

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

Miss Hug a Bride of Tuesday

By Jermye English
Statesman Society Editor

Pretty, brunette Kathleen Anne Hug became the bride of William J. Hughes at a lovely ceremony Tuesday afternoon at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic church. It was at 4:30 o'clock that the couple exchanged their vows before a gathering of relatives and friends, many of whom came from out-of-town for the rites. Father George O'Keefe performed the ceremony and Wayne Meusey was the organist. The altar was banked with bouquets of white and yellow chrysanthemums and tall white tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Walter Johnson (Mattie Reynolds) who were married on October 23 in the prayer room of the First Presbyterian church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Reynolds of Tahlequah, Oklahoma and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold S. Johnson of Salem. The couple will live in Salem. (McEwan photo).

Of white chiffon velvet was the bridal gown, which was fashioned en train. The fitted bodice was designed with a net yoke and a three-tiered bertha collar adorned with beading, which was also repeated on the edge of the long sleeves. Her fingertip illusion veil cascaded from a velvet coronet with a cluster of velvet flowers on one side. She carried a crescent shape bouquet of white roses and bouvardia centered with a white orchid. Lt. Comm. Wallace Hug gave his only sister in marriage.

Attendant Wears Gold

Proceeding the bride to the altar was her only attendant and Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sister, Miss Beverly Naubert of Tacoma. She wore a gold crepe gown fashioned with scallop tuckings at the neckline and just below the waist. The fitted bodice was made with cap sleeves and she carried a crescent shape bouquet of Tallman roses and chrysanthemum in the gold and bronze tones. In her hair was a headress of the same flowers.

The benedict, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hughes of Portland, was attended by Donald Deeks of Portland as best man. Seating the guests were Charles Hampton of Philomath, Warren Dobbin of Eugene, William Little and Robert LaLiberte of Portland.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Geor ge Hug chose a portrait blue crepe afternoon dress with matching hat adorned with feather trim and black accessories. Mrs. Hughes attended her son's marriage in a forest green crepe afternoon gown and both wore corsages of Tallman roses.

Reception at Marion Hotel

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the Mirror Room of the Marion hotel. Presiding at the coffee urns were Mrs. Ray Gilbert, Mrs. B. O. Schucking and Miss Elizabeth Putnam. Mrs. Wallace Hug and Mrs. Aaron Gould of Portland cut the bride's cake. Assisting about the room were Mrs. Keith Powell and Mrs. Archibald Morrison, Jr. of Portland. Mrs. Patricia Viecko presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Reed Volland of Albany passed the guest book. Mrs. Roger M. Schnell greeted guests at the door.

Serving were Miss Janes Hughes of Portland, a sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. John H. Johnson, Mrs. Robert Hermens and Miss Dorothy Roth of Albany, Miss Donna Short and Miss Joan Foster of Portland. The bride's table was covered with a blue satin cloth and encircling the cake was smilax and bouvardia, which was also used to decorate the punch table.

When the couple left on their honeymoon trip south the new Mrs. Hughes donned a winter blue silk faille suit with white velour cloche enhanced with flowers on one side and white and black accessories. Pinned to her suit was a white orchid. After December 1 the couple will be at home in Salem at the Fisher apartments. Mr. Hughes is attending the Willamette university Law School.

Lincoln — A birthday dinner, complimenting Carl Yungen, was given at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Yungen, November 15. Mrs. Carl Yungen arranged the affair for her husband. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Yungen and Walter.

We Repeat

Cooking Methods Told Again; Too Simple to Understand

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Let's get this straight. Some of us in Salem have our own special method of cooking turkey, unlike that of other cooks.

We put our turkey in a shallow pan, put it in the oven the night before it's to be eaten, and set the heat to 200 degrees. It is then left until along toward the middle of the next day. Then if it's done, we remove it to a warm place (or turn the heat away down) and keep it warm until mealtime. If it needs browning, then turn up the heat enough to make it brown but it probably won't need it.

This method is that simple, nothing to it.

Those women who prefer the older, and better known method, should put their turkey in the oven with no lid, but maybe a piece of oil soaked cloth over the top. They should set the oven at 325 or 350 degrees and leave it for from 15 minutes per pound for large to 25 minutes for a small bird. (We'll have a chart in Thanksgiving day, telling exact time per bird.)

Cranberry sauce, which is almost as important to Thanksgiving as the turkey and dressing may be anything from clear jelly to a rich sauce made with whole berries. Our favorite is a happy medium. It is jelled, yet the whole cranberry is used. By whipping and stirring, the berries are broken down into a smooth consistency.

