Intersectional Mix Set at Eugene Today

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 14 (AP)—Colorado and Oregon limbered up under clear skies today, but the weatherman foresaw a possibility of showers by game time at 2 p. m. (PST) tomorrow.

Clouds were expected to move in overnight. Rains are not certain, however, and in any case Hayward Field, now dry, should afford good footing.

Odds-makers were quoting Oregon as 28-point favorites, but many observers were expecting a closer game. Some in fact thought that the visitors from the big seven conference were capable of an upset, especially if the Oregonians are thinking too much of next week's coast conference game with southern California.

Both coaches, Jim Aiken of Oregon and Dallas Ward of Colorado, are expected to stick to usual lineups.

The Probable Starters:

COLORADO	OREGON
Case	L. E. D. Robinson
Thomas	L. J. D. D. Robinson
Thompson	Thompson
Brening	Thompson
Thompson	Thompson
Winnham	Thompson
Miller	Thompson

Portland Frosh Top Cat JV's

Willamette's Jayvee footballers dropped a 28-13 game to the strong Portland University Frosh Saturday in a Sweetland field tilt which had a strong aerial flavor.

The Bearcat yearlings opened the scoring in the first quarter as quarterback Ed Jorman flipped a 20-yard payoff pass to End John Skimas. The Pilots came back to chalk a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter, one on a 40-yard play from Jack Owens to Linn Kroll and the other on Kroll's 39-yard scamper from scrimmage.

The Portlanders hit paydirt again in the third quarter when John Deets plunged over from a half yard out, and Owens fired a pass to Della Vivia for another Portland U six-pointer in the fourth quarter.

The Bearkittens' final points came in the fourth period as Skimas intercepted an enemy aerial on the Portland 10 and rombed over.

Chuck Mary booted the conversion after Willamette's last touchdown, and John Lagan kicked all four Portland extra-points.

Flying Bucks Beat M-City

MILL CITY, Oct. 14 (Special)—St. Paul's high-flying Buckaroos held their lead in the Marion County B league grid chase today with a 13-6 victory over a fighting Mill City crew.

Art Marthaler registered both Buckaroo touchdowns, one in the second quarter and the other in the third period. Both came on runs of 15 yards. Marthaler also accounted for the lone conversion via a buck.

Mill City's tallies came in the final quarter when Leo Poole took a 15-yard scoring pass from brother Lawrence Poole.

Faces Bufs

Big Sam Nevills (above), one of the numerous stalwarts in Coach Jim Aiken's U of Oregon forward wall, will face the Colorado Buffaloes today in the two o'clock game at Eugene.

Frosh Wallop Rooks, 33-6

EUGENE, Oct. 14 (AP)—Oregon's powerful Frosh football team posted a solid 33-6 victory over the Oregon State Rooks today before a crowd of 2000.

Coach Bill Bowerman's Duckslingers were never in trouble. They tallied in the first period on a 62-yard march, added two more touchdowns in the second period and scored again in the third and fourth periods. One of the Frosh scores came on a 70-yard runback of an interception by Dick Wilkins. Quarterback Hal Dunham's passing accounted for three touchdowns, one aerial play good for 52 yards.

Lone Rook score came in the last two minutes on a pass from Jerry Schubert to Halfback Chuck Keller.

BOLANOS, DOUCEN TO VIE
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14 (AP)—The long sought "natural" between lightweight Enrique Bolanos of Mexico City and Maxie (Little Duke) Doucen of New Orleans was set today for Nov. 15 at the Olympic auditorium here.

ND's Long Streak Threatened

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 14 (AP)—Favored Notre Dame and Tulane, the scythe of the South, clash ball powers before a long-sold-out Fightin' Irish by two touchdowns, the capacity Notre Dame stadium crowd expects to see Tulane fiercely menace an Irish bid for their 32nd straight defeatless game.

The high-voltage intersectional battle will establish the winner as a powerful candidate for national honors, although it marks only the season's fourth start for each team.

Henry Frnka's Tulane team comes fresh from wins over two formidable southeastern conference foes, Alabama (24-14) and Georgia Tech (18-0), and a well-timed "breather" wait over Southeastern Louisiana (40-0).

Notre Dame warmed up with sweeps past Indiana (46-6), Washington (27-7) and Purdue (35-12). Ecker crashed through the line and moved 20 yards into paydirt.

Al Pearl tallied the next six-point, then Jim Collier snared a pass and stepped into the end zone for another TD. Collier scored again before the half ended by picking up a fumble and galloping 22 yards to give the Salem club a 25 to 0 halftime advantage.

In the second half, Lancaster scored on a pass interception, and Collier scored again on a fumble recovery.

Sacred Heart Whips Phils

A hard-hitting and lightning-quick Sacred Heart Academy football team overwhelmed Philomath 38 to 0 on the SHA gridiron Friday afternoon. The Cardinals scored in every quarter except the third.

The Cards wasted little time in beginning to pile up their score. After Jim Lancaster returned the opening kickoff 63 yards Clark Ecker crashed through the line and moved 20 yards into paydirt.

Al Pearl tallied the next six-point, then Jim Collier snared a pass and stepped into the end zone for another TD. Collier scored again before the half ended by picking up a fumble and galloping 22 yards to give the Salem club a 25 to 0 halftime advantage.

In the second half, Lancaster scored on a pass interception, and Collier scored again on a fumble recovery.

Whitman Goes to Phils

BROOKLYN, Oct. 14 (AP)—Continuing to unload their second rate performers at the rate of two a day, the Brooklyn Dodgers today announced the sale of Marvin Rackley to the Cincinnati Reds and Dick Whitman to the Philadelphia Phils. Both are outfielders.

The football team of the University of Arizona was outscored 154 points to 232 in 1948, yet posted a record of six wins and four defeats.

Taylor's Liked, Corvallis Go

Orange Make Home Debut Today, 2 p. m.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 14 (AP)—A stout Montana grid squad, hailed as the toughest in years from Missoula, invaded Corvallis today for tomorrow's encounter with Oregon State. Kickoff time is 2 p. m.

It will be the home opener for the staters, who were installed generally as three-touchdown favorites. Coach Trip Taylor warned his staters, however, not to take Montana lightly. The Montanans gave Washington State a close fight, and finally succumbed by only a 13-7 count.

Passes are expected to play a large part in tomorrow's outcome. Montana has an ace thrower in quarterback Tom Kingsford. Oregon State will have two passers in the lineup: Quarterback Gene Morrow and Halfback Ken Carpenter.

An added entertainment feature will be "band day." High school bands from Albany, Lebanon, Sweet Home and Corvallis will participate.

The Probable Lineups:

Cards Battle Huskies Today

SEATTLE, Oct. 14 (AP)—Sophomore Don Heinrich will be back in the starting lineup at quarterback tomorrow when the University of Washington tackles Stanford in a second bid for a Pacific coast conference football victory.

Fullback Hugh McElheny, however, probably will ride the bench until Coach Howie Odell feels the time is ripe to turn the California scampers loose. McElheny has been out for three weeks with an ankle injury.

The Stanford team arrived this afternoon, worked out at the stadium and Coach Archie Schwartz said Sophomore Gary Kerkerian would get the call tomorrow at quarterback.

The Probable Lineups:
