

Red Hots for This Weekend:

(Or, Phoney Football Forecasting)
By Al (Swami) Lightner

Friday's foolish frolicking or, I should have quit while I was ahead:

COLLEGE
Oregon over Colorado—wish they were all like this. Oregon State over Montana—yep, sure do. Stanford over Washington—this is lotsa fun. WSC over Idaho—gets better as it goes along. UCLA over Santa Clara—still no pain. California over USC—whoa! Who threw that College of the Pacific over Portland U—just in case we miss that last one. UCE over Vassar—more picnicking. Lewis & Clark over Linfield, Pacific over Whitman, Army over Harvard, Wisconsin over Navy, Villanova over Tulsa, Cornell over Yale, Penn over Columbia, Illinois over Missouri, Iowa over Indiana, Oklahoma over Kansas, Michigan over Northwestern, Minnesota over Ohio State, Notre Dame over Tulane, Tennessee over Alabama, Texas over Arkansas, Southern Methodist over Rice, TCU over Texas A&M.

HIGH SCHOOL
Salem over Springfield—plenty of scoring, all Salem's. Albany over Bend—the Bulldogs bounce back. Eugene over Corvallis—still headed for the Big-6 pennant. Silverton over Mt. Angel—tough battle. Molalla over Canby, Estacada over Dallas, Woodburn over Sandy (upset), Stayton over Monmouth, Independence over Salem Academy, Sacred Heart over Philomath, Astoria over Turner, Gervais over Sublimity, St. Paul over Mill City and Chemawa over Jefferson.

Battling average to date: College—64 right, 15 wrong for .810. High school—16 right, 15 wrong for .516.

They'll Do It Every Time

Duck Gridders Set For Colorado Club

Aikens to Seek 4th Win of Season Saturday in Non-League Hayward

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 13—(Special)—Coach Jim Aikens' Oregon varsity goes after its fourth win of the season here Saturday when the Colorado University Buffaloes invade Hayward field. The Buffs will be the first Big Seven team ever faced by an Oregon team.

This week the Webfoots have spent considerable time on defense in preparation for the single wing attack used by Coach Dallas Ward. The Buffs will be the third team in the last five faced by Oregon which featured the wing attack.

The shakeup which hit the Oregon lineup last week and resulted in three switches in the lineup has almost run its course. Only one major change was made during practice this week. Gerald Moshofsky, a talented sophomore from Beaverton, has moved from guard to left tackle and is tabbed for considerable work behind Steve Dotur on offense. Bob Roberts remains as the defensive man at the tackle slot.

As a result of the improved showing at Washington State the backfield goes back to its original form this week with George Bell at right half and Woodley Lewis and Johnny McKay alternating at left half. Bob Sanders, the top fullback on the coast, will again be slated for the brunt of the work as the third running back. Earl Stelle at quarterback has made the Oregon passing game appear on its way to be an effective weapon for the rest of the season.

Foxes, Angels In Grid Clash

MT. ANGEL, Oct. 13—(Special)—The Mt. Angel Preps, winless in their first two Willamette Valley league football games with Estacada and Woodburn, but within a step of victory in each one, Friday night play the Silverton Silver Foxes here at eight o'clock. Faced at losing their first two when they figure they should have won them, Coach Gene Barrett's Preps are pointing for an upset win over the favored men of Murl Anderson.

Silverton tied Woodburn and topped Molalla in the two games played by the Foxes. The Mt. Angel attack will again be led by Bob Hanauka and Gordy Bigler, halfbacks, and by Big Norb Wellman, pass-snatching end. For the Foxes it will be the speedy Larry Lincoln, Jim Lance and Jerry Denson who will carry most of their victory hopes.

Dragons Play Ranger Eleven

DALLAS, Oct. 13—(Special)—Coach Ken Jacobsen's Dallas Dragons, seeking their first win in Willamette Valley league play but not favored to get it, go to Estacada Friday night to play the loop-leading and undefeated Rangers at eight o'clock. Estacada has hung up two straight WWL wins and a pair of non-league victories.

Jacobsen has been working his Dragon team hard during the week, priming it for an upset victory.

Stayton Bees Lose

ALBANY, Oct. 13—(Special)—Coach Joe Boyle's Stayton Bees eleven edged out Albany Junior high 7-0 in an afternoon contest here.

Dale Kring, right half, scored the only touchdown with five minutes gone in the first quarter on a 39-yard end run play. Left half Ray Showers converted on a line buck.

Stayton plays host to Silverton in their next go October 20. An October 27 game is still to be scheduled, according to Head Coach Herb Booth.

Rainiers Buy Tran
VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 13 (CP)—Seattle's Second Baseman Len Tran will don the uniform of the Pacific Coast league Seattle Rainiers when baseball time rolls around again. Sale of the second sacker, who batted .329 last season for the Western International league Caps, was announced today by General Manager Bob Brown.

Grizzly Star

Johnny Holding (above), versatile Montana athlete who has been the star quarterback for the Grizzlies for three seasons will see action at Corvallis Saturday in the game with Oregon State college.

