Girod Paces Torrid Tilt

Javvees Win Prelim To Remain Unbeaten By Al Lightner

an Sports Editor A weaving, dashing Salem high Viking basketball band last night checked in their most impressive victory of the season at the villa, a 53-49 conquest of the defending state champion Roosevelt Rough Riders of Portland. The win, mighty sweet to Coach Harold Hauk's lads in that it was Rollie Pourke's club that knocked the Salems from the state tournament last March, was the eighth of the campaign for the Viks. They've lost but once. A jam-packedcrowd watched and roared at last Captain Daryl Girod was mos vengeful of all in the home guard as it was he who not only guided the sizzling Salem attack but pumped in 15 of the Salem points as well. The 15 topped all scoring for the game individually.

A wild see-saw scramble all the way and easily the most thrilling rassle the Villa has housed this season, the game wasn't actually bagged until the last minute. Hauk afterward pegged the Teddies as the toughest team he's faced this semester, and they played just like it right down to the bell.

stops, but not by more than a breath or two. It was 18-16 at the first stop after a torrid eight minutes of action. Then at halftime it was 33-31 after Girod had meshed the basket that put the Salems away from the tie. The count was 43-39 at the end of the third frame.

The entire first half was loaded with swift action as both outfits, using fast breaks, raced up and down the floor. Defenses were bolstered considerably in the third stanza to cut the barrage of scor-ing that had dominated the first half.

Lawrence Alley and Pat Miklia have already wrapped up the crown in the Three I loop. Lead-

Hauk had his charges come out for the last half with a new offersive pattern, a fast-moving weave aimed at folding the Roosevelt defense toward its own basket. The weave, operated by Girod, Red-headed Larry Chamberlain and Dick Norton, the last-ter sporting a large black eye he had picked up earlier in the week, worked to perfection enough to allow five counting Vik baskets in the third and fourth frames. The hall-handling trio would weave swiftly back and forth across the court, pulling the defenders out long enough to fire a fast pass to either Doug Rogers or Wayne Walling underneath the bucket. They had only to pop in the points.

This maneuver was the difference between a win and a loss for the Salems, as the Teddies otherwise matched the Viking play throughout despite being a much smaller club all around.

But Bases and Chamberlain

Both Rogers and Chamberlain had 10 markers for the Viks and Ron Phillips hit 11 for Roosevelt. Loren Mort's Jayvees kept on the unbeaten trail in the prelim, but had to hustle for it over the Roosevelt Jayvees. The count was 36-30, with John Conder's 11 points leading the way.

Old Blue Grad Has New Moan State Game Director Charles A Lockwood said many recommendations have already been sent to the commission. At Platoons

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 6-(A) An Old Blue came out today with an entirely different reason for eliminating the two platoon aystem from football. He's worried about his seat in the Yale bowl.

Dr. Samuel W. Lambert, jr., a New York City physician who was graduated from Yale in 1919, fears that the reckless substitution of players, if continued, may force him to sit on the Harvard side of the Yale bowl by 1959.

Writing in the Yale Alumni magazine, the doctor moans that the two platoon system at Yale means that the reads are the doctor moans that the two platoon system at Yale means that the two platoon system at Yale means that the reads are the doctor moans that the two platoon system at Yale means the two platoon system at Yale mean

"from now on each year, there will be twice as many Old Blues to be assigned four preferential seats." Under Yale's present system, former Yale football players are entitled to purchase four choice seats for all home games.

Laments Dr. Lambert: "I have been getting shoved farther and farther behind the goal posts." For last November's traditional Yale-

Harvard game, he found himself "plunk on the goal line."
"Luckily," weeps the doctor, "I have a pair of very fine binoculars, but what I saw filled me with dismay. Every time the ball changed hands, 22 men left the field and 22 new men came on. Of course only half of these were Yale players, but do you ordinary graduates of Yale realize what this means?

"From now on, each year there will be twice as many Old Blues to be assigned seats, and we alumni fund contributors will soon be sitting behind the goal posts.

"And in ten years we will end up on the Harvard side, if they allow such intrusion."

Wake Forest Loses Six Grid Stars

Cheating Charge Jolts Deacons

WAKE FOREST, N.C., Jan. 6 -(P)-Wake Forest college lest six football players today after the sextet had been accused of cheating on pre-Christmas tests.

Three were expelled and three were placed on probation, but mone will be eligible to play under the Gold and Black colors again, the Wake Forest student council announced.

Those expelled were AllSouthern Guard Ray Clein tackle

bill George and Reserve Tackle George Sniscak. Placed on probation were: All-Southern Halfback Bill

Wilhimy, sub halfback, and Dick Mediccot, sub guard.

The six boys could not be reached immediately for comment, but friends said they all stoutly denied they had cheated. These friends also said the boys planned to appeal the action of the student council to the facul-

Burnett figures he'll have to top Grimm's Cub salary to get him into Dallas. But the club owner says he's "ready and willing" to meet Grimm's demands. It was reported that Burnett offered Grimm a contract, during the winter baseball meetings in New York, calling for a flat sal-ary of $25,000 annually plus a percentage of the gate receipts. Dallas last season set a new Tex-as league attendance record of 404,000 and with Grimm as mnaager, Burnett figures it could be upped to 500,000 next season.

Grimm, at a press conference in the office of Owner Wrigley, readily admitted that his swivel chair job griped him. That was why he was ready, at 51, to return again to a minor league manager-ial post.
