Report of Actress' Illness Refuted

CHICAGO, Jan. 17—(AP)—Actress Ethel Barrymore, enroute from Los Angeles to New York, remained in her drawing room today while her pullman was switched to another railroad line.

In New York her daughter, Ethel Barrymore Colt, said the actress took a thorough drawing room so she would not have to change trains in Chicago.

Usually transcontinental passengers leave their train during the several hour layover in Chicago. Miss Barrymore's failure to do so gave rise to reports that she was ill. Her daughter denied this, however.

Suits on Validity of Portland Business Tax Reach High Court

Two suits to determine constitutionality of Portland's new business tax Tuesday reached the state supreme court.

The suits, one brought by two retailers, Ted Garbade and Fred Boynton, and the other by six automobile dealers, claim the tax is not uniform and thus violates the constitution.

The business tax amounts to $25 a year plus $1 for each $1,000 of gross sales over $25,000 a year. It affects every retailer in Portland.

Circuit Judge James W. Crawford of Portland ruled the tax was valid and the case was appealed. Arguments were heard Tuesday.

In other action, the court upheld dismissal of a $54,900 damage suit brought by Frances C. Wilder against Dr. Wallace Haworth of Portland.

She claims Haworth burned her with X-rays. Circuit Court Judge James R. Bain of Portland threw the case out of court and the state court upheld this action.

Watercolor By Carl Hall Wins Award

A museum purchase prize in watercolor from the Michigan artist show in Detroit, Mich., has been awarded Carl Hall, instructor in painting and artist in residence at Willamette university.

The painting, entitled "Night Scene," is the property of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Life magazine is planning to use another one of his paintings in an article, "Promising Young American Artists." During March the paintings will be displayed in the Metropolitan Art Museum, New York City, as part of a show on Young American Artists. Hall's Oregon scenes were featured in Life in March, 1948.

The particular painting to be shown by Hall was one purchased by the Portland Art Museum during the all Oregon show in June.

WINNING TEAM
BETHLEHEM, Pa.—(INS)—Lehigh University's football team achieved its best record since 1923 in chalking up six wins and three losses for the 1949 season. In addition, Coach Bill Leconby's eleven scored more points than any other Engineers' squad since 1917.

Marion 4-H Leaders Plan Meeting Jan. 21

Recreation leadership and new games will feature the January 21 meeting of the Marion County 4-H Local Leaders association at Mayflower hall beginning at 1 p.m.

Following a short business meeting to be called by the president, Theresa Dehler, Mt. Angel, the group will hear from C. W. Smith, assistant director of extension service, Oregon State college, regarding the Marion County 4-H program.

Jessalene Mallalieu, extension recreation specialist from Corvallis, will take charge of the program designed to help the 4-H leaders and the recreation chairman from each club in Marion county and the city of Salem to do a better job in regards to "having fun."

Anthol Riney and Anne Bergholz, county extension agents, stress that each club in the county, of which there are 174 to date, is to be represented by a local leader and recreation chairman, or the leader and one 4-H member from each club.

Miss Mallalieu will stress those types of games for small groups and games which do not require a lot of activity, games that can be played in homes at meetings.

"We hope to be able to develop recreation leadership in some of our 4-H members," says Riney, "in planning for a well balanced club program for Marion county."

There will be a short meeting of the Marion county delegates to Western Oregon 4-H Local Leaders conference during the afternoon. Any Marion county leader desiring to go and has not notified the 4-H office, should do so at once. The conference is to be held in Corvallis January 24, 25 and 26.
