A few of the Gales former University of Oregon friends have been invited to greet them.

Hal Hibbard camp and auxiliary will gather for a social meeting Monday night at the Veterans hall at 8 o'clock. Cards will be in play with refreshments following. The committee includes Mrs. Marie Baker, Mrs. Charles O. Wilson and Mrs. Harry Ross.

Miss Cook Bride of Saturday

The First Christian church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Nellie M. Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cook to Henry F. Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy R. Henderson on Saturday, October 15. The Rev. Dudley Strain officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony.

Miss Grace Ashford was soloist accompanied by Mrs. Walter Nafte. Taper lighters were Miss Dorothy Cook and Miss Myrl Clapps of Yakima, Wash.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin dress fashioned Elizabethan style with court train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a white satin cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book centered with gardenias and white carnations.

Mrs. Eugene Heath of Portland, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant. Her gown was of aqua brocade with which she wore long white gloves and a flowered covered tiara. She carried a nosegay of roses, carnations and bouvardia.

Acting as best man was Joe Addison and seating the guests were Ray Cook, brother of the bride and Norman Henderson, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Cook wore a forest green satin dress with black accessories and her corsage was of pink roses and Mrs. Henderson chose a grey dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of red roses.

The reception was held in the church parlors, with Mrs. Herbert Harold, the groom's sister cutting the cake. Mrs. Bessie Clapps, the bride's aunt of Yakima, Wash., poured. Assisting were Miss Dorothy Cook, Miss Myrl Clapps and Mrs. Robert Kraepin.

For her wedding trip the bride chose an emerald green satin dress with grey accessories. They will reside at 330 Division street, Salem, on their return.

To Live in Salem

MT. ANGEL — A bride of Saturday, October 15, was Miss Rose Theresa Hauth, daughter of Mrs. Wendel Hauth, who was married to R. Stanley Ferrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Ferrell of Newberg, at an afternoon ceremony at 2 o'clock in St. Mary's Catholic church. Rev. Damian Jentges officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

White chrysanthemums decorated the altars and large baskets of the same flowers were placed on the communion rail. Miss Helen Keber played the wedding march and Miss Pauline Saalfeld and Miss Eustelle Bauman sang. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Fred Hauth. She wore a gown of white satin with court train, long sleeves, with basque bodice, pointed waistline and deep yoke of marquisette outlined with a ruffle of wide French lace. Her double fingertip veil of tulle fell from a headdress of ruffled tulle and seed pearls. She carried a white orchid and pearl rosary.

She was attended by her sisters, Miss Maryann Hauth, as maid of honor, and Miss Eleanor Hauth, as bridesmaid, both wearing gowns of orchid satin faced with full skirt and fitted bodices with a wide-three-fold tailored ruffle with surplice closing. They wore matching mitts and chain and carried colonial bouquets of yellow and white flowers.

Charles Ferrell, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and groomsmen were Frederick Douglas, Ushers were Donald Hauth and Bill Anderson.

A reception was held in St. Mary's dining hall. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Charles Deal and Miss Georgiana Hauth, sisters of the bride; Mrs. Charles Ferrell and Miss Caroline Ferrell were in charge of the gift table and Miss Maxine Schwab passed the guest book. At the punch bowl were Miss Annella Bauman and Miss Bertha Hassing. Serving were Miss Mary and Miss Donna Diehl, Miss LeVonne Frey, Miss Bernadette Hauth, Miss Marilyn Hauth and Miss Phyllis Wolf.

After a wedding trip to California, Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell will be at home in Salem. For going away, the bride wore a wine dress blue coat and grey accessories and orchid corsage.

Being welcomed as newcomers in the capital are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heckel, who have moved here from Fargo, South Dakota. They have taken a house at 1740 South Winter street and Mr. Heckel is engaged in the insurance business.

The film, "Human Growth," will be shown at the McKinley Mothers club meeting to be held at the school Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Donald Cooper is president and election of new officers will take place during the business session.

Miss Edith Clement Married

At a simple but impressive ceremony on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the prayer room of the First Presbyterian church Miss Edith Clement, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. O. Clement, became the bride of George P. LaBorde, all of Salem, Dr. Chester W. Hamblin performed the nuptials before members of the immediate family and a few friends.

Mrs. E. T. Barnett flew north from Stockton, Calif., to sing for her sister's wedding. Mrs. Ralph Dobbs played the accompaniment and wedding music.

Dr. Clement gave his daughter in marriage and for her wedding she chose a mulberry gabardine dressmaker suit with black accessories and she carried a small bouquet of pink carnations and roses.

Mrs. Barnett was her sister's only attendant and her suit was an invisible check of deep red and green with green and black accessories. She also carried a small bouquet of autumn flowers. E. M. Adams stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Adolph Greenbaum and Kenneth Jennings.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Clement wore a grey wool dress with grey and black accessories.

The newlyweds greeted their guests in the prayer room after which was held in the fireplace room. Showing guests to the reception were little Eugenia Margosian and John Clement.

Mrs. F. N. Nombalais of Eugene and Mrs. Henry Clement of Portland cut the cake. Mrs. Frank W. Spencer presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Norris D. Clement was at the punch bowl. Assisting about the rooms and serving were Mrs. Carl W. Emmons, Mrs. L. L. Laws, Mrs. George E. Allen, Miss Florence Nombalais of San Francisco, Mrs. Leon Margosian, Mrs. Vern Shay, Mrs. Joseph Matulec, Mrs. Donald Garrison (Dolores Clement) of Portland and Miss Jean Clement.

The couple left by plane for Detroit, from where they will drive their new car to New England to visit his relatives. After November 15 they will be at home in Salem at 1358 Chemeketa street.

Alpha Gamma Delta alumnae will be entertained Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. James Turnbull, 1365 North 21st street, at 8 o'clock; Mrs. Robert Viernan will be the co-hostess. Robert Viernan, art instructor at Parrish junior high school, will be the speaker.

Delta Zeta alumnae will be entertained Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Felke on Richmond avenue at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Albert Depenbrock will be the assisting hostess.