INDIANS READY
PALO ALTO, Calif., Oct. 13—(P)—Coach Marchie Schwartz and his Stanford Indians will fly tomorrow to Seattle for a Saturday football engagement with the University of Washington Huskies. The head man said he planned a workout tomorrow afternoon on the Seattle turf.

Shooting for No. 4 Tonight

Wolves Face Vanport Eleven
OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, Monmouth, Oct. 13—(Special)—Bill McArthur's OCE Wolves, winners of their first three football starts this season, shoot for No. 4 Friday night in the eight o'clock game here with Vanport collegians. The Wolves are back in top shape again and expect a tough battle with the Vikings.

Shakeup Hits Macks Bulldogs Face Sandy Eleven

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13—(P)—Philadelphia athletics today fired veteran coaches Al Simmons and Earle Brucker in the first major decision the club ever has made against the wishes of Connie Mack.

The handwriting on the wall seemed pretty plain for all baseball to read: The 86-year-old owner manager no longer is the absolute boss of the American League club he helped found. Dismissal of the two coaches, a complete surprise to them and to Philadelphia fans, was announced as having been ordered by the club's board of directors.

Weaver-Kiser Title Go Set

Ordered on by the Salem Wrestling commission, after the "no contest" verdict rendered by Referee Harry Elliott the last time they locked horns here, Buck Weaver and Jack (Tiger) Kiser will clash for the Coast lightweight mat title belt next Tuesday night at the armory, the feature attraction on Matchmaker Elton Owen's weekly card.

The prankish Weaver and Kiser met here two weeks ago in a title scrap which ended after Kiser had flattened the Indian only to be kicked from the ring by Buck. Jack alighted on a shoulder, damaging it so that he couldn't return to finish the match. Ref Elliott then called it a tie and refused to give Weaver the win. The commission has since ordered the rematch.

The full supporting card will be announced later by Owen.

DUKE QUARTER NAMED
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13—(P)—Sophomore Julian Weinstein in a surprise move was handed the starting role as quarterback for UCLA against Santa Clara here Saturday.

Wolves Face Vanport Eleven

OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, Monmouth, Oct. 13—(Special)—Bill McArthur's OCE Wolves, winners of their first three football starts this season, shoot for No. 4 Friday night in the eight o'clock game here with Vanport collegians. The Wolves are back in top shape again and expect a tough battle with the Vikings.

Beaver Crew Ready For Grizzly Outfit

Orange Gridders Expect Trouble From Improved Montanans Saturday

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Oct. 13—(Special)—Oregon State's Battling Beavers, fresh from a 7-to-3 upset of the University of Washington Huskies in Seattle last week end, tangle with an improved University of Montana squad Saturday on Bell field at 2 p. m. The game will be the Beaver's first appearance at home this season, and the first Beaver-Grizzly clash since 1942 when Oregon State rolled to an easy 33-to-0 triumph.

An added feature of the game will be the first presentation of Band Day on the campus. Arranged and directed by Professor Bob Walls and Bandmaster Ted Mesang of the Oregon State music department, the affair will bring together Oregon State's crack 75-piece marching band, plus four high school bands from Corvallis, Albany, Sweet Home and Lebanon. New Grizzly Mentor Ted Shipkey will bring to Corvallis a team far removed from push-over Montana squads of the past. The Grizzlies have a top-notch quarterback in Tommy Kingford, currently riding near the top of the PCC in passing.

For Oregon State Kip Taylor will stick mainly to the starting lineup that outlasted the Huskies last weekend. Probable changes will be Jim Inglesby at right tackle and Pete Palmer at center.

Bulldogs Face Sandy Eleven

WOODBURN, Oct. 13—(Special)—Fully realizing they are in for one of their toughest games of the season, the Woodburn Bulldogs go to Sandy Friday night for a crucial Willamette Valley league football game. The Bulldogs, led by their triple-threat Dean Seaton in both games, battled to a tie with Silverton and then nipped Mt. Angel thus far.

Pop Rannow's Sandy club, after waylaying Molalla and Dallas with a veteran-stocked squad, appear headed for the league title. Sandy is now in a tie for the top with Estacada, while Woodburn and Silverton are tied for second place.

FISHERMEN! Have You Heard About the Chris-Craft Challenger

DRAFT SET NOV. 17
CINCINNATI, Oct. 13—(P)—The major baseball leagues will hold their annual draft for new talent on Nov. 17 in Cincinnati. Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler announced the date today. Washington, which finished eighth in the American league, will get the first chance at the first minor leaguer, in keeping with the rules.

SGC Title Go Again Delayed

Another week will lapse before Jack Russell and Leo Estey swing into their 36-hole clash for the Salem Golf club title. Estey had not returned Friday from a trip east so officials have set the crown match—again tentatively—for Sunday, Oct. 23rd.

All the rest of the flight title matches in the annual tourney have been played other than for the sixth flight bout between Dr. M. E. Gadwa and Dr. John R. Wood. The pair will play this one probably Sunday.
