-The Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Wed., November 16, 1949

Harvest Tea Event of Friday

Always a much looked forward to event of the pre-Thanksgiving week is the annual Harvest Tea at the Methodist Old Peoples home on Friday afternoon, for which members of the board of managers. are arranging. Calling hours are from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

All interested persons are invited to attend the silver tea or bring gifts for the home. Proceeds will be used to finish paying for the newly installed automatic elevator at the home. During the afternoon there will be a tour of the newly redecorated rooms with the guests of the home welcoming the visitors.

Mrs. Ralph Mercer will greet guests at the door and in the receiving line will be Mrs. Emmett O. Welling, president of the board, Mrs. A. J. Crose and Mrs. Robert Moulton Gatke, board members, and Mrs. Clara Fletcher, matron of the home.

Inviting guests into the dining room will be Mrs. W. L. Lewis, Mrs. C. A. Gies, Mrs. Willard L. Cole, Mrs. William E. Kirk and Mrs. Frank Bennett. Presiding at the tea urns the first hour will be Mrs. George W. Alling and Mrs. Guy N. Hickok and pouring the last hour will be Mrs. B. Earle Parker and Mrs. Ruth Fugate.

Serving in the dining room will be a group of young people of the Leslie Methodist church. The tea table will be covered with a lace cloth and centered with a bouquet of gold chrysanthemums. During the afternoon musical numbers will be presented with Corydon Blodgett and Betty Starr Anderson giving vocal solos, and Mrs. C. D. Morse playing violin selec-tions, accompanied by Mrs. M. J.

Gilson. Mrs. H. G. Carl is general chair-man of the tea with the board of managers serving as hostesses.

Miss Foat Sets Date

Wedding bells will ring on Sat-urday, December 17 for Miss Glen-na Foat, daughter of the R. G. ter houses for remodeling loans, Foats, and Corporal Raymond and for the Lindsey Barbee award Coursey, jr., son of R. C. Coursey, at the First Church of the Naz- Attending the affair wer

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Jack of Silverton, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a reception at the First Methodist church in Silverton on October 23. The Jacks have two daughters, Miss Lorena Jack of Salem, and Mrs. R. A. Peterson of Vernonia. There are two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. (McEwan photo).

Bridal Parties For Miss Snyder MIDDLE GROVE - Miss Ruth ham.

The traditional Founder's Day ceremony, observing the 75th year of the sorority, was celebrated at be an event of November 27, was the Gamma Phi Beta alumnae buf- feted with a shower Thursday by fet dinner and meeting Monday the Merry Minglers club at the night at the country home of Mrs. home of Mrs. LeRoy Barker. night at the country home of Mrs. Betty Templeton. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Ivan Merchant, Mrs. Douglas Drager and Mrs. George The alumnae group sent a gift > the special prize given by Mrs. Robert Wager and Mrs. Clyde Colwell the one given by Mrs. Barker.

> > sett, Emory Goode, Jack Wickoff.

More for Your Money

More Convenient and Gayer

By Mrs. Genevieve Smith In consideration of the amount of time you spend in your kitchen, why not use some of the little things that and will make it a gay spot in your home . . . as well as more convenient? Here are some of the ideas some new, others improvements on old ones - that are available gen erally:

SHELF COV- Mrs. Smith ERS - One of the most attractive patterns yet to appear has come out in plastic, a combination of shelving and edging in rolls 12 or 30 feet long, each 15 inches wide. The pattern is a gingham check design with a border that simulates applique in an unusually pleasing leaf and flower design. The border or edging folds on a line that is pre-creased for you.

Of course, there are many

Pre-Dance Party to Fete Many New Ideas Make Kitchen Parties Slated Miss Dare

Event of Saturday night will be Miss Maria Dare, who recently the Waverly club's formal dinner returned from a three months dance at the Marion hotel will. trip to Europe, most of which time Wolfer's orchestra playing for was spent in Italy with her relakinds of paper shelving, plain dancing following the 9 o'clock tives, will be the honor guest and patterned, available, too. They are quite a bit cheaper dinner.

