Tourists Flock to Site of Old Tomb

MEXICO CITY-(INS)-Ixcateopan, where archaeologists have just discovered the tomb of the last Aztec emperor, Cuauhtemoc, has become the new tourist attraction of Mexico.

Although there are no hotels, (Wholesale price ranges cents over buying price.) restaurants or other facilities for the tourist, hundreds of Americans Large A Medium Medium Pullets and other visitors are already swarming through the tiny Indian

Members of the expedition who discovered the tomb under the main altar of the parish church have confirmed the discovery as unquestionably the tomb of Cuau-

Mexico City newspapers are filled with news of the find and Ixcateopan is filled with reporters who watch each move the expedi-
