

Miss Linda Girod a Bride

Miss Linda Lee Girod became the bride of Ralph E. Parkhurst at a beautiful Thanksgiving eve ceremony at the First Congregational church. The Rev. Clark S. Enz officiated at the 8 o'clock nuptials before a setting of white chrysanthemums and white candles. Miss Joanne Gamble, Portland, a student at Oregon State college, sang "Through the Years" and Charles MacKenzie of Canby sang "The Lord's Prayer." Jean Hobson Rich was the organist.

Of white velvet was the bridal gown, fashioned with a wide draped neckline and long, shirred sleeves. The fitted bodice buttoned down the back and the skirt ended in a train. Her full length illusion veil was bordered in lace and she carried a white bible marked with a white poinsettia. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Girod of Canby, formerly of Salem, was given in marriage by her father.

Sister Only Attendant

Miss Anne Girod came by plane from Santa Ana, Calif., to be her sister's maid of honor, and wore a forest green velvet dress made similar to the bride's except for short sleeves. She wore long, velvet mitts and carried a quilted muff adorned with red poinsettias and silvered ivy leaves. She wore a dark green Juliet cap with a cluster of the silver leaves on one side.

Ring bearers were Harold and Louise Byers and the little girl wore a lime green velvet dress. James Jeppesen stood with the groom as best man. Ushers were Scott Foster, Willis Love, Ralph Cort and Marshall Summers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Girod donned a dress with shades of duobonnet and gray. Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Parkhurst came down from Portland for their son's marriage and she wore a pearl grey crepe dress and a crownless tulle hat in shades of pink and duobonnet. They both had orchid corsages.

Reception Follows

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the fireplace room. Pouring were Mrs. Robert Aiken of Corvallis and Mrs. H. A. Flux of Monmouth. Mrs. C. A. Jones of Gresham and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Arthur Girod, cut the cake. Assisting were Miss Dorothy Kirkpatrick of Portland, Miss Gayle Jacobs of Harrisburg, Miss Ethel and Miss Delores Girod, cousins of the bride, Miss Hilda Fox and Mrs. Irwin Byers, sister of the groom.

The bride's table was covered with a satin cloth and centered with the cake flanked by white tapers in silver candelabras tied with duobonnet satin bows and streamers. On the mantel was an arrangement of white and deep red chrysanthemums.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the new Mrs. Parkhurst was wearing a broad-shoulder suit with short plum jacket, to which she pinned green baby orchids. Her accessories were winter pink and she carried a brown fox muff. After December 1 the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at the Ambassador apartments.

Pictorial Patterns Gain Favor For Decorating, Gay Fabrics

By Mrs. Genevieve Smith

If your walls are painted or papered in a pattern that is small and unobtrusive, you can have a lot of fun with the new pictorial patterns that are coming out in decorative fabrics. They are especially attractive for use during the winter months, when you long for glimpses of the sunny beauty of spring and summer.

You'll find them appearing in decorative fabrics of various kinds, plain cotton weaves, chintz, the glowing satin weave in cottons (a sheet that never changes), and in heavier twills, as well as rayon failles. However, most of them are in cottons at reasonable prices, and washability is assured with the use of fast colors and, in better qualities, full preshrinkage.

Mrs. Genevieve Smith

One of the pleasing features of those new fabrics is that the designers have turned to American life for their patterns. One manufacturer, for example, has a series of interesting and colorful designs based on fascinating arrangements of houses in a village, of a fishing fleet of rural scenes, and village streets.

From another famous line you'll meet Johnny Fopposed, striding across a country landscape bordered in apple trees, blossoms and fruit, with his famous seed in hand. As companion pieces to this primitive design-effect, you have a choice of an all-over design that features the fruit in rich colors or a more delicate pattern of apple blossoms.

The scenic patterns or American toiles are a grand solution to the draw curtains you may be needing for those large windows, come winter cold. The companion pieces, reveal the color scheme in a smaller pattern that is well adapted to slip covers and the like.

On Etiquette

By Roberts Lee

Q. What is the correct position for the butter knife on the bread-and-butter plate?

A: Place it at the top of the bread-and-butter plate, slightly above the center, and parallel with the edge of the table, with the handle at the right and the spreading edge of the knife towards the guest.

Q. Should a young married woman identify herself over the telephone to a social acquaintance by saying, "This is Ruth Martin," or "This is Mrs. David Martin"?

A. "This is Ruth Martin."

Q. Is it obligatory to acknowledge an invitation to a card party?

A. Certainly, and as soon as possible. Otherwise, the hostess is unable to know how many players will attend.

Jack Dalk, a sophomore at the University of Oregon, is spending the holiday and weekend in Salem with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalk.