than the plastic. One line that is The decorating committee innow in general distribution has cludes Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mink, the added feature of a plastic Mr. and Mrs. Terry Randall and finish that makes it cleanable Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Williams. The by the damp closet method. host and hostess committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Peter Geiser, WALL BEAUTY is easily provided by those 'attractive Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gabriel and wrought iron shelves, which Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guerin. come in white and colors and Out-of-town guests of Mr. and sell at quite reasonable prices. Mrs. Ollie Williams for the dance They are designed primarily for will be Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hack small radios, but are even more and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Trumbo Gloria Stone a colorful glass bowl or for have as their guests, the Maurice Tells Troth decorative when used for ivy in of Portland. The Roy Minks will knicknacks. They are conven- Heaters of Union Hill.

ient for your most-used cook-Will Entertain diment rack. IMPROVEMENTS. One of the to well-known line of kitchen towels now is coming out with much more softness and absorbency than in the past. One brand of waxed paper is self-sealing simply by pressure - makes lunch packing so much easier! Both are in grocery stores as as larger housewares departments of department stores.

land assisting.

books, or even as spice and con-Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sherman have invited a group of friends their South Church street home preceding the dance. Their guests will be Dr. and Mrs. Horace McGee, Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Shiffer, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Specht, Mr. and Mrs. Coburn Grabenhorst, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brownell, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Selberg, Mr.

and Mrs. Roy Ferris and Mr. and Franz Bakery in Tillamook. Mrs. Peter Geiser. The Harvest Moon theme was The Glen Fravels are entertaincarried out for the announcement ing a few friends at their home with a card, bearing the names of before the dinner dance. Their guests include Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce table. VanWyngarden, Mr. and Mrs-James Armpriest and Mr. and

Doctor Has Three Faces."

Mrs. Burdette Owen.

Portland Units Guests

Fifty members are expected from the Portland Units to attend the meeting of Capital Tenthive 84D. Maccabees, Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the Beaver hall. A group of the Portland officers will exemplify the ritualistic ceremony. H. S. Hudson, great A number of Oregon alumni are commander of Oregon, will be going down to Eugene Friday night a special guest. A program of folk land, headed for Eugene. Making for the pre-game festivities. Mr. dancing will follow and refreshand Mrs. Hollis Huntington will be ments will be served by the comin Eugene for the weekend and mittee. he will attend the reunion dinner Eugene Laird and Robert Need- of the 1919 football team, of which Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Owens, Mr. and he was a member. Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. L. V. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, jr., will be in Eu-Howard Maple, Mr. and Mrs. Karl gene for the weekend as guests of Becke, Mr. and Mrs. William the Lynn McCreadys and the P. Shinn, Mr. and Mrs. George Scales, reservations for the train trip are D. Quisenberrys will be the week- Mr. and Mrs. Roger Schnell, Mr. end guests of the Gus Hixons, and Mrs. Robert Elgin, the Rev. formerly of Salem. and Mrs. George H. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Miss Dora-Governor and Mrs. Douglas Mc-Kay will be in Eugene for the thea Steusloff, Mr. and Mrs. Otto game and will be joined by their J. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. son-in-law and daughter, the Les-Siegmund, Mr. and Mrs. John Heltter Greens. Mr. and Mrs. Russell zel, Dr. and Mrs. George R. Hoff-Bonesteele and Dr. and Mrs. Geor- man, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Laird, ge S. Hoffman will go down for Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips, Mr.

the game and will meet the Larry and Mrs. Robert Burrell, Mr. and Cooley, Garlen Simpson, Creighton Bergs of Eugene, for a post-game Mrs. Robert Brady, jr., and Mr. celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph and Mrs. Fred S. Anunsen, jr. The next meeting will be No-the next meeting will be No-then, Arthur Fisher, Robert Need-Will also visit their son-in-law and Mr. and Mrs. James Minty will be

Children Are Real Stars

AP Newsfeatures

Children, not Hollywood personalities, are the real stars of press photography, Dr. Ellen V. Mcoughlin, editor of The Book of Knowledge- said as she examined at an informal welcome home entries from coast-to-coast in a party Sunday afternoon for which national press photographers' con-Mrs. Thorne H. Hammond will test. be hostess at her Portland home.

"The American press devotes Twelve of Miss Dare's intimate more time and space to children friends from Salem have been and youth today than at any time bidden to the affair. A buffet in its history," she concluded after dinner will be served by the observing the scope and variety of hostess late in the afternoon with news photopraphs published Mrs. Joseph Harvey, jr. of Portthroughout the continent in the last six months and submitted in a photo contest which will document the story of "America's Children Today.

