Travelers, Visitors Of Note

By Jerome English
Statesman Society Editor

Visitors and travelers, who were in the capital or away during the holidays, have been leaving and returning to their homes during the past week.

Return Home
Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard and his sister, Miss Helen Shepard of Minot, South Dakota, who has been visiting in the capital during the past fortnight, left Friday for Tacoma. After a visit there a few days, Miss Shepard will entrain for her home. The Shepards will return to Salem this weekend.

Visitors in Salem during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gilmore (Chloe Anderson) of Oakland, Calif., formerly of Salem. While here they made their headquarters at the George Gutekunst home.

Mrs. Ella Mason left for her home in San Francisco on Friday following a holiday visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Parents.

Miss Rolene Rickard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rickard of Brooks, whose engagement to Dean Van Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garrit Van Hess, has been revealed. No wedding date has been set. (Jesten-Miller).

Betrothals Revealed By Two

Two more brides-elect have revealed their engagements and are now wearing rings on their left hands.

Miss Werner Engaged
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Werner of Silverton are announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Maxine Werner, to James Woodford Carson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Carson of Salem. No wedding date has been set.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Silverton schools and is now employed at the state forestry department. Her fiance, who is known as "Woody" to his friends, is a graduate of Salem schools and the University of Oregon, where he was a member of Alpha Delta Sigma, advertising fraternity. He is now in the advertising business in Yakima.

Troth Told by College Duo
Also revealed during the holidays was the engagement of Miss Ellen Riney, daughter of Mrs. Inez Riney of Longview, Wash., to Norman Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Stone of Salem. The news was first told at a party at the Riney home in Longview during the holidays. No date has been set for the wedding.

The blonde, bride-elect is a sophomore at Willamette university and her fiance is a senior. His fraternity is Sigma Chi.

New Committees Are Appointed

BUENA VISTA — Mrs. Earl Bailey, who was Jean Jordan before her marriage on December 18, was presented with a shower of gifts when the Buena Vista Woman's club met at the Community hall Wednesday. Mrs. Gilbert Loy and Mrs. Orville Wells had charge of the gifts, and Mrs. Harold Busby, Mrs. Leo Prather acted as entertainment committee.

New committees for 1950 were announced as follows: Program, Mrs. Harold Busby, Mrs. Gilbert Loy, Mrs. Orville Wells and Mrs. Leland Prather; social, Mrs. Leland Prather, Mrs. Eliza Long, Mrs. Clyde Wallis and Mrs. Leo Prather; flower, Mrs. John Drazdoff and Mrs. Victor Bride; membership, Mrs. Milo Graber and Mrs. Luther Osborn; health, Mrs. Fred Detering and Mrs. Howard Powers; cemetery, Mrs. Cecil Hultman and Mrs. Perry Wells.

Plans were made to serve a lunch at the machinery sale to be held at Golden Gate Hop ranch February 1.

Papers Read at Hubbard Club

HUBBARD — Two interesting papers were given on the program of the Hubbard Woman's club when 20 members met at the home of Mrs. A. L. Murphy on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Edward Schor presented a review of "Oregon: Timber Wealth" and Mrs. A. Fobert gave a presentation of "Oregon's Animal Industry." Mrs. A. J. Smith presided at the business meeting. An announcement of a clinic at the school this month was announced by the welfare committee.

Plans for the next meeting, January 19, for all day at the Hubbard grade school were made. Arrangements for the Children's Farm Home tea to be held February 15 were discussed. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Fred Schneider and Mrs. Earl Grim.

Q. Is it all right to use ruled paper for social correspondence?
A. No; if there were to be in writing a straight line, buy the black-ruled paper which fits under the notepaper and envelopes. These are called guides and can be purchased in any stationery store.

Q. When should the guests arrive at the church for a wedding ceremony?
A. From a half-hour to not later than five minutes before the ceremony. The guests should be seated before the parents of the bride and bridegroom arrive.

Q. When applause is served with pork, should it be eaten with a spoon or fork?
A. It is better to use the fork.

The Designing Woman

CAN YOU SEE THE ROOM AS IT REALLY IS?

One of the big reasons some of us haven't the successfully decorated homes we'd like to have is because we get too used to things. We dust the same old furniture, the same old bric-a-brac day after day without seeing it anymore. Things that don't belong in the room at all creep in unnoticed.

