

Miss Alice Perrine Is Married

The First Baptist church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Alice Helen Perrine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil M. Perrine, and Roy Lee West on Sunday afternoon, November 20. The Rev. Lloyd Anderson officiated at the ceremony before a background of pink and white chrysanthemums flanked with greens and lighted tapers.

Mrs. John Schmidt, jr. was the organist and Wesley Bollinger sang. Lighting the tapers were the Misses Jeanne and Carol Walker, of Portland, cousins of the bride, who wore blue taffeta gowns and white carnations in their hair.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin dress fashioned with a lace yoke and the full skirt, which terminated in a train, was enhanced with lace insets. Her lace edged veil was fingertip length and was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Miss Dolly Davidson was the honor maid and wore a full skirted bustle dress of blue taffeta and carried a puff of rose carnations and rose net. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Virgil Cook and Miss Billie Pierce, whose dresses were of rose taffeta and they carried bouquets of rose carnations with blue net and ribbon. Sharon Rawlings was flower girl for her cousin and wore a floor length blue dress.

Attend the Groom
Roy Pearsall served as best man and ushers were Virgil Cook, Walter Westling, Glen Jones and Bert Eshleman.

Mrs. Perrine chose a teal blue dress with winter pink accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. West was gowned in a navy blue dress with pink accessories. Their corsages were of pink rosebuds and feathered carnations.

A reception was held in the church parlors. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. D. S. R. Walker, and Mrs. Alvin Van Cleave cut the cake. Pouring were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Herman Wachen and Mrs. Arthur Plant. Assisting were Miss Patricia Zahara, Miss Jean Rickli, Mrs. Charles Andersen, Mrs. Louis Appling and Miss Caroline Hines.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride donned a brown suit with gold accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. They will make their home in Salem. Both are graduates of Salem schools.

A visitor in the capital is Mrs. Frank Jordan of Seattle, who is a guest at the home of Mrs. Reuben P. Boise.

Time for the Time

Last Minute Turkey Cooking Instructions Are Given

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Last minute news of Thanksgiving dinners usually consists of time for cooking the turkey.

Many housewives of this community put their turkey into a very slow oven last night and are now finding time to do the remaining preparations for the meal.

Those women who are to cook their turkey at 325 or 300 degrees, the regular method, may find this chart of aid in planning the time to bake the fowl:

Pounds	Oven Temp.	Cooking time min. per lb.	Cooking time hrs. per bird
8 to 10	325	20 to 25	3 to 3 1/2
10 to 14	325	18 to 20	3 1/2 to 4
14 to 18	300	15 to 18	4 to 4 1/2
18 to 20	300	13 to 15	4 1/2 to 5
20 and up	300	13 to 15	5 to 6

A half turkey is baked for approximately 25 to 30 minutes per pound. Stuffing is placed on a rack under the cut side of the turkey and baked as usual.

Ducks are to be roasted breast side up on a rack in an open pan. Add hot water, but set the pan in a 325 degree oven. A duck weighing 3 1/2 to 4 pounds drawn weight, will cook in about 2 1/2 hours.

A regular sage stuffing is good in duck, but many prefer a fruity stuffing. Use diced cooked, dried prunes or apricots, apple sauce or even cranberries. The regular dressing recipe may be used, the fruit merely added.

A reader of these pages called in the other day to suggest that sweet potatoes pre-cooked, then stuffed into orange shells and browned, make a fine dish to serve with turkey.

Hostesses Fete Mrs. Landforce

Mrs. Andy Landforce of Enterprise, formerly Evelyn Romig of Bethel, was honored at a shower when Mrs. Jane Domes, Mrs. Arthur Leppin and Mrs. Clifford Damewood entertained at the former's home in Bethel on Tuesday. Thirty-five were present for the affair and refreshments were served late in the afternoon with Miss Imogene Rempel assisting the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Landforce have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Romig, but have returned to Enterprise, where he is assistant county agent.

Home from Maryhurst college for the Thanksgiving holidays is Miss Mary Kay Toohy who has as her guests two sophomore classmates, Miss Colleen Carter of Twin Falls, Idaho, and Miss Patricia Morrier of Yakima. The three girls will go to Medford to attend the wedding on November 26 of a former classmate, Miss Marilyn Chapman, to Herbert Dungey of Oregon City.

