Mrs. Alice Kircher

SILVERTON - Mrs. Alice Kircher, 65, died at a Klamath Falls hospital, Tuesday forenoon, having been in delicate health for a number of years. The family moved to Chiloquin, near Klamath Falls the first of the year, after many years spent in Silverton. She was born in St. Paul, Minn., January 1, 1884 and came to Silverton with her family in 1910. She was active in the work of the First Christian church here, and in Ramona chapter of the Eastern Star. Surviving are her husband, Joe Kircher, recently of Chiloquin, two sons, Dwight, also of Chiloquin, and Lloyd of northern California, and six grandchildren. Shipment will be made to Silverton Wednesday for final rites under direction of the Ekman Funeral Home Friday at 2 p.m. in the Memorial chapel.