Never stop seeing a room as it really is. Not as it was, but as it is now today.

Other people come into your home with a fresh eye and catch the off key details. The antimacassars on the chairs may not seem right to them for you, the gal who wears some of the smartest hats at the club meetings. Is it a compliment—or isn't it—if they think the drab wallpaper doesn't become you?

Things that don't look right now—once you cast a really sharp eye on them—probably never were good decoration. Only good design can weather the years. It weathers them a long time. We still like and use furniture made exactly as it was designed two hundred and more years ago. But what was faddy in the first place goes out in a few years. And some ways of doing things go out of style because we now know ways of doing them better.

To help sharpen your critical eye, ask yourself these questions about rooms that can be improved:

1. Do you really have a color scheme? Is it definite, or have off color woodwork or hodgepodge accessories spoiled it?
2. Are there too many small things in the room? There so often are. Organize little things into interesting groups on shelves, in cabinets, on the wall so they decorate instead of clutter. Get rid of false notes. Change some small things for large ones.
3. Are there things in the room which are out of fashion? Of course old and new are used together today. But check faddy bric-a-brac. Is the coffee table fussy and small? Trade dinky tables for bigger ones. Are you still hanging draperies in the same old way when you could be modernizing the room with new treatments that make the windows look big and important.
4. Has the room moved along with changing needs? Do you need furniture with put-away space instead of thin-legged tables? Have you enough seating room or must chairs be dragged in for guests? Does the room need a new deal in lighting? Could you save yourself hours a week by trading old things for new things that are much easier to care for?

Learn how to reclaim and restyle old furniture with beautiful finishes—and what to do about furniture finish repair. Send today for Elizabeth Bily's booklet FURNITURE REFINISHING HOW TO DO IT YOURSELF. Address Miss Bily at this newspaper and enclose 15c in coin, please, with a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Miss Klein, Mr. Folz Married

Miss Dorothy Klein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Klein, and George Folz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Folz, exchanged their marriage vows at a morning ceremony on December 31 at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic church. Father George O'Keefe officiated at the 9:30 o'clock mass.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white satin gown designed with sweetheart neckline edged in lace, long sleeves, buttons down the back and a full lace edged train. Her fingertip veil cascaded from a net coronet and she carried a white lily topped with a lavender orchid and pink carnations.

Mrs. Catherine Hanthorn, the matron of honor, wore a blue net gown over taffeta and Miss Betty Folz, the bridesmaid, was gowned in yellow net over taffeta. They wore matching headbands of net and carried pastel nosegays. Ruth Ann Krzmarzick in pink was the flower girl and Dean Wing was the ring bearer.

William Moore stood with the groom as best man and groomsmen were William Lebold, Clarence Sabrowski and Robert Folz were the ushers.

A wedding breakfast followed at the home of the groom's parents and in the afternoon a reception was held at the Klein home on Park avenue. Mrs. Florence Lindblom cut the cake and Mrs. Catherine Hanthorn presided at the coffee urn. Assisting was Miss Pauline Larsen.

After a wedding trip the newlyweds are now at home in Salem on Hyde street.

City Council Opens Year At Mt. Angel

By Loretta Dehler
Statesman News Service

MT. ANGEL — City officials were sworn in and committees appointed in the first 1950 meeting of the Mt. Angel city council.

Taking their oaths from City Attorney W. D. Harris were Mayor Jacob Beechold, Recorder Edward Schaefer, Treasurer Alois Keber and Councilmen L. A. LaDoux, Andrew Schmidt and Joseph Wagner. All but Wagner were re-elected.

The council's first act was to re-elect Joe Beechold as fire chief. The councilman also voted to continue its pay of $3 each for each meeting and approved a $125 an hour scale for common labor on city work until June 30, 1950.

The council appointed the following committees for 1950-51 fiscal year:

Street, Carl Mucken, chairman, Andrew Schmidt and A. A. Ebner; fire, water and park, A. G. Traeger, chairman, Joseph Wagner and A. A. Ebner; finance, Andrew Schmidt, chairman, L. A. LaDoux and Joseph Wagner; judiciary, A. A. Ebner, chairman, Carl Mucken and L. A. LaDoux; public safety, Andrew Schmidt; city attorney, W. D. Harris; health officer, Dr. Frank Weitzel; police chief, Ed Kurie; water commission, Joseph Haasler.

