Monmouth Rites Of Interest

MONMOUTH—A wedding of interest here occurred Sunday, October 2 at Smithfield when Mrs. Lila Ralph of Dallas was married to Hardin Francis Smith of Smithfield. The Reverend John Hood of Independence read the service in a setting of autumn flowers, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Barth at two o'clock. Mrs. Harold Kriegen, niece of Mr. Smith sang with Mrs. Thomas Gilman, McMinnville, at the piano. The bride wore a beige suit with brown accessories and pink carnation corsage. Her attendant was Mrs. Avalon Eaton, McMinnville, sister of the groom, wearing a wine-red suit and white carnation corsage. Harold Smith was best man for his brother, Mary Barth, the groom's niece, seated the guests.

A reception followed, arranged by Mr. Smith's five sisters: Mrs. Barth, Mrs. Jack Flanagan, Mrs. Clarence McCrow, Mrs. Ray Tallman, and May Smith.

After a California trip, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside at the family home, which is being remodeled on Mr. Smith's large farm at Smithfield.

Harvey H. Stanton and Mrs. Leana Joyce, both of Salem, were married at Monmouth Tuesday afternoon, October 18. Reverend John Hash read the service.

The bride wore a green suit with brown accessories and a corsage of autumn leaves. After a short trip to Oregon beaches, the couple will be at home in Salem.

Mrs. Clara Barry and William Dodson were married October 11 at Dallas. The Reverend Clark Enz read the service. Mrs. Barry formerly resided at Langlois. Mr. Dodson who has been in real estate business at Rose Lodge and Taft, plans to open a real estate office in Dallas, where they have bought a home on Ash street.

Hard Times Party

Sojourners and their husbands will enjoy a hard times party and box supper tonight at the Mayflower hall at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. B. J. Cleary is chairman and assisting on the committee are Mrs. Wendell Munson, Mrs. Sevret Swanson and Mrs. Sam C. Campbell.

Salem chapter, Order of Eastern Star will hold initiation at its regular meeting Saturday night at the Masonic temple at 8 o'clock. Friendship night will also be held with members of Chadwick chapter, Woodburn and McMinnville chapters to be honor guests.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. If one fails to hear a name in an introduction, is it all right to ask the one who is making the introduction to repeat it?

A. Address your question to the person being introduced to you, as, "I'm sorry, but I did not hear your name clearly."

Q. At wedding supper, where should the father of the bride-groom be seated?

A. At the right of the bride's mother.

Q. Is it proper to remove serving dishes or dinner plates first from the table?

A. The dinner plates should be removed first from the table, then the serving dishes.

Will Speak ...

Etching Will Be Subject

The art department of the Salem Woman's club will present Melville T. Wire, Oregon etcher and landscape painter, to members and guests, Tuesday, October 28 at two o'clock at the clubhouse. Mr. Wire has searched every part of picturesque Oregon and northern California for his compositions, which have been a recreation and a passion for him.

He received his early training in art at Willamette university. Some years ago he took up etching at the University of Oregon. About etching, Mr. Wire says, "It gives me a satisfaction in artistic creation that I have never had before. It seems to be what I

Brides-elect Honored at Showers

Autumn brides-elect are sharing in many pre-nuptial affairs. Miss Wanda Hathaway and Mrs. Muriel Cross were hostesses for a personal shower Wednesday night at the former's home on Hood street in compliment to Miss Helen Ritchey, who will be married to Donald Koonce at the First Congregational church on November 10.

After an informal evening a late dessert supper was served to twenty friends of the bride-elect. Bouquets of chrysanthemums and autumn leaves provided the decorative note.

Mr. Wire's work in this line has been honored by being hung in the Pennell exhibition, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C. and with the Society of American Etchers, New York City. His etching "Cabin By The River" was chosen by a nationally known insurance company to inaugurate a series of covers for the company's magazine. Recently Mr. Wire's etching "High Desert Valley" was added to the permanent print collection of the Cleveland Art Museum, Cleveland, Ohio. The group of admirers and owners of his etchings is rapidly enlarging not only in the west but in eastern states as well.

Midsummer of this year Mr. Wire's etchings were on exhibition at the Maryhill Museum of Fine Arts at Maryhill, Washington. Mrs. George Alling, president of the club, invites all interested persons to attend the Tuesday meeting.

Mrs. Gerald C. Richards is chairman of the art department with Mrs. George E. Allen, Mrs. Robert L. Eifstrom, Mrs. Frederick Leupold, and Mrs. Forest A. Pontius as her committee members.

Honoring Miss Kennedy were Mrs. Frank Kennedy, Mrs. Everett Price, Miss Hazel Price, Mrs. Donald Zahradnik, Mrs. Margaret Gardner, Mrs. Miriam Sweetland, Miss Charleen Kirchem, Miss Arlene Frogley, Miss Vonna McBride and the hostesses.

Miss Hazel Price entertained recently for Miss Kennedy with a miscellaneous shower letting the honor guest.

Friendship Night Held

Chadwick chapter 37, Order of Eastern Star, observed friendship night Tuesday evening with nine other chapters as guests: Ramona of Silverton; Barzillai, Albany; St. Mary's, Corvallis; Cedar, Scio; Cascade, Springfield; Zenith, Brownsville; Marguerite, Lebanon; Willamette, Shedd, and No. 4, Cottage Grove.

The worthy matron, Mrs. E. M. Eby, and worthy patron, J. E. Frizell, were honored with a degree by the Rainbow Girls and each were presented a gift. Those whose birthdays are observed in October were presented with a token by the worthy matron.

Honored in the East were past worthy grand matron, Mrs. Paul Hauser; Mrs. Vernita Cooley, grand representative to the state of Wyoming; Mrs. Evelyn Asboe, worthy matron of Ramona chapter and Mrs. Phyllis Agnew, worthy matron of Barzillai chapter. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gaska were initiated into the chapter. An instrumental trio, composed of Mrs. Fred Rawlins, Delbert Jepsen and Fred Wilson, played several numbers.

An invitation was read from Salem chapter to attend a reception on Saturday evening, November 12, in honor of their member Mrs. William Merriott, who is grand chaplain of the Grand chapter of Oregon. Invitations were also read to attend friendship night at Salem chapter Saturday evening, October 22 and Barzillai at Albany on October 25.

The next meeting will honor the worthy advisor of Rainbow, Mrs. Wayne Henry.

Refreshments were served by the following committee: Mrs. Florence Taylor, Mrs. Emma Godfrey, Mrs. Amanda Guefroy, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Davis, Mrs. Anna Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. Mason E. Chappell, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Coon, Mrs. Paul Acton, Mrs. Pearl Collins and Mrs. Iva Ackerson.