STIRRED CRANBERRY SAUCE
1 pound cranberries
2 cups water
3 cups sugar

Add water to cranberries; cook for about 10 minutes mashing each berry and stirring with a potato masher or flat wire whip. Remove from stove and beat for 5 minutes, stirring as it cools. The mixture thickens as it cools. Use only one pound of cranberries at a time. If more sauce is desired, make in two containers.

Keizer Families To Celebrate

KEIZER — Many Keizer families are busy with Thanksgiving plans. Some will be going away while others will gather in family groups to observe the day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morris, Gladis, Loretta and James, Jr., left Saturday morning on the Shasta Daylight for San Diego to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Morris's brother and family.

The C. A. Miller family are also leaving for the Bay area to spend the holidays with relatives.

The Gustav Klompels and Henry Schmidt families will be together at the Schmidt home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Benton and twins will go to Silverton to spend the day with his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Clagget will have Mr. Clagget's sister Annie Cooper of Pasadena, as their guest.

The Paul Gells will spend the day in Corvallis with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Nordyke.

The J. A. Gardner family will all be together at the parental home on North River road with the Rev. Everett H. Gardner and family coming from Warrenton, the John Gardner family from Newport. Other members of the family include Mr. and Mrs. Westley White, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rose, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jones (Ailes Rose) of Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Yunker and three sons, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Brinkley and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gardner and family.

The Fred Gast family will spend the day with relatives in Portland.

Rotary Board at Pickens Home

Board members of Women of Rotary were entertained at a dessert luncheon on Monday at the home of Mrs. Chester Pickens. Plans were made for the regular luncheon meeting of the group on November 27 at the Golden Pheasant. Guest speaker will be Dr. Victor Hugo Sword, who has returned from 19 years in India as an educator, and talk on "Political Leaders of India."

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Ralph Cooley, Mrs. E. L. Crockett, Mrs. Gardner Knapp, Mrs. Robert Sprague, Mrs. P. H. Brydon, Mrs. Charles Fowler, Mrs. Floyd Bressler and Mrs. Pickens.

CDA Special Meeting

Court Capital City, Catholic Daughters of America will hold a special meeting at the Knights of Columbus clubrooms Friday, November 25 at 8 p.m. Members will attend mass at St. Joseph's church at 8 a.m. on Sunday, November 27, with breakfast immediately following at the Cave room in the Senator hotel. Reservations for the breakfast should be in by Friday noon, November 25.

Delegates to Council Named

The regular meeting of Capitol Unit 9 American Legion auxiliary was held Monday night at the Salem Womens club with Mrs. Walter Spaulding, president presiding. Committee reports were presented and a generous contribution was made to the "gifts for the Yanks" fund.

A splendid display of gifts were brought by the members, to be distributed through the rehabilitation committee to the veterans in the various hospitals throughout the state.

Delegates elected to Marion county council are Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Anson Ingles, Mrs. Clara Poland, Mrs. John Richey, Mrs. Merle Travis; alternates: Mrs. D. A. Apperson, Mrs. Ted Borkmas, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, Mrs. Fred Gallsdorf and Mrs. Ted Brabbe.

A meeting of the rehabilitation committee will be held on November 25 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Garson. A Christmas party will be held jointly with Capitol Post 9 on December 19 at the Legion club.

Following the business meeting, refreshments were served at a beautifully appointed testable arranged by Mrs. Allan Carson. Pouring were Mrs. William DeVall and Miss Peggy Gabriel, color bearers for the unit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Miles (Georgia Roberts) of Oakland, Calif., arrived in the capital Sunday night by train to spend Thanksgiving week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Roberts. Friday the visitors and her parents plan to go over to Devil Lake to the Roberts' summer place for the weekend.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Leo

Q. What should two persons do if introduced to each other for the second time?

A. If the occasion is a formal one, they should both acknowledge the introduction and not attempt any explanations that would be embarrassing to the person making the introduction. However, if the occasion is an informal one, it is all right to recall the previous meeting.

Q. Is it necessary to send a gift when one is invited to a church wedding, but not to the reception?

A. In this case, it is not necessary. Only an invitation to the reception would require a gift.

Q. Should one who is in mourning send Holiday greetings to intimate friends?

A. Yes, if one wishes to do so. However, it is not imperative, nor should it be expected.

Starts INSTANTLY to relieve SORE THROAT
Caused by Colds

Just rub on MUSTEROLE... it's most especially to promptly relieve coughs, sore throats and aching chest muscles due to colds. If asterole actually helps break up local congestion in the upper bronchial tract, nose and throat. In 5 strengths.

