YM-YW to Give Annual Dinner

One of the highlights of the coming week will be the colorful smorgasbord dinner and program to be presented at the YMCA Thursday night. The affair is sponsored jointly by the YMCA and the YWCA and its theme is world fellowship. The costumes of other lands to be worn by the singers and dancers will help to create the illusion that the guests are dining in a foreign country.

The smorgasbord will be served from 5:30 to 8 o'clock and the committee is planning for four hundred. To be sure of reservations those planning to attend are asked to call either the YM or YW. As long as tickets last they will be sold at the door-

The program of entertainment has been arranged by Mrs. Bruce Spaulding and Ronald Hudkins featuring a festival of nations. Booths will display articles of various foreign countries with Mrs. Chester Cox and Charles Chittock in charge. Booths will be sponsored by the Tri-Y, Salore, Y-Teens and YMCA.

The general chairmen, Mrs. John R. Caughell and Norman Winslow, have asked a large committee to assist them in arrangements for the affair. Mrs. Oscar Liudahl is in direct charge of the smorgas-

Heads New Organization . . . Club Dances On Weekend

Mrs. George Spaur, who is heading the Salem Wom-en's Army-Navy league this year. The group is a new organization, formed just a year and a half ago. The membership numbers nearly a hundred women, who meet monthly for luncheons. A tea and two dances are also on the year's agenda. The purpose of the league is to unite service women of the vicinity for social, benevolent and educational activities. Women whose husbands were or are officers in the army, navy, coast guard, marines or air force are eligible for membership. (Kennell-Ellis).
