

St. Joseph's Setting for Nuptials

Autumn colors in the gold and green tones were selected by Miss Marcella Schwartz for the gowns of her attendants when she became the bride of Richard F. Gentzkow on Saturday morning. St. Joseph's Catholic church was the setting for the 9 o'clock nuptial mass at which Father T. J. Bernards officiated.

The altar was banked with arrangements of chrysanthemums and white tapers. The acolytes were Thomas and Donald Wichman. Wayne Meusey and Mrs. Vince Rodakowski sang with Mr. Meusey also playing the organ accompaniment and wedding marches.

The tall, brunette bride, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Schwartz, was given in marriage by her brother, H. V. Schwartz of Canby. Her handsome classic style wedding gown was of ivory slipper satin fashioned with a court train. The bodice was made with tiny buttons down the front, short sleeves and a low neckline with rolled collar finished in front with a satin bow. With her gown she wore long, satin gauntlets. Her fingertip illusion veil cascaded from a crown of sequins and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pom poms. Precede the Bride

Mrs. John Jennings was her sister's matron of honor and wore a forest green taffeta full skirted frock made with a low neckline and short sleeves. Her cascade bouquet was of yellow and bronze pom poms tied with satin ribbon and she wore a beanie of the flowers in her hair. Junior bridesmaids were her nieces, Dorothy Lou and Jan Schwartz, who wore tiptoe length gold taffeta dresses fashioned with scalloped, ruffled hemlines. They carried smaller cascade bouquets in the rust and deep red shades and wore gold taffeta bows in their hair. Flower girl was Margy Gentzkow, whose dress was identical to the junior attendant's and she carried a miniature bouquet of pom poms.

Paul Halter stood with the groom as best man and seating the guests were Albert Alley and William Gentzkow.

Mrs. Schwartz chose a rust blue suit with winter pink accessories and a corsage of pink button chrysanthemums for her daughter's wedding. The benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Gentzkow and she attended her son's marriage in a grey suit with green accessories and a corsage of bronze chrysanthemums.

A bridal luncheon for members of the wedding party and relatives was held at the Senator hotel following the services.

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon the bride was wearing a grey wool grey suit with brown lizard purse and shoes and a brown satin hat. The couple will be at home on route 4 after December 1.

Altrusa Club To Form

Formal installation of a Salem Altrusa club, national women's service organization, will take place on Tuesday night at a banquet at the Marion hotel at 7 o'clock with members of the Portland club giving the dinner for the charter members and presenting the charter. Temporary chairman of the new club is Mrs. E. P. Delaney.

Altrusa is the oldest of the women's classified service clubs and was organized on April 11, 1917 at Nashville, Tennessee and became the first national organization of executive and professional women, either classified or unclassified. Today there are over 210 Altrusa clubs throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico and Asia with a membership of 8,750 women. The service program of Altrusa is to foster community, state, national and international betterment.

Travel group of AAUW will hear Mrs. M. Hayes tell of her summer's trip to Europe at the meeting Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Maurice K. McCann, 4680 N. River road, at 7:45 o'clock. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Scott Sammel and Miss Verna Kippinger. Mrs. Hayes will tell of her visits to Holland, Switzerland, Germany and Luxemburg.

Takes Over the Gavel . . .

Mrs. Sam Campbell, who is serving as president of the Salem Junior Woman's club this year. The active group, which was organized in 1934, has a membership of 50 young women between the ages of 18 and 35. The philanthropic organization holds evening meetings the second and fourth Mondays of each month at the clubhouse. The object of the club is the furtherance of educational, philanthropic and civic activities. The club contributes annually to all civic events in Salem and to the Woodburn training school, the state junior project. Main project of the club this year is providing playground equipment for the city parks. The club holds benefit bridge and style shows in the fall and spring and two formal dances, all proceeds used to carry on the work of the club. (Kennell-Elis photo).