MUSTEROLE

Home From Trip East

Mrs. William H. Burghardt is welcomed home from a two and a half months trip through Canada, the eastern states and the deep south. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fouch of Portland on the motor trip.

The travelers went to Lansing, Mich. by train and from there went by car to Toronto, Montreal, Quebec and Halifax. They toured the New England state, Boston and New York and went up the Hudson to the Berkshires, where they visited the Burghardt homestead at Great Barrington. They visited in Washington, D. C. and then went south to Alabama, visiting some of the famous gardens near Mobile. They stopped in New Orleans, Texas, Tucson and California enroute home.

Silver Tea at Chi Omega Sorority

Chi Omega mothers were hostesses for a silver tea on Sunday afternoon at the chapter house on North 17th street with active, alumnae and mothers invited to call. Proceeds will be used to purchase a piano for the sorority house.

Mrs. Louis duBuy, president of the mothers, greeted guests at the door, assisted by Mrs. Charles McCargar, the house mother.

Presiding at the coffee urns were Mrs. Frank N. Walters and Mrs. Robert Crawford. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. H. E. Smedley, Mrs. Luella Newton, Mrs. Paul Gilmer, Mrs. G. F. Robinson of Portland, Mrs. Theo Adams and Mrs. Walter Thomas.

The decor carried out the cardinal and straw color scheme, the sorority colors, with chrysanthemums and candles centering the table.

Brush College Club Honored

LINCOLN—Attractively arranged chrysanthemums, from the tiny button varieties to the long petaloid ones, were used as decorations for the dessert luncheon at the Thanksgiving meeting of the Brush College Helpers club held at the Lincoln home of Mrs. N. J. Nelke with Mrs. Mike Focht, Mrs. Charles Nelke and Mrs. Joe Nelke as co-hostesses.

As an opening number, group singing was accompanied by Mrs. N. J. Nelke, followed by roll call to which response was a favorite Thanksgiving menu.

The club decided to send a CARE or Thrift package overseas to a family. Mrs. Mike Focht invited the club to her home for the Christmas party when gift exchange will be featured. Mrs. Edwin Burton, Mrs. Leo Nelson and Mrs. Monte Harris were named Christmas program committee and Mrs. Sam Patrick and Mrs. Glen Martin for refreshments.

Mrs. Lawrence McClure, president, appointed Mrs. Monte Harris to a family. Mrs. Foster as a committee to make the traditional pop corn balls for the community Christmas treats. Reporting on the benefit rummage sale for Lincoln Community Center association, Mrs. R. F. Yungen said the proceeds were $50.

Harold Jory New President

Harold Jory will head the Salem Oratoric society for the coming year, following election at a meeting of the group held after the regular rehearsal period on Monday night.

Others elected were Victor Wolfe, vice-president, Miss Margaret Allen, secretary; Miss Katharine Rempel, treasurer; Mrs. Alice Rose Jones, music chairman; Miss Elizabeth Brown; membership; Mrs. Claude Jorgansen, publicity; Raymond Dahlen, stage; Marvin Roth, properties; George Fordgard, finance.

The average length of life in the United States now is 67 years.

NOW is the time...
for Devon Violets!

England's most haunting fragrance... in strikingly unusual handpainted jugs... by the famous House of Delavalle, London.

Devon Violets Toilet Water in handpainted pottery jug. 1.50 plus tax.

Delavalle LONDON

Luisenberry Pharmacies
That operate as one!

More for Your Money

No Shrinking or Matting In New Washable Blankets

By Mrs. Genevieve Smith

Blanket manufacturers are now adopting the new wool finish that takes all the hazards out of blanket washing, even though you launder them by machine! Several well-known quality brands are now in or on their way to stores for sale at moderate price levels around $10 and up.

Another advantage that means a great deal to you as a home sewer is that the first of the washable wools are beginning to appear in yard goods department. By that is meant wools that can be tubbed in the ordinary way of substantial cottons — yes, in a washing machine! — without appreciable shrinkage and without one of that matted, boardy feel that may have greeted any previous wool-washing efforts.

Thanksgiving Dinner Guests

SALEM HEIGHTS — Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Bayne, Delmer, Robert, Roger and William will have as guests on Thanksgiving day Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hamlin and Virginia and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Morse, Frank and Jean of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Bayne, Corinne, Theo and Lucille of Peoria and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mason of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Robertson, Joy and Eddie, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Dreisler, and family.

