

Charlotte Zielinski A Bride

Miss Charlotte Frances Zielinski, daughter of Mrs. Charles Zielinski and the late Mr. Zielinski, was married to Arthur M. McKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McKay of St. Paul, Saturday at the St. Vincent dePaul Catholic church. Father George O'Keefe officiated at the 9:30 o'clock ceremony.

White chrysanthemums with blue ribbon trimming were used to decorate the church for the occasion and fan shaped bouquets of white chrysanthemums tied with blue streamers marked the pews. Soloists were Mrs. Charles Helke and Wayne Meusey, who also played wedding music.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Edward Zielinski, the bride wore an exquisite ice blue satin period gown, made with off-the-shoulder net yoke with ruching and French chantilly lace edging, which was repeated on the hemline. The dress was fashioned with a fitted bodice and very full skirt with a long train caught in front with lilies of the valley. Her fingertip veil was held by a Mary Stewart cap edged with French lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis bouvardia and laceron centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Joseph Henny, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant, and bridesmaids were Miss Helen Zielinski and Miss Mary Theresa McKay. Their dresses, made identical to the bride's, were in mist blue satin, with full skirts and bustle back and matching mitts. They wore Mary Stewart caps with blue pom-poms and the honor attendant's cap had white pom-poms. They carried small white satin fans edged with nylon lace and pale blue carnations.

Attend the Groom
Joseph McKay was best man and groomsmen were Ernest Zielinski and Bert Bernardis. Seating the guests were Joseph Henny, Dennis Manning and Lloyd Ferschweller.

Mrs. Zielinski chose for her daughters' nuptials a teal blue dressmaker suit with black accessories and Mrs. McKay wore a maroon colored suit with gray accessories and both wore white gardenia corsages.

Following the wedding a dinner and reception were held at the Veteran's hall with Mrs. Edward Zielinski, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Marrel Cray greeting the guests. The blue, white and silver pulared cake centered the bride's table. Assisting in the gift room were three former schoolmates of the bride, Mrs. Daryl Drorbaugh, Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. Joseph Schuetz. Miss Alice Perdue passed the guest book.

For her wedding trip south, the bride chose a navy blue fitted suit with navy accessories and a white orchid corsage. On their return they will live on a farm at St. Paul.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McKay, brother and sister-in-law of the groom from San Francisco, and Mrs. Walter Whelan, great-aunt of the bride from Stockton, Calif.

The country home of Mrs. John Ramage on Croisan creek will be the scene of the Salem Lions auxiliary's first meeting of the season on Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Glenn Weaver, chairman, Mrs. Hausmer Siefarth, Mrs. LaVerne Young, Mrs. A. N. Wyson and Mrs. Fred Starrett. Mrs. Wayne Doughton, president, will preside. Mrs. Bruce VanWynyarden is arranging the program, assisted by Mrs. R. W. Pickell and Mrs. Elmer Church.

They Head Auxiliaries . . .

Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, left, president of Women of Rotary, and at the right, Mrs. Wayne Doughton, who heads the Salem Lions auxiliary this year. Both groups are important auxiliaries to the men's service organizations.

Women of Rotary was organized in 1933 in Salem and now has a membership of 75. The group sponsors two Girl Scout troops and contributes annually to all civic projects. Luncheon meetings are held the fourth Monday of each month with programs a highlight.

The Salem Lions auxiliary, with a membership of 105, was organized in Salem in 1934. The international project of Lions is helping the blind, which is carried on extensively by the local auxiliary. This year the group is assisting and contributing to the state clinic for pre-school blind children. The auxiliary also contributes to all civic projects. Meetings are held the third Thursday of each month featuring programs. (Jesten-Miller photos).

Brides-Elect Tell Plans For Rites

Two weddings are calendared for the afternoon of Sunday, October 30 with Miss Beverly Briggs and Miss Sheila Ryan announcing plans for their nuptials.

Miss Briggs, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Briggs of Long Beach, Calif., who has already come north for the rites, will be married to Travis Cross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Cross, at a 4 o'clock ceremony at the First Congregational church. Dr. Daniel H. Schulze will officiate and Mrs. Peter M. Gunnar (Edith Fairham) will be the soloist. Miss Minnie May Miller will be the organist.

Lighting the tapers will be two of the bride-elect's Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters, Miss Winona Dillard of Seattle and Miss Barbara MacDuffee of Battleground, Wash. Mrs. Donald Larson of Great Falls, Montana will be her sister's honor attendant and little Bonnie Mae Larson will be the flower girl for her aunt.

Richard Page, will come north from his studies at Stanford, to serve as best man. Ushers will be Robert Skopil, William Juza, Theodore Mankert, jr. and Mark Hatfield. The reception will follow in the fireplace room.

Miss Ryan Tells Plans
St. Vincent dePaul Catholic church will be the setting for the wedding of Miss Sheila Ryan, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. William C. Ryan and Alfred J. Laue, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Laue. The ceremony will take place at 2 o'clock with Father Vandehay officiating. Wayne Meusey will be the organist.

Colonel Ryan will give his daughter in marriage. The attendants will be Miss Lenor Sweet, maid of honor, Miss Janet Brown, Miss Mildred McMurdo, Miss Geraldine O'Connor, all of San Francisco and former classmates of the bride-elect, and Miss Alice Turtledove of Portland, as bridesmaids. June Laue will be the junior bridesmaid.

James Wachob of Portland will act as best man and ushers include Douglas Carter, Rodney Bright, Delmar Letherman and James Bunnell. The reception will be held at Holly Hill, the country home of the bride's parents.

Don't Look Now . . .

But . . . over at The Statesman, when we get all burned up about something, we just take a month-off and get over it.

Well suited . . . our temperament is so suited to complete mental inaction and we take so well to being waited upon hand and foot, that it takes a bit of effort to get back into the swing of normal daily living. From now on, we'll make the typewriter justify keeping us on the payroll, even though we do our writing from home. Though we found that the yardage of a short leg is much smaller than if it had been long, it still doesn't take us anywhere.

Without supervision . . . We note that the state is getting its new property cleared off without our help. There seem to be trees left on the property. Perhaps the Powers That

Be, are beginning to appreciate the landscape as it is. Or, on second thought, wasn't the treeless era for our great state of Oregon during the last democratic regime? Maybe that's it.

Practical lesson . . . Some smart judge should sentence habitually reckless drivers to spend their Saturday and Sunday nights in attendance at the emergency hospital. The heartbreaks of but one session should sober them for a lifetime.

Time of year . . . and this is the season for automobile tragedies, when crowds of football fans through the highways, hurrying to or from the games, with pavements slightly slippery and fog pockets imminent. . . . Maxine Buren
