Milady gets out her rain togs in October to be ready when the Oregon rains begin . . . for shopping, out walking with the youngsters and to games, raincoats, boots and umbrellas are mighty handy. Mrs. S. D. Wiles and Mrs. Forrest Bodmer were caught by the cameraman during one of the first fall rains as they set out to go shopping.

Spinsters Make Plans for Benefit . . .

On the calendar for Friday afternoon, November 4 is the dessert bridge benefit for which the Spinsters will be hostesses at the American Legion club at 1 o'clock. Proceeds from the affair will be used to carry on the philanthropic work of the organization.

Miss Margaret Lovell is general chairman of the directorate and has announced the following committees; Miss Patricia Larson and Miss Patricia Viesko, prizes; Mrs. P. Dixon Van Ausdell, jr., and Mrs. Robert Elgin, tickets; Mrs. Robert W. Gormsen and Mrs. H. William McElhinny, decorations; Mrs. Roy Edgerton, tallies; Mrs. Frank Turner and Miss Patricia Burrell, tables; Mrs. William R. Shinn, reception; and Mrs. Peter Gunnar, publicity.

Reservations for the affair may be made by calling Mrs. Clarence Hamilton or Mrs. George Emigh. Miss Betty Jean Manoles is president of the Spinsters. Final plans for the benefit will be completed at the November 1 meeting of the group.

