Although snow and ice may again stymie some of the teams as has been the case for nearly a month, basketballers of the Willamette Valley, Marion-Polk and Marion County B circuits are booked solid for games Tuesday night.

In the WVL where just about every member has at least one game to make up already, the Tuesday schedule calls for Mt. Angel's Preps, in a tie for first place with both Estacada and Molalla, to play at Silverton, Sandy at Estacada, Dallas at Molalla and Canby at Woodburn.

Not a league game is scheduled in the Marion-Polk wheel, but all five members are slated to play non-league opponents. Salem Academy takes on Taft at West Salem, Concordia comes to Sacred Heart for a "March of Dimes" benefit game, Perrydale visits Monmouth, Independence goes to Dayton and Stacyton to Mill City. Both Sacred Heart and Stacyton, with 1-0 records, lead the M-P circuit. Salem Academy and Independence have won and lost in their two tilts to date.

Marion County B action in the Southern Division finds Aumsville at Sublimity and Gates at Turner. The Mill City-Detroit game will be played February 7 at Detroit. In the league's Northern Division tonight it's Jefferson at Chemawa, St. Paul at Oregon School for the Deaf and Gervais at Salem Sophomores. Although the Mill City team was nipped by Sublimity last week for the "Timberwolves" first loss, they continue to lead the Southern Division with a 4-1 record. Aumsville is next with 3-1. Both Gervais and Jefferson, after winning two in as many tries, are deadlocked for the Northern Division lead. Chemawa has a 1-0 mark.

League officials are urging all members of the three leagues who have makeup games to play that they submit the dates for those games as soon as possible.

Kellner, Joost, Moses in Fold

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 16-(P)-The Philadelphia Athletics today announced five veterans and two rookies have signed 1950 contracts.

Eddie Joost, the all-star shortstop, put his name on a two-year contract last spring, reportedly for $20,000 a year.

Today the signed contracts of Alex Kellner, outfielder Wally Moses, Pitcher Carl Scheib and Joe Astroth were tucked away in a pigeon hole of Shibe park. Kellner forwarded his contract from Tucson, Ariz., and it was unofficially reported he received a general increase over his 1949 salary. He lost 12 games while compiling his 20-game win record last year.

He is the fourth member of the team to come to terms. No amounts have been disclosed. Others in the fold are first baseman Frank Colman, outfielder Bill Ramsey and pitcher Herb Karpel.