In winding up the old year the council voted to contribute $100 to the Mt. Angel band and expressed its appreciation to the organization.

Mayor Beechold congratulated the council and extended special thanks to Joseph L. Wachter, retiring councilman who served 16 years.

Friendly Garden Club Honored

Friendly Neighbors Garden club met at the home of Mrs. Opal Gardner Thursday night. Mrs. W. H. Patterson was a guest. Mrs. A. A. Larsen gave a report on the box of food, toys and clothing given a needy family at Christmas. The annual Christmas party for the husbands was held before Christmas at the home of Mrs. Matilda Gray, but the secret pal gift exchange took place at Thursday night's meeting.

At the next regular meeting on January 19 at the home of Mrs. A. A. Larsen the club will entertain members of the Little Garden club of Salem Heights with Mrs. C. A. Ratcliff the speaker.

Fourth Son Born

To Mr. and Mrs. William H. Trindle, jr. go felicitations on the birth of their fourth son, Thomas Memorial hospital. The little boy weighed six pounds, nine ounces and his brothers are William, Michael and Edmond. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William H. Trindle and Mrs. Mabelle Vinegar of Portland.

Favorite Flavor

Recently in a conversation with friends about personal preferences, we heard one woman say, "If it's blue, or has chocolate sauce poured over it, my husband will approve."

Our favorite color is most assuredly not blue, but our favorite flavor is definitely chocolate.

We even like chocolate on canned pears or bananas, so you see what odd taste we have.

We can't have blue food for our friend's husband, because somehow the use of blue never seems to go with eating, but we certainly can do something about his chocolate diet.

For instance, here is a fluffy chocolate pudding made with sweetened condensed milk, and therefore, one of the quickies:

FLUFFY CHOCOLATE PUDDING

2 squares unsweetened chocolate 1 1/2 cup (one can) condensed milk
1/2 cup water 2 egg whites
Melt chocolate in top of double boiler, add milk and stir over boiling water for 5 minutes until mixture thickens. Remove from fire and add water. Let cool 5 minutes. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pile in sherbet glasses, chill. Serves 6.

Here's a beverage the chocolate enthusiast might try:

CHOCOLATE MINT FLIP

1/2 cup cocoa malt 1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup hot milk 1/4 teaspoon peppermint extract
1 cup cold milk 1 cup vanilla ice cream
1/2 teaspoon salt
Combine cocoa malt and hot milk; stir until dissolved. Add cold milk, salt, and extracts. Chill. Just before serving pour into shaker, add ice cream, shake until smooth. Serves 6.

Then there's a 100 per cent chocolate concoction that should thrill the heart of any chocolate lover:

FUDGE SQUARES

1/2 cup shortening 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1 cup sugar 1/2 teaspoon salt
3 eggs 1 teaspoon vanilla
2 squares bitter chocolate 1 cup broken nutmeats
3/4 cup sifted flour
Blend shortening, sugar and eggs. Melt chocolate over hot water and add to first mixture. Add flour and other dry ingredients, then nuts and vanilla. Put in 7 x 9 x 2 inch pan that has been greased. Bake in moderate oven, (375) for 25 minutes. Cover with fudge icing while still warm.

FUDGE ICING

2 tablespoons shortening 1 cup sifted confectioner's sugar
2 squares bitter chocolate 1 tablespoon milk
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Melt chocolate over hot water, pour over shortening and mix thoroughly. Gradually add sugar and other ingredients, stirring until smooth. Cover squares while hot.

AUMSVILLE — Health examinations for first graders and children screened previously will be conducted Monday, January 9, at Aumsville grade school from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 2:30 p.m.

The tests will include students from Aumsville grade school, Shaw grade school and St. Marys parochial school in Shaw. The examinations will be conducted by the Marion county health department. Parents are requested to accompany their children.

Woodburn — Leonard Hewett, local banker, is manager for the 1950 March of Dimes campaign in the Woodburn area, it was announced this week.

Hewett is assistant manager of the Woodburn branch of the First National Bank of Portland. Principal source of funds for the infantile paralysis campaign, opening January 10, will be from special containers shaped like iron lungs which will be placed in local business houses.

The higher up a mountain one goes the lower the temperature of water will be when it starts to boil.