Dr. and Mrs. Rollin Baker and Nancy will have as guests his sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Taft, and Billy of Astoria. They will spend the weekend with the Bakers.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Frahm, Delmer and Gloria, will spend the holidays in North Bend with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Summers.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Jones will be hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Browning, Mr. and Mrs. George Cogswell, and Bonnie Jean of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. David, Elbert Jones and family on Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McClellan, Judy and Rodney, will have as guests, Mrs. Ann Garber, and Orvis Wright of Wecoma Beach, Mrs. Charles Geiberger, and Ed. Geiberger.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan, David, Ralph, Charles, and Keith, will be the holiday guests of M/Sgt. and Mrs. Ralph J. Morgan in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cordis, Sandra and Ricky will have as guests Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Biegler, Dorothy Jean, Bobby and Patty Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. John Douglas will have as guests Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Douglas, David and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kilber, David, Steven, and Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker, Jeanna and Jenny, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Waddle, and Judy, George Douglas, and Pat Jones and Mike.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Allen, Bill and Trudy will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Allen in Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bates, Gary and Loretta, will have as guests Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bates and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Miller, Donald, Gail, and Larry will have as guests Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Riesberger, Glenn, Jane, John and Susan of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. A. Carleton and Jerry will have as guests Mr. and Mrs. Blondell Carleton, Jane, John, Ann and Patricia, of Portland, Mrs. A. B. Swan of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Carleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Thomson of Echo left for their home Tuesday after a several days stay in the capital as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank V. Prime.

The average length of life in the United States now is 67 years.

Carol Kunz Now Mrs. Shelton

Bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums with tall, white tapers decorated the altar of the First Congregational church Tuesday night for the marriage of Miss Carol Kunz and Roy L. Shelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Shelton. Sidney Sinclair sang before the bridal party entered and Jean Hobson Rich was the organist. Candles were arranged in the stained glass windows and the alternate pews were marked with candles and clusters of flowers tied with satin ribbon bows.

Harold A. Taylor of Salt Lake City gave his sister-in-law in marriage and her handsome bridegroom was of bluish pink satin designed with a net yoke bordered with a satin bertha. The sleeves were long and tiny buttons extended from the neckline to waistline in back. The full skirt was made with folds in the back and extended into a train. Her short veil was caught to a braided satin coronet adorned with seed pearls. Her bouquets of pink roses tied with satin ribbon loops.

Harold A. Taylor of Salt Lake City gave his sister-in-law in marriage and her handsome bridegroom was of bluish pink satin designed with a net yoke bordered with a satin bertha. The sleeves were long and tiny buttons extended from the neckline to waistline in back. The full skirt was made with folds in the back and extended into a train. Her short veil was caught to a braided satin coronet adorned with seed pearls. Her bouquets of pink roses tied with satin ribbon loops.

New Officers For Daughters

At the meeting of Bethel No. 35, Order of Job's Daughters Monday at the Beaver hall the group elected Anne Gibbens, honored queen; Harriet Hiday, senior princess; Mary Campbell, junior princess; Jackie Jones, guide and Shirley Bier, marshal.

Honored during the evening were Edna Mae Manning, honored queen, Adeline Smithson, senior princess, Mrs. Kehn Wain, Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. Harvey Aston, Mrs. James O. Barrell and Dorothy Pederson.

December 5, is the date set for a covered dish dinner for mothers, and fathers in the Masonic temple, at 5:30 p.m. The committee in charge is Marilyn Pride, chairman, Jane McCollum, Barbara Anderson and Judy Forman. Mrs. E. T. Hartwell welcomed members of Amaranth and Edna Manning invited Bethel No. 35, to visit Bethel V.D. at its next meeting, December 8.

Following the meeting a program was given by Roberta Graham violinist, accompanied by Dorothy Pederson; Mary Kay Brown tap dance with Mrs. Tyler Brown accompanying; Jane McCollum vocalist, accompanied by Anne Gibbens who also played solo selections.

Twenty-five members of Silver Belle circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, chartered a bus to attend the district meeting at McMinnville. Two hundred and five attended the meeting, representing various lodges throughout the state. Amity circle put on a mock wedding in honor of guardian neighbors, Russell Winchcomb and Sara May, who were recently married.

Carol Kunz Now Mrs. Shelton

Bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums with tall, white tapers decorated the altar of the First Congregational church Tuesday night for the marriage of Miss Carol Kunz and Roy L. Shelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Shelton. Sidney Sinclair sang before the bridal party entered and Jean Hobson Rich was the organist. Candles were arranged in the stained glass windows and the alternate pews were marked with candles and clusters of flowers tied with satin ribbon bows.

Harold A. Taylor of Salt Lake City gave his sister-in-law in marriage and her handsome bridegroom was of bluish pink satin designed with a net yoke bordered with a satin bertha. The sleeves were long and tiny buttons extended from the neckline to waistline in back. The full skirt was made with folds in the back and extended into a train. Her short veil was caught to a braided satin coronet adorned with seed pearls. Her bouquets of pink roses tied with satin ribbon loops.

