Fresh Snow Sweeps into Salem Scene

More snow and more weather misery beset Willamette valley residents Tuesday when a blustery storm swept in from the west and north. Above is the Salem skyline nearly obliterated by fine, dry snow as the storm began about noon. The scene is from South Liberty street looking north where the Lively building faintly looms through the swirling gloom. (Statesman photo.)

National PTA Leader to Be In Monmouth

Statesman News Service
MONMOUTH—A National Congress of Parents and Teachers officer will take part in the First Oregon College conference on parent-teacher cooperation here Thursday, Jan. 19.

Dr. Claude B. Wivels, chairman of the cooperation with colleges committee of the PTA and director of the School of Teacher Education at New Mexico university at Portales, N. M., will be a guest on OCE's campus. Other nationally-noted speakers taking part in the conference are Dr. Eldridge T. McSwain of Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill., and Dr. Ray Hawk of Western Washington College of Education, Bellingham, Wash.

The conference will bring together leading teachers, educators and representatives of the National and Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers. Purpose of the session is to organize and set up a program of community relations study for teachers in every teacher training college in Oregon.

Oregon College of Education has been doing pioneer work with such a study for two years. Success of OCE's graduates in actual cooperative work with community agencies has led to demand for such a course in other colleges.

Polk County Plans 1950 Polio Drive

Statesman News Service
DALLAS, Jan. 17—A meeting of key workers and county chairmen was held here Wednesday night to outline the current Polk county March of Dimes campaign. Joe Kievit, Oregon field director for the national foundation, heard a progress report of the group and assisted it with further planning.

Fund requirements of the Polk county chapter calls for an intensive drive this year. The chapter borrowed $11,150 from the national organization in 1949 and has unpaid bills amounting to $4,500, according to Mrs. Ralph Howe, secretary-treasurer.

Dr. J. H. Stewart, county health officer, reports that there were nine new cases of infantile paralysis in 1949 and also heavy expenses in rehabilitating and caring for victims of previous years.

In addition to collections through solicitation, a number of benefit events are being planned by community organizations. Considerable cooperation is expected through service, fraternal, civic, labor and professional groups.

Mrs. Homer Bevins, Dallas, is directing this year's county campaign, assisting Rawson Chapin, Perrydale, chapter chairman.

Community chairmen are Mrs. George Kitchin, Falls City; Mrs. Cleone Blaisdel, Valseit; Mrs. Howard Morlan, Monmouth; Mrs. W. F. McBe, Independence; Mrs. Emily Van Santen, West Salem; Mrs. Joe Billson, Grand Ronde; Mrs. Joe Simmons, Rickreall; and Mrs. L. A. Elliot, Perrydale.

Thank God For Muscle-Rub!

writes Ruth Chisti, Los Angeles
Advices every sufferer from Rheumatism — Arthritic — Sciatic — Neuritic Pains to try Muscle-Rub

Here's the true story of a woman who took treatments, used all kinds of remedies for her sciatic, neuritic pains without being helped in the slightest degree. Ruth Chisti, 342 1/2 North Orange Grove Dr., Los Angeles, suffered agony from pains in her hip-knee-calf or leg. The pain at times was so bad that she couldn't sit down. She tried several different medicines, all of which did her no good. She couldn't work. Life was misery for her.

Then one day she saw an advertisement of Muscle-Rub—the doctor's prescription—and in desperation bought a bottle. She used it as directed and in 3 days the pains were relieved and Ruth Chisti was back on the job.

No wonder she advises every rheumatic sufferer to try Muscle-Rub for fast pain relief. Get a bottle today.