Mrs. J. Lee Stewart was a hostess Tuesday night at her Market street home in compliment to members of her club. Additional guests were Mrs. Clay Eggleston and Mrs. Kenneth Manning.

Families Will Be Away for The Holiday

Many Salem families will spend the Thanksgiving holiday and weekend out-of-town to be with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Steinke and children, Clayton, Susan, David and John, will go to Forest Grove today to attend a gathering of the Morehouse family at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Kaufman. All the Morehouse children formerly lived in Salem. In the group besides the Steinkes will be the Kaufmans and their children, Margaret Ann, a student now at Willamette university, Robert, Richard, Carolyn and Karen, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Lemmon, Michael, Rosemary, Jon Dennis and Bryan Patrick of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gebbert, Carol, Marybeth, Barbara and Robert of Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Benson and sons, Steven and Whitney will be in Kelso, Wash., for Thanksgiving to be guests of Mr. Benson's brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. Paige Benson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Healy, daughter, Patricia and Carol Fisher, are in Ashland today to attend the Pearl Bowl game and later will be entertained at dinner at the Medford home of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Weller.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, jr. and Milton L. Meyers will be in Portland today for a family dinner at the home of Mrs. Fry's brother-in-law and sister, Col. and Mrs. Earl Flegel.

To Be in Lebanon
Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Fisher and daughter, Susan, and his mother, Mrs. Alice Fisher of Corvallis, who is visiting in Salem at the Fisher home for the remainder of the week, will be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Reeves at their home in Lebanon today.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague will be guests of his niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Logan, at their Portland home today.

Dr. and Mrs. Chester A. Downs and her daughters, Suzanne, a student at Oregon State college, and Joan, who is attending Lewis and Clark, will be the holiday guests of Mrs. Downs' mother, Mrs. M. B. Paroungian, in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kugel are spending the Thanksgiving holiday in Portland with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Wilkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hadley and children, Elton and Allan, are in Longview for the holiday and weekend to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hadley.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Brady, Miss Carolyn Brady and Mr. and

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Harpst and berg, all of Coos Bay, were weekend visitors at the home of Mrs. Savage and Miss Lucille Rosen- W. H. Harpst on Dierks Road.

"We are careless of our pioneer heritage, taking it as a matter of course; we must not take it for granted or it will be taken from us," warned Walter Meacham, executive secretary of the Old Oregon Trail, Inc., in an address before the Salem Business and Professional Women's club, Tuesday night, at its dinner meeting at the Senator hotel. Mr. Meacham stressed the wealth of our historical environment in Oregon and credited the men and women who blazed early trails westward with making the United States into a two-ocean nation. He also explained that it is from the study of courage of the past that strength is gathered to meet the future.

Mr. Meacham's address was highlighted by colorful anecdotes of individuals whose suffering and sacrifices in enduring the hardships of the westward march carved our Western empire. Women's role was illustrated by stories of Madame Dorion, personifying human courage and mother love in the face of almost insurmountable hardships, and Tabitha Brown, whose early school for orphans eventually evolved into Pacific university. The Great Migration of 1843, the Applegate Trail and the Barlow Trail also were sources of interesting and informative stories.

Mr. Meacham then explained the role of the Oregon Trail association in keeping alive our knowledge and interest of Oregon's history by marking historic trails and erecting monuments at "story spots."

Miss Alberta Shoemaker introduced the speaker of the evening. A trio consisting of Mrs. C. W. Jorgensen, Mrs. Louis Neuman and Miss Eleanor Roberts, accompanied by Mrs. Mae DuVal, sang "Oregon," the words of which were composed by Mr. Meacham.

Guests of the club included Mrs. Regina L. Ewalt, Mrs. Dorothy Woodring, Mrs. Lyndell Birkbeck, Miss L. Frances Dix and Mrs. Bessie M. Spellcke. Mrs. Ewalt and Miss Dix as well as Mrs. J. C. Herron were welcomed as new members of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Arneson are spending the holiday and weekend in Tacoma as guests of Gen. and Mrs. H. C. Mandell at their home at Gravelly lake. The Mandells formerly lived here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck have gone to McKenzie bridge for the holiday to visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Crum. They will remain until Sunday.

Mrs. David Wright is in Portland for the holiday and the remainder of the week to be with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pierson.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chambers and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Rogers are also in Portland for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, jr. and children, Jean and Nancy, joined members of her family in Astoria for the holiday to be with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Thomson.