"There isn't a single face or phase of young America that has Revealed at the Delta Gamma not been covered by the camerahouse on the Willamette univer- man and his editor in their daily sity campus Monday night was the rounds in big, little or rural comengagement of Miss Gloria Stone, munities," she reported. "Our daughter of Mrs. Helen Stone of glamour ladies - what do you Hood River, and Durwood Jea- call it, cheesecake? - and even ger, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. our statesmen do not seem to com-Jeager of White Salmon, Wash. mand the attention of the pho-No wedding date has been set. tographer's flashbulb any more of-Miss Stone is a senior at Wil- ten than the youngsters.

lamette, majoring in voice. Her fiance attended the University of "The faces of America consistently reflected are the faces of happy children - at home or on a Washington and is now with the hike, at school or on a picnic; at work, at play, at church. Six men distinguished in news photography will judge the conthe couple, in a miniature hay- test in an effort to assemble a docstack, which centered the dinner umentary picture story for exhibit here and abroad. The contest began six months ago.

Mrs. Leon Brown entertained members of the Monday Study club Mrs. Rollin Haag has bidden at her home with Mrs. William members of her club to a luncheon Braun reviewing the book, "The and bridge Friday afternoon at her home on Croisan creek

Gamma Phis Celebrate

Beane.

Kring, Robert Fromm and the to the endowment fund, which is hostess. Mrs. Robert Pickeral won

Over a hundred Salem fans will board the "special train" here Sat- Joe Price. urday morning at 10 o'clock for the game. Two cars are reserved for the Salem rooters with several hundred coming down from Portarrangements for the train trip are Kenneth Potts, Clayton Foreman,

A. W. Loucks, Homer L. Goulet,

To Board the "Special"

Snyder, whose wedding to Jack Michael of Richmond, Wash., will Among those who have made Messrs, and Mesdames Robert Drager, Rex Adolph, Werner Brown, Harold Olinger, Clayton Foreman, Vernon Perry, Wheeler R. English, Guests were Mesdames Carl Snyder, Albert Fabry, John Acker-man, Ernest Barker, Leonard Malm, Wade Carter, Irvin Wager, Clyde Colwell, Covil Case, Orlin Kenneth Potts, Edward Roth, W. Waterman, Robert Joseph, A. W. Loucks, Charles Wood, John R. Wood, Conrad Paulson, Merritt Trux, Ray Gallagher, Robert Herrall, William, Whitmore, Richard Jones, Asa Lewelling, Tom Dun-

Salem Grid Fans Headed For "Big Game" Saturday By Jeryme English Statesman Society Editor

well

The "Big Game" of the year for Oregon grid fans will take place Saturday afternoon in Eugene at Hayward Field when the University of Oregon and Oregon State college play their annual game. Also highlighting the game will be the annual homecoming festivities on the University of Oregon campus with a number of Salem people going down for the weekend events.

To Attend Weekend Events

arene. The couple's engagement was announced in the spring.

The bride-elect has been employed at the state industrial ac-cident commission the past three years. Corporal Coursey is now with the Fourth Air Force at Hamfilton Field, Calif.

Miss Foat was honored at a surprise party when a group of Harold Olinger, Mrs. C. C. Higher friends entertained at the gins, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. James home of Miss Esther Patrick. H. Nicholson, jr., and the hostesses. Games were played with refreshments following and a shower honored the bride-to-be.

Honoring Miss Foat were Mrs. Marian Darling, Mrs. Dorothy Foat, Mrs. Marie Coursey, Mrs. Blanche Heer, Mrs. Ruth Branch, Mrs. Effie Unruh, Mrs. Margie Branson, Mrs. Irene Goucher, Mrs. Esther Wilson, Mrs. Bertha Cook. Misses Sally Best, Georgia Broyles, Nita Cairnes, Jane Hillman, Mar-tha Kauko, Patricia Burghart, Doris Scott, Grace Rodriguez and the hostess.

Polk Federation Meets Today

Polk county Federation of Rur-al Women's clubs will meet today at the Odd Fellows hall in Monmouth with the session to open at 10 a.m. Miss Joy Hills will be the morning speaker at 11 a.m. Luncheon will served at noon by the Highland Women's club.

