Cal Boasted Best Defense

Indian Attack Best; Troy Passing Power

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23—(Special)—According to figures released today by the PCC commissioner's office, one of the important reasons for California's second straight undefeated season is defense. The Rose Bowl Bears finished the year by leading the conference in total and rushing defense.

The Bears allowed an average of 245 yards a game from rushing and passing, and only 142.8 yards per contest from rushing.

The California team ran second to Stanford, however, in total offense. The Indians averaged 375.1 yards a game from rushing and passing to 370.8 for the Bears.

They were surprised by completing the season with the best rushing average. The Vandals' average of 255.3 yards a game on the ground was seven yards a contest better than Stanford.

With their final game of the season against Notre Dame yet to play, the Trojans of USC have the best passing record on the coast. In eight games the Trojans have accounted for 1434 yards from passing, which averages 179.3 yards per game.

Montana finished her season as the leader in pass defense. The Montana opponents averaged only $5.6 yards a game through the air.

Anterless Deer Season Fixed

PORTLAND, Nov. 23—(AP)—The state game commission today announced a special anterless deer hunting season for Dec. 15-18 in the John Day area.

A drawing for the 1,000 tags to be issued to Oregon residents only will be Dec. 2. Deadline for applications plus the $5 special fee in Nov. 30. The tags will be mailed, as in previous special seasons.

The commission said the area is about 60 miles long and seven to eight miles wide along the John Day river. Scarcity of winter feed for a heavy deer population in the area prompted the season.

Tradition Spurs Broncos

SANTA CLARA, Calif., Nov. 23—(AP)—A big, colorful and experienced gang of footballers—with a tradition to uphold—will represent Santa Clara in the Orange Bowl classic in Miami January 2.

The tradition? The Broncos are undefeated in bowl competition. They've played twice in the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans—on Jan. 1, 1937 and '38. Each time, they defeated Louisiana State.

Make no mistake, this Santa Clara club is not a wonder team. It's been tied once—by Stanford—and has two losses this season. But it's a good, solid club.

The losses were to California and Oklahoma, second and third ranking teams in the nation, respectively, in the last Associated Press poll.

This Santa Clara squad is gridwise. Eighteen of the first 22 men are seniors—nine of 'em on the first team. All 18 started four years ago with Coach Len Casanova when he took over the coaching reins at the Jesuit school.

The Broncos are also a throwback to the pre-two platoon days. They field 11 football players, who play both offense and defense. Substitutions are used fairly sparingly. No complete teams romp on and off the field periodically.

Orange Gridders Look Back on Best Season Since 1946

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 23—(Special)—Oregon State's football team, which climaxed a sensational stretch drive with a decisive 20-10 victory over Oregon at Eugene last Saturday, wound up the season with the best record by an Orange club since 1946.

The Beavers, under their new coach, dynamic Kip Taylor, defeated all five northern members of the conference to claim the mythical Northern Division championship and also posted impressive victories over two inter-sectional rivals, Utah and Michigan State. All three losses were to the California powerhouse—UCLA, California and Stanford.

Oregon State's showing is all the more amazing when it is recalled that the club, still in the throes of learning the intricate Michigan version of the single wing, dropped two of its first three starts and then won six of the next seven to wind up with seven victories against the trio of defeats.

The highlight of the campaign probably was the stunning 25-20 upset triumph over eighth-ranked Michigan State, the school from which Taylor came to take over the coaching reins at Oregon State.

Taylor's colorful system gave Oregon State its highest scoring offense in the school's history. The Beavers racked up 232 points in 10 games for a neat 23.2 average.

Ken Carpenter, brilliant left halfback who spearheaded the Beavers' attack all season, became the first Beaver back in history to make more than 1,000 yards in total offense for one season. By collecting 78 against Oregon he brought his total to 1,003. He will go down in the books as one of OSC's all-time great backs.

