

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

The four children of Mrs. Herbert Glaisyer, Jr. assist her in packing for their voyage to Tokyo, where they will join Major Glaisyer, who is stationed there with the Far Eastern Airforce headquarters. The children left to right are Jolene, Jimmy, John and year old Mary Beth. They leave Tuesday for Seattle, where they expect to sail the end of the week. Major Glaisyer has been in the orient a year. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Following the Sun . . .

A number of Salem folk will be following the sun in the next few weeks, headed for California and Arizona resorts.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Joseph are leaving by car on Wednesday for Monterey, Calif., to visit with Major and Mrs. Howard Adams, formerly of Salem. They will also attend the Bing Crosby tournament at Pebble Beach and Cypress Point. The Josephs plan to be away ten days and will visit other California resorts before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Stone left Saturday for a ten-day sojourn in San Francisco, where they will be joined by old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Duggan of Los Angeles. The Stones plan to visit in Reno enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Bright are also leaving the first of the week for a month's sojourn in the south. They will visit in California and Arizona and are traveling by car.

Nancy Cronemiller is pointing on the globe to Yakota, Japan, where she, her mother, Mrs. Lynn F. Cronemiller, Jr., and five months old sister, Jill, will soon be joining Lt. Cronemiller, who is stationed at Yakota with the Third Airforce. They will also leave Salem Tuesday for Seattle, from where they will sail for Tokyo. Lt. Cronemiller left the states in the spring. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Leaving the end of January for the Philippines will be Mrs. Ira Wintermute and children, Randy and Sherry, who will join Lieutenant Colonel Wintermute, who is stationed at Clark field with the 18th fighter group. The army officer left for Manila in the fall. The Wintermutes have been at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Monroe Hamilton, and Mrs. Hamilton will accompany her daughter and family to San Francisco, from where they will sail. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Soon to leave for their home in Irapuato, Mexico after an extended visit in Salem will be Mrs. Rafael Venegas and daughters, Ana Maria, who is three months old, Sarah Lucia and Marie Elena. They have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Morse, since June. Mrs. Venegas, the former Sarah Morse, will be accompanied as far as Los Angeles by her sister, Mrs. Paul Lippold. They leave here by train on January 19 and will visit in Los Angeles with another sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Rock, Jr. Mrs. Venegas and her daughters will then leave by plane on January 22 for Mexico City, where they will be met by Mr. Venegas. Mrs. Lippold plans to remain in the southern city several days before returning north. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

To Palm Springs . . .

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Headed south this coming week for Palm Springs will be Mrs. Charles Barclay and children, Gregory and Laurie, who will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Simmons, at their winter home at Palm Springs for the ensuing six weeks. Mr. Simmons, who came north this last week, accompanied by his brother, Forrest E. Simmons of Eugene, formerly of Salem, will go south with his daughter and grandchildren. Mr. Barclay plans to drive down in February to accompany his family home.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Simmons and daughter, Audrey, a freshman and Kappa Alpha Theta pledge at Oregon State college, spent Christmas in Palm Springs with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simmons and on New Year's attended the Rose Bowl game. Mrs. Forrest Simmons has remained in Palm Springs with her sister-in-law for a longer visit.

Portland is the new home of Mrs. Edwin L. Graham and son, Gary, who is eight. Mr. Graham, who has been at attorney with the public utilities commission, is now associated with the law firm, Koerner, Young, Swett and McCulloch, in Portland. The Grahams will soon be moving into a new home on Council Crest. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Au revoir are being said this month to Mrs. Norris D. Clement and daughter, Jean, who are moving to Astoria to make their home. Mr. Clement is already in Astoria, where he recently purchased the Hudson agency. They have bought a home in the coastal city and plan to leave in mid-January. (Kennell-Ellis photo).