

Prison Steel Contract To Get Further Study

The state board of control Tuesday deferred action on award of a contract for steel to be used in construction of a new cell block at the state penitentiary.

Decatur Iron and Steel co. submitted the low bid of $297,747. Company representatives and prison officials are to confer further on the bid, the board indicated.

Missing

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 11—A wide search for Jean Elizabeth Spangler (above), movie bit player, after she was reported missing from Griffith park since Friday. (AP Wirephoto to The Statesman.)

Other officers elected Tuesday were Dr. S. D. Wiles, vice president, and Dr. L. E. Watson, secretary-treasurer. Both are Salem men.

Dallas Hunters Bag 4 Moose

DALLAS, Oct. 11—(Special)—Four Canadian moose were brought to Dallas this afternoon by a quartet of hunters from this area.

The animals, which were stored at locker markets, ranged in weight from 200 to 520 lbs. dressed. The largest bull was brought down by Wes Nairn, Dallas, October 5, near Clinton, British Columbia.

F. A. Simpson, Kings Valley, had made his kill two minutes before Nairn bagged his animal. The other moose was shot by Walter Smith, Falls City, and his brother, Vince, Kings Valley.

Last week two other moose were brought in by Lowell Barlow and Wiley Gardner, both of Dallas.

Gordon Slates 'Pete' Tuesday

PORTLAND, Oct. 11—(P)—Hard-rock Gordon and Bill Petersen will fight in a 12-round bout here next Tuesday for the Pacific Northwest heavy weight title claimed by Petersen.

The challenger from Roseburg had wanted the fight held to 10 rounds. Petersen had held out for 15 rounds. The decision announced today was made by City Boxing Commission Chairman Ray Smith after a poll of the commissioners.

FARMER DROWNS
TILLAMOOK, Oct. 11—(P)—George Ellingsworth, 39, a farm worker, tumbled from a boat in the Wilson river last night and drowned before a companion could locate him. Vernon Amot said he jumped into the water but couldn't find Ellingsworth because of the darkness.

The first radio telegraph service over water was set up in 1912 between San Francisco and Honolulu.

Classmates of Polio Victim Donate to Iron Lung Funds

Death of polio-stricken classmate recently prompted Keizer school children to make a substantial donation to the current drive for funds to purchase two iron lungs.

Their $112 was presented last night at the Salem Eagles lodge meeting. The Eagles are sponsoring the fund drive. Victor L. Withrow, chairman of the drive, accepted the school children's contribution.

Class Officers Elected at WU; Posts Unfilled

Fifteen class officers were elected at Willamette university Monday while seven other positions were not filled because no candidate received a majority of the votes.

The senior class elected Bob McMullen, president; Cece Johnson, vice-president; Ruth James, secretary; and Margaret Austin, treasurer.

Juniors chose Jack Brown, president; Margaret Powell, secretary; Dick Bolton, treasurer; and Wes Heden, sergeant-at-arms.

Only Larry Odell as vice-president and Dave Card and Don Hosford as sergeants-at-arms received majority votes in the sophomore class.

Ralph Bolliger was chosen president of the freshman class. Other officers included: Marilyn Whaley, secretary, and Jim Jackson and Norman Lawson, sergeants-at-arms.

Bud Corner was chosen new student body yell king in a special election.

Elections will be held next Tuesday and Wednesday to determine other class officers.

Balloting will be for the following candidates: Seniors, Joe Braze and Howard Lorenz for sergeant-at-arms; Juniors, Joan Klindworth and Dianne Procter for vice-president; sophomores, Glenn Halliday and Lou Predietto for president, Sue Mellor and Virginia Wilson for secretary, and Clara Belle Easton and Patsy Older for treasurer; and freshmen, Bob Miller and John Skinus for vice-president, Prudence Edwards and Steve Nicks for treasurer, and Bob Bain and Rollin Cocking for student representative.

Allen Chairman for Hardwaremen Meet

Reynolds Allen of Salem, area director of the North Coast Retail Hardware association, will be chairman of the association's regional meeting in Medford Thursday.

Salem hardware dealers and employees are invited to attend the Medford conclave and also a Portland meeting Friday night to hear new methods of store planning discussed.

TUCKER CASE MISTRIAL
CHICAGO, Oct. 11—(P)—The multi-million dollar Preston Tucker mail fraud case was declared a mistrial today and will start from scratch again Monday.

Jo-Joe Lands Sac Position

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 11—(P)—Jo Jo White signed a one-year contract for an undisclosed sum today to serve as general manager of the Sacramento Pacific Coast league baseball team. White was fired by the Seattle Rainiers as field manager in mid-season, and wound up the season playing for the pennant-winning Hollywood Stars. White succeeds Victor A. "Cookie" Devincenzi, who was released two weeks ago.

State Hospital Work Given Grover Hipps

Grover C. Hipps, the ex-paratrooper who arrived homeless and penniless in Salem a week ago today with his family, begins work this morning at the Oregon state hospital.

His new job was provided by Roy Mills and W. C. Ryan, state board of control administrators, at the suggestion of Sheriff Denver Young of Marion county.

The successful end to Hipps' four-day search for employment concludes the story of a community's spontaneous aid to a deserving family, in distress. Housing, food, financial aid and now a job have been provided for Hipps, his wife and four children.

New Car Demolished; Passengers Unhurt

A '49 Lincoln coupe was demolished but no serious injuries resulted in an accident at the junction of South 12th street and highway 99-E about 5 p.m. Tuesday.

State police said the coupe, driven by Ernest W. Fernau, Salem route 9, turned over in the ditch after colliding with a car operated by Jerry T. Boyd of Oakridge, Ore. Two ambulances were dispatched to the scene, but no one was hospitalized.

Climbers Hurt In Gorge Fall

PORTLAND, Oct. 11—(P)—Falls down the rocky face of a 285-foot Monolith in the Columbia gorge put two climbers in a hospital here late today.

Badly bruised but not seriously hurt were Joseph A. Amicarella and his wife, Shirley Jean, both 23, of Portland. A companion, Sherman McClure, 23, also of Portland, suffered a leg injury. He had managed to cling to the face of Rooster Rock when boulders cascaded amid the three climbers.