Sharing the spotlight with Carpenter all season has been Stan McGuire, who, as a junior, is well on his way to becoming one of the Beavers' all-time great ends. He became the first Orange lineman in history to be named "Linedman of the Week" by the Associated Press for his spectacular exhibition against Michigan State. He was successful on 29 out of 33 conversion attempts this fall and booted a 32-yard field goal.

One of the most pleasing aspects of the season was the rapid improvement and all-around good play of one of the best crops of sophomores in the conference. Gene Morrow, the sophomore with the slingshot arm from The Dalles, was one of the best players in the conference and an amazingly cool field general. Bill Sheffield, speedy right half from Bend, looms as one of the best defensive backs ever to perform for the Orange. He intercepted nine passes during the season to rank near the top in the nation.

However, there will be some big gaps left by the graduation of 15 seniors. Included in this group are Andy Ruppel, Bud Gibbs, and Craig McMicken, ends; Jay Simon and Jim Inglesby, tackles; Capt. Tom DeSylvia and Ed Carmichael, guards; Jim Clement, center; and Carpenter, Dick Gray, Dick Twenge, Don Mast, Andy Knudsen, Dick Vallancourt, and Duane Moore, backs.

Huntsmen Nail Elk—But Also Loaded Down with Good Yarns

By Jean Roberts
MEHAMA—(Special)—More elk hunters are back laden down in some cases with more stories than elk. Hunting it seems has a strange fascination for most of the male population of Mehama, dragging them from a warm fire, a soft bed, and three meals to hunch over a smoking campfire, sleep on the hard sand, and eat a nameless stew one of the party has concocted.

The daily shave is discarded when elk fever is in the air. Any red blooded hunter scoffs at the comforts of home when he's camping for there's nothing more bracing than to rake off a 2 weeks beard with Eastern Oregon's notoriously hard water, while your teeth are chattering with cold. As always in any camping spot where he received his master's degree in christian education last year.

"The letter, written in long hand, said: "From the far east I send you one single thought, one sole idea—written in red on every beachhead from Australia to Tokyo—there is no substitute for victory."

Case of Riotous Students Closed

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23—(AP)—The Philadelphia Hotel association and the University of Virginia have described as "closed" claims of damages Philadelphia hotel owners reported after the Virginia-Pennsylvania football game three weeks ago.

Student council representatives promised "full and thoroughly investigation of these claims" and assured the hotel men that "punishment would be meted out to the guilty students." Also, the Virginia representatives said "every effort would be made by the student council to see that the hotels would be reimbursed for damages caused by such students."

There's the happy little man who brings his wife along to keep him sober, then manages to hide his liquor under a log—not too far away—to keep his spirits up.

There's nothing like it, they all agree, even to the stories that go round the fire at night when an adjoining hunting party, which needs no introduction, comes over for an evening's chat.

"I only carry one shell in my gun," boasted an old timer. "Last year a bull elk ran behind a big tree, nothing showing but his hind quarters—but I got him with one shot—right through his heart."

Still another chimes in to boast of his gun which practically aims itself, and to discount another rifle because "its bullets were so slow to stop an elk."

Hope Holds 'Rooting Interest' in Indians

CLEVELAND, Nov. 23—(AP)—Comedian Bob Hope has a "rooting interest" as one of the owners of the Cleveland Indians.

The baseball team's new president, Ellis W. Ryan, has announced that Hope has an interest in the new corporation, the Cleveland Baseball company.

Hope, who was raised on Cleveland's east side, held a small amount of stock under the Bill Veck regime.

KRAMER WINS AGAIN

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Nov. 23—(AP)—Professional champion Jack Kramer gained his 17th win in 20 exhibition starts against Dick (Pancho) Gonzales, the 1949 amateur titlist, 6-4, 6-4, Tuesday night.

Frankie Parker, who turned professional with Gonzales recently, managed to defeat Pancho Segura, 7-5, 6-1.
