Wedding bells will ring in the spring for Miss Ruth McCall and William H. Johnston. The couple's engagement was revealed at a holiday tea on Saturday afternoon when Miss McCall and her sister, Miss Dorothy McCall, who is home from Oregon State college for the holidays, entertained at the home of the groom-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Johnston on Jerris avenue.

Seventy-five of the college set called between 3 and 5 o'clock. Receiving with the hostesses were their mother and Mrs. Johnston. Marcia Jane King, daughter of the Robert Kings and a cousin of the benedict-to-be, greeted guests at the door.

On the coffee table was a floral arrangement of red carnations with the names of the engaged duo and the wedding date April 23. The holiday motif was carried out in the appointments about the rooms and on the tea table. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Crystal Huntington, Miss Patricia Buzzell, Miss Nancy Snyder and Miss Jean Pickens.

Miss McCall is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. McCall. She is a graduate of Salem schools and is now in the business office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. Her fiancé has been attending Willamette university since his graduation from Salem high school. In the fall he plans to continue his studies at Oregon State college.
