billeter, guest book; Mrs. John Versteeg, introduction of guests to the receiving line; Miss Blanche Hull, Mrs. Janice Rilea, Miss Alberta Shoemaker and Miss Eleanor Roberts, in charge of the dining room; Mrs. Robert Fisher, Jr., Mrs. Alexander Tieski, Mrs. Hallie Shard and Miss Habel Roenicke, pouring; Mrs. Jessie Davidson, Miss Margaret Ringle, Miss Ellen Van Arsdol, Mrs. Eugene Estes, inviting guests to the dining room. Special music, arranged by Mrs. Jessie Bush Mickelson, will be furnished by a string trio including Carol Lee, violinist; Sidney Kromer, cellist; and Laurel Herr, pianist.

Mrs. Charles Forrester, junior past president of the Salem club, is general chairman for the entire week's activities, and Miss Ruth McAdams is in charge of reservations for all events.