Dr. J. H. Stewart of the Polk county Health association will be the guest speaker at the afternoon session and pictures will be shown of health work. All interested per-sons are invited to attend.

Mrs. Ficklin to Head Alumnae

Mrs. Norman Edwards was elected president of the Kappa Delta alumnae association which met at the home of Mrs. John Ficklin, 1930 North 19th st. Other officers, for the coming year include: Mrs. J .A. Carlon, secre-tary-treasurer; Mrs. L. F. Sheridan, telephone chairman; Mrs. Floyd Colburn, publicity chair-man; and Mrs. Harris Lietz who will continue as the representative to the City Panhellenic council and also head up the rushing and courtesy committees.

Meeting dates for this year will be on the second Wednesday of each month with the Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. William Ashby, Oak Knoll Golf club, on December 14.

Hayesville Women's club will hold a meeting Thursday with Mrs. Wayne Powers on Claxter road.-A 1:15 dessert luncheon will be served.

Attending the affair were Mrs. Richard Nelson, Mrs. Walter Barsch, Mrs. Robert Burns, Mrs. Lester Carter, Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Alton Brannon, Miss Martha Taber, Mrs. Hugh Taylor, Mrs. George Angle, Mrs. Garlen Simpson, Mrs. Ernest Hobbs, Mrs. Seth Payton Smith of Long Beach, Proudfit, Wilbur Friesen, Roy Scofield, William Massey, Charles Wenger, Lester Dudley, Gerald Jaffe, Fred Scharf, John Van-Laanen, Theodore Kuenzi, Law-Calif., Miss Margaret Simms, Mrs. rence Hammer, Will Scharf, Carl Snyder, John Cage, Florence Wright, Lena Bartruff, Paul Bas-

Dinner for a Visitor

Mrs. Charles Cooley of Grants Pass, wife of the district governor auxiliary will meet of Rotary, was the honor guest at a no-host dinner party Tuesday night at the American Legion club when board members and past are asked to bring food for presidents of Women of Rotary entertained. Mr. Cooley met with ine Richards will preside. the Rotary board members at the same time.

department inspector, will be a special guest at the meeting of Mrs. Rose Garrett will be hos-Barbara Frietchie Tent, Daughtess on Thursday at her home, for Ladies of the GAR. The group ters of Union Veterans Friday will sew for the December 14 afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home bazaar and will enjoy a no-host luncheon at noon. of Mrs. William J. Entress, 1865 S. Commercial st.

White Shoulders

CENTER

& Eryan

vember 17, at the home of Mrs. ham, Ralph Purvine, Charles daughter, the John Mauldings, John Ackerman, when they will hold the drawing of names for the Christmas party, December 22. Campbell, Robert DeArmond, Dan Among the Rooters Goulet, Chandler Brown, James On Thursday night another group honored Miss Snyder at the home of Mrs. Cleo Keppenger. Guests were Mesdames Russell John Hughes, Glenn Stevenson, John Hughes, Glenn Stevenson, Lynn Hammerstad, Erwin Batterman, Bruce Spaulding, John Johnson, William Burrell of Stayton, C. Lester Newman, Miss Margaret Wagner, Miss Patricia Viesko, John Perry, Judy Foreman and Vivienne Brown.

Charter a Bus

Another group of Oregon fans Disabled American Veterans are planning to charter a bus to Thursday Eugene for the game including night at the Salem Woman's Messrs. and Mesdames Paul Hendclubhouse at 8 o'clock. Members ricks, Charles Huggins, H. G. Maisons, James B. Young, Ronald Thanksgiving boxes. Mrs. Paul-Jones, Edgar Pierce, Brazier Small. Linn C. Smith, Breyman Boise, Floyd W. Shepard, Walter Kirk, Mrs. Ada Davidson, Eugene, Ercel W. Kay, Asel Eoff, Mrs. Velma Farmer, Leo Spitzbart, Carl Gabrielson and joining the group from Portland are Mr. and Mrs. William Mulligan, Mr. and Mrs.

joined by Portland friends, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cauthers, for the Among others planning to at-tend the annual grid classic are leave for the coast to spend the

ALEX JONES 121 NORTH HIGH STREET

PLUS TAX

armacus

operate as one"