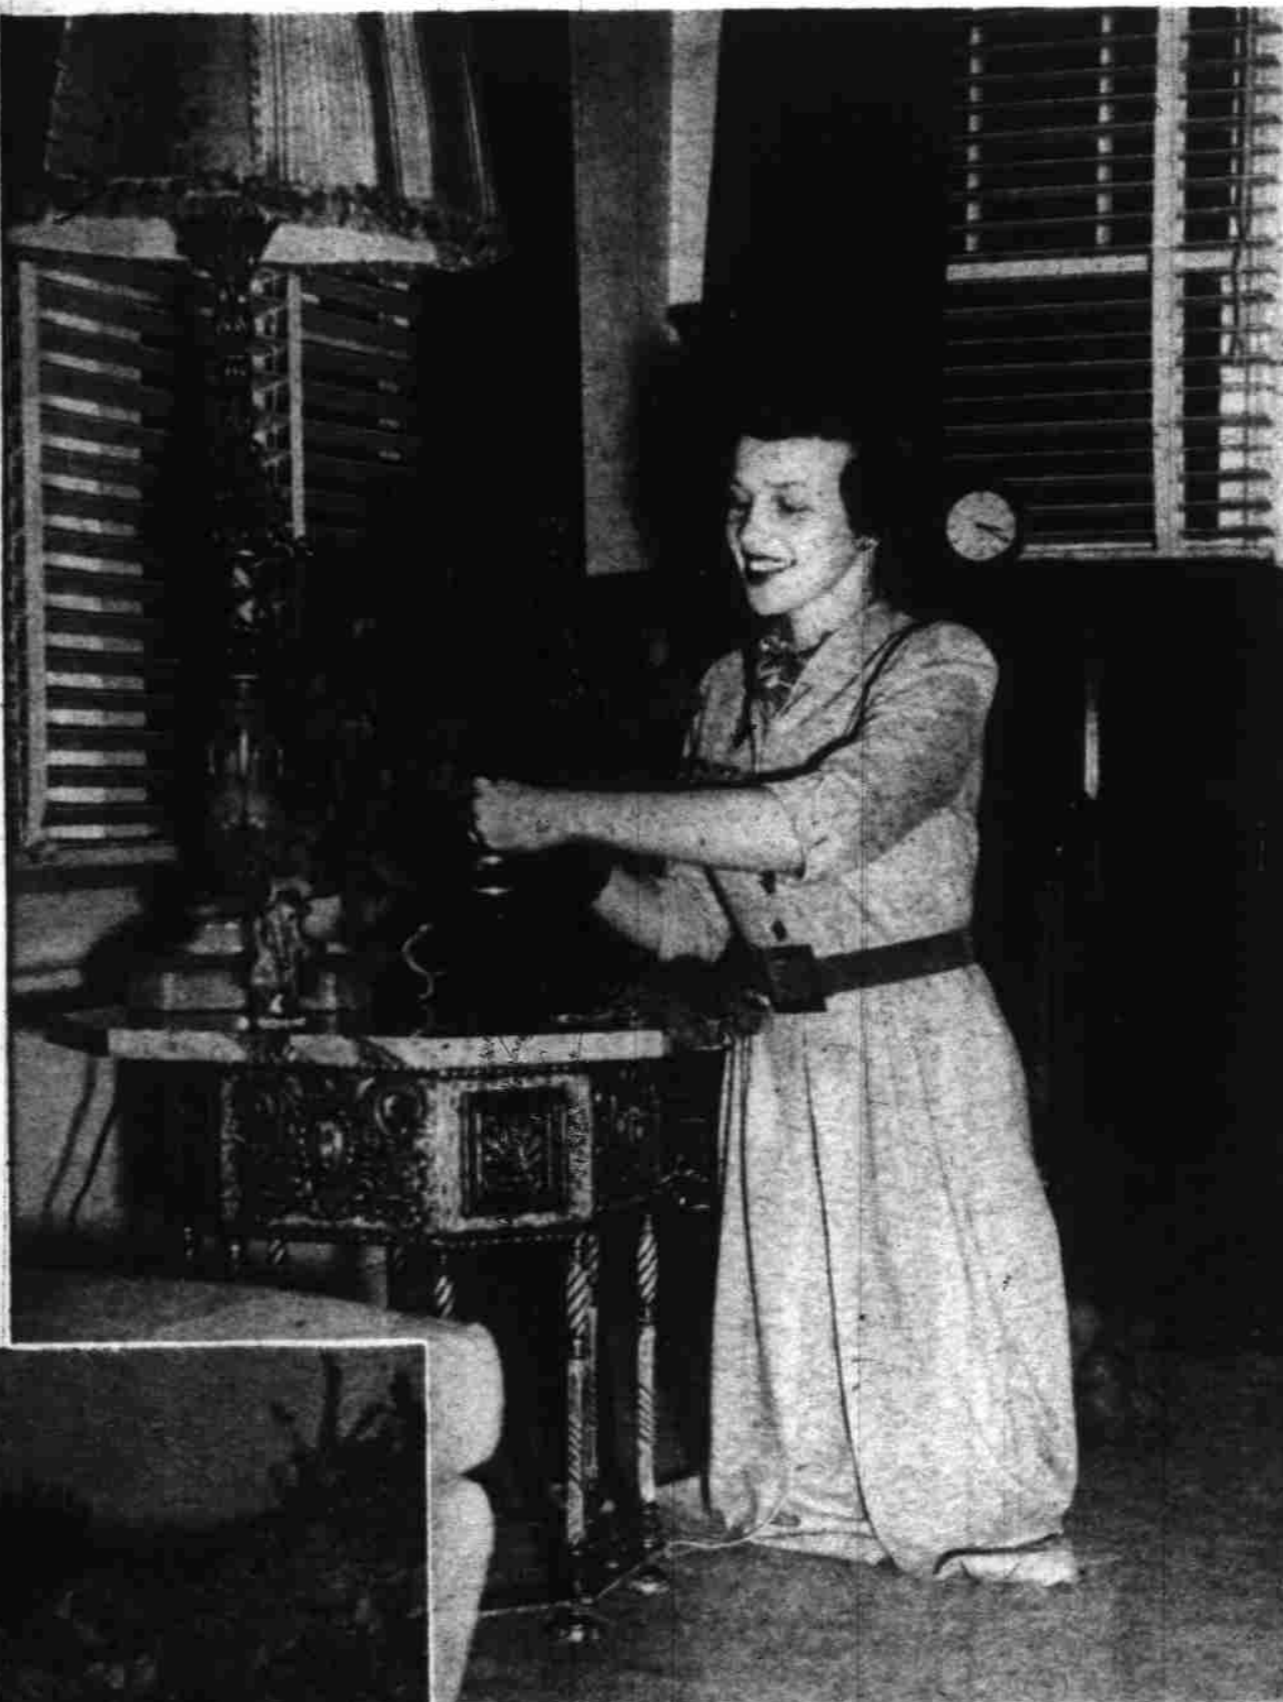

It's grape picking time with grapejuice and jelly a favorite among the youngsters during the winter. Mrs. Kenneth Potts and sons, Ronny and Larry, are pictured picking grapes at their Morningside place . . . There are many shelves filled with grapejuice and jelly in the Potts' home, and always plenty of grapes left for their friends.

And now that it's fall again . . .

It is time to rake leaves, which seemingly fall every minute . . . Here Mrs. Reynolds Allen gets the cooperation of her whole family to rake, while she sweeps the walks . . . Two year old Spencer has the time of his life filling his little red wagon with leaves while brother, Jim, and sisters, Sara and Molly do the raking. (All candids by Kennell-Ellis studio).

Geists to Be Hosts at Supper . . .

Dean and Mrs. Melvin H. Geist will be hosts for a buffet supper party tonight at 6 o'clock at their West Lefelle street residence. The affair is being arranged in compliment to faculty members of the School of Music, Willamette university, and their wives. Arrangements of chrysanthemums and other fall flowers with candles will provide the decorative note about the rooms and on the buffet table. The evening hours will be spent informally.

Covers will be placed for Prof. and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs, Dr. and Mrs. Willis Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brennen, Mrs. Clorinda Topping, Miss Meien MacHirron, Bennet Ludden, Mr. and Mrs. E. Donald Jessop, Miss Jean Farquharson and the hosts.

A Surprise Dinner Party . . .

Robert White was honored on his birthday at a surprise no-host dinner party which his wife arranged for Saturday night at the American Legion club. Later the group attended the Waverly club dance at the Marion hotel.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. James Minty, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fravel, Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Owen. Earlier in the day the Whites and Mintys had attended the Oregon State-Montana game.

Arranging centerpieces of autumn flowers or fruits is always a favorite for hostesses when entertaining . . . Mrs. John H. Johnson, at the left, who is most artistic at table arranging, is shown putting the final touches on a bouquet of red salvia, which blends beautifully with the gay colored furniture and Chinese accessories in the Johnson's attractive home on South 23rd street.

Pumpkin pies become a favorite dessert in many families, especially for Halloween parties which are now beginning in full swing. When Mrs. Maynard Shiffer bakes pumpkin pies, her daughter, Julie, is always there to help and is pictured pouring the pumpkin mixture into her own little pie shell.
