Homes and their decorative themes are to be those of Mrs. A. C. Archer, 3323 N. E. 32nd avenue, "White Christmas," and Mrs. C. W. Wentworth, 3020 N. E. Thompson, "Sugar Plum Fairies." The bazaar and tea will be held at the Irvington club, 2131 N. E. Thompson with "Winter Wonderland" as the motif. Articles will be on sale at the bazaar from 2 to 5 p. m., tea to be served and the homes open to the public from 2 to 10 p. m.

Members of the Salem Chi Omega group are contributing articles for the bazaar. Anyone interested may obtain tickets at any of the three Portland locations, or here in Salem by contacting Mrs. Francis Wade, or Mrs. W. C. Dyer at the Willamette Phi Delta Theta house.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. Is it proper to attend a masquerade dance, to which one has been invited, in ordinary dress?

A. No, this is discourteous. All guests should be suitably attired, and only if special permission has been secured from the host or hostess may one attend in ordinary dress.

Q. Is it permissible to ask the porter on a train to call one at a certain hour in the morning?

A. Yes; this is the correct and customary thing to do.

Q. When the guest-of-honor is a man, where should he be seated at the dinner table?

A. At the right of the hostess.

Onions stuffed with sausage and topped with cracker crumbs are sure to ring the bell. In this case the cook uses a food mill to crush the crackers and a chopper to chop the onion centers and celery, the dish is practically made with the twist of a handle and the up and down of a triple-bladed, spring-action chopper.

Making Something of It

More Time to Cook in Winter; More Appetite to Enjoy

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Cooking and eating in winter is really a lot more fun than in summertime. There's more time spent in the house when cooking can be done, and more appetite to eat it.

Let's look at a miscellaneous collection of winter food ideas.

FRESH PEAR, CELERY, NUT SALAD
Few grains of salt
1/2 cup cream, whipped
2 cups diced celery
1/2 cup chopped nuts
Lettuce

Peel, halve and core pears. Sprinkle with lemon juice to prevent darkening. Blend just enough mayonnaise into cheese to make it smooth and fluffy. Add salt to taste. Fold into whipped cream. Add celery. Arrange pears on Iceberg lettuce cups. Top with cheese mixture and garnish with nuts. Serves 6.

When it's creamed-tuna-on-toast tonight, make it seem special with toast cups in place of plain toast. Trim crusts from fresh bread, press into muffin tins or custard cups and bake till brown in moderate oven.

When it's mushroom soup is even better with ripe olives added. Place layers of crushed potato chips, flaked tuna, ripe olive chunks and diluted soup in baking dish with chips on top. Bake about 30 minutes.

HOT SPICED CIDER
1 (2-inch) stick cinnamon
6 whole cloves
1/2 cup corn syrup
1 quart cider
1 teaspoon whole allspice

Heat corn syrup, cider and spice (tied loosely in a cheesecloth bag) to boiling and then simmer over low heat 10 minutes. Remove spice bag. Serve piping hot with a dash of nutmeg and a slice of lemon studded with whole cloves on top. Makes 1 quart.

To prepare onions for stuffing, select large ones and peel them. Then parboil in salted water for 15 minutes. Cut slices off for tops and remove the centers, leaving 1/4 inch shells. And here are the stuffings:

SAUSAGE STUFFING FOR ONIONS
1/4 cup chopped celery
1/4 teaspoon salt
5 soda crackers
4 large onions
1/4 cup sausage meat

Crush crackers to make 1/4 cup crumbs. Peel onions, parboil in salted water for 15 minutes. Cut slices off for tops and remove centers of onions, leaving 1/4 inch shells. Cook sausage meat 5 minutes in frying pan, mix with chopped onion centers, celery and salt. Stuff onions, cover with tops, sprinkle with crumbs and bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 30 minutes. Serves 4.

Lecture to Be Given on Prints

A lecture on the timely subject of prints and print-making will be given at the Portland Art Museum at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday, November 30. The speaker will be Charles Heaney, Portland painter and etcher, whose works have won a national reputation. Mr. Heaney is one of the members of the committee of selection which chose prints to be exhibited from the entries in the Museum's First Open Print annual which opens December first. As usual, the lecture will be held in the Museum auditorium and is open to the public.

The Museum galleries are open until 10 p.m. every Wednesday. On view at the time of the lecture will be: A Portland art collection, toys of good design, oriental arts, paintings by Yeffe Kimball, northwest coast Indian arts and classical arts.

Mrs. James P. Smart will preside at a bridge luncheon this afternoon at her country place, "Maple Mound Farm," in compliment to members of her bridge club.

MONMOUTH — Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Craven spent Thanksgiving day in Eugene with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beach.