Harold A. Taylor of Salt Lake City gave his sister-in-law in marriage and her handsome bridegroom was of bluish pink satin designed with a net yoke bordered with a satin bertha. The sleeves were long and tiny buttons extended from the neckline to waistline in back. The full skirt was made with folds in the back and extended into a train. Her short veil was caught to a braided satin coronet adorned with seed pearls. Her bouquets of pink roses tied with satin ribbon loops.

Precede the Bride

Miss Joan Kelo, wearing mist blue taffeta, was the honor maid and Miss Claire Vaughn and Miss Margaret Dodd, the bridesmaids, wore old rose taffeta frocks. They were resigned with boat shaped necklines, three-quarter length sleeves and full skirts. They carried old fashioned nosegays of roses, chrysanthemums and bouvardia shading from light pink to deep roses.

Donald Reville stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Arthur Sprague, Wayne Gilmore and Fred Anderson.

The couple received the congratulations of their guests at a reception in the fireplace room. Mrs. Wayne Gilmore presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., cut the bride's cake. Assisting were Mrs. Richard Jones, Mrs. Warren Doolittle, Mrs. Robert Clark, and Mrs. Donald Reville.

After a wedding trip south to San Francisco the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 352 Biller street. For traveling the bride wore a slate blue two piece taffeta suit with matching hat and black Persian Lamb coat.

Twenty-five members of Silver Belle circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, chartered a bus to attend the district meeting at McMinnville. Two hundred and five attended the meeting, representing various lodges throughout the state. Amity circle put on a mock wedding in honor of guardian neighbors, Russell Winchcomb and Sara May, who were recently married.

Groves-Riha Vows Are Read

AMITY — Miss Marjorie Ann Riha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Riha, Jr., became the bride of Elmer Groves, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Groves of Amity at the home of her parents Friday. The Rev. Ray C. Smith of Portland officiated at the 7 o'clock ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a slate blue satin afternoon dress and black accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Mrs. Riha wore a navy blue and white afternoon dress with blue accessories. Mrs. Groves wore a blue and white dress with black accessories and both had corsages of pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mrs. Ray Smith cut the cake and Miss Gail Riha, sister of the bride, poured.

The bride chose for her wedding trip to Eastern Oregon, a Kelly green gabardine suit and black accessories. They plan to reside in Klamath Falls where the groom will attend trade school this winter. Both are graduates of Amity high school. He spent several years on Okinawa during the war.

Talk of Trip To California

At a meeting of Willamette shrine, White Shrine of Jerusalem, Monday night, Mrs. Wilbur Pintler worthy high priestess spoke about a recent trip taken to California, when she visited other shrines. She also presided at the business meeting with Stanley Brown as watchman of the shepherds.

Mrs. Pearl Spear, a deputy for Willamette Shrine of Salem, and Bethel Shrine of Eugene, and Mrs. Blanche Barker, worthy high priestess of Klamath Falls and supreme queen, attended the meeting.

Mrs. Ronald Craven played a piano solo.

The refreshment committee included Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. Alice Palmer, Mrs. Clair Hamann and Mrs. Al Lightner.

CLUB CALENDAR

WEDNESDAY
League of Women Voters meet at Collins hall, Willamette campus, 8 p.m., Dr. Paul Packer, speaker.

FRIDAY
Past Presidents club, Hal Hibbard auxiliary, USWV, luncheon with Mrs. Bessie Baker, 525 North Cottage st., 12:30 p.m.
FOE auxiliary card party, guests welcome, 371 North High st.

SUNDAY
FOE auxiliary zone meeting and installation, 371 North High st.

Practical Christmas Gifts with a luxury touch (and priced so reasonably)

MODE O' DAY GOWN
2.98

Delightful feminine gowns, make an exquisite Christmas gift for someone very special. Select several now.

Rayon satin with sheer crisp nylon net ruffles. Lovely lines. In soft pastel shades.

A gift she'll adore the long winter through! Brushed rayon suede piped with white rayon braid many colors.

MODE O' DAY ROBE
6.98

Treasures for any woman... a luxuriously soft, cuddly warm rayon suede robe. Lay them away at your Mode O' Day shop now, for Christmas giving.

HOSIERY
The perfect gift she's sure to need. Sheer, winter-wonderful shades with an eye to long wear. Buy them by the box. 1.09

MODE O' DAY

373 State Street
Also Albany, Corvallis, Eugene

Mail Orders Filled