Travelers Highlight The News

By Jermye English
Statesman Society Editor

Each day brings more news of travelers, some leaving on extended trips south and east and others arriving home from vacation trips.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling arrived in Salem Thursday on the Shasta Daylight from a two weeks trip to the Hawaiian Islands. They made the entire trip by plane, except from Los Angeles north as all planes were grounded in the southern city. They visited in Honolulu, Waikiki and took a plane trip over to the island of Hawaii, where they stayed at Kona Inn and Hilo. While there the Ohlings experienced their first tropical hurricane.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace entrained Thursday for New York City, where they will visit in Scarsdale with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Lambie, and other eastern points. They will return home the southern route and stop in San Diego for a visit before coming north in a month.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Stone returned home Thursday from a two weeks motor trip south, where they visited in San Francisco and other bay points.

Attend Show, Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Schnell have been in Portland this week and on Thursday night attended the stage show, "Inside U.S.A." Friday night they were guests at the Knife and Fork club dinner at the Multnomah hotel, when they heard Raja Hutheesing, Bombay newspaperman, and his wife, Krishna Nehru, sister of India's prime minister, talk on "The New India".

In Portland this afternoon for the matinee of "Inside U.S.A." will be Mr. and Mrs. John Coughlin and son, John, and Mrs. William H. Lytle. Attending the show tonight will be Miss Josephine Baumgartner and her weekend house guest, Mrs. Charles Taylor of Drain.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey J. Correll of Lodi, Calif. are expected to arrive in Salem Sunday for a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Merrill, and new granddaughter, Stephanie Correll, who was born on Christmas Day.

Miss Jane Hendren A Bride

The First Congregational church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Jane Hendren and Cecil Johnson on Friday night. The couple exchanged their vows at 8 o'clock with Dr. Seth Huntington officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Hendren of Aumsville and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Johnson of Hermiston. Wayne Meusey was the organist and sang before the ceremony.

Donald Killinger gave his sister-in-law in marriage. For her marriage he chose a smart two piece powder blue suit adorned with rhinestone buttons, a matching felt hat and navy accessories. Pinned to her suit was a white orchid.

Mrs. Calvin Hughes of Stayton was the bride's only attendant and wore a grey crepe afternoon dress and a corsage of roses and gardenias. John Slanchik was best man for the groom and ushers were R. J. Chance and George Nuss.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hendren wore a navy blue suit with matching accessories and a corsage of roses.

A reception followed in the fireplace room. Mrs. Loyd Sidwell presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Marie Kohlhagen cut the bride's cake. Assisting were Miss Anne Anderson, Miss Deborah Buffington and Miss Evelyn Foreman, who passed the good book.

After a wedding trip the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 3845 Portland Road. The new Mrs. Johnson is employed at Moore Business Forms, Inc. and her husband is a senior at Willamette university.

Looking Back

Interesting Recipes Found in Old Copy of Cooking Magazine

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Looking through a bound copy of 1935 American Cookery, a magazine which used to be one of the very best, I found some interesting sounding recipes, an example of which is:

LAMB STEW, GREEK STYLE

1/4 pound butter or oil
2 pounds lamb shoulder
1 onion, diced
4 cups water
Cubes potato, eggplant or endive

Brown the meat in the fat, add the onion, potato or other vegetable, season and add the tomatoes and simmer for 15 minutes. Add water and let come to a boil, add celery and simmer until the meat is tender. Beat the eggs with 4 tablespoons of water and add the lemon. Strain off the sauce and add gradually to the egg mixture, pour over the meat and serve.

A delightful sounding, though far from inexpensive casserole is WILD RICE AND MUSHROOMS

1 cup wild rice
2 quarts water
1 dozen mushrooms
Butter
Seasonings
1/2 cup cream

Cook the rice in rapidly boiling water for about 20 minutes or until rice is tender. Stir occasionally to keep from "catching." Bush the mushrooms and slice them. Sauté in butter for 5 minutes. Stir in the cream, season and blend in the drained rice. Re-heat in the casserole.

A variation of the old-world cabbage rolls is this recipe for:

MEXICAN CIGARS

Blend 1 teaspoon salt, a pinch of black pepper, 1 pound ground beef and shape into small rolls, wrapping each with a leaf of cabbage softened in boiling water.

Arrange in a greased cooking pot and bake until tender (about 20 minutes at 400 degrees). Drain off the liquid and thicken. Return to pot. Allow two tablespoons flour to each cup of liquid for thickening.

And then a meat suggestion:

VEAL PARFALUIE

Slice veal cutlet, 1 inch thick
Egg beaten with milk
Parmesan cheese
Seasonings
Crumbs

Lay the meat on a board and sprinkle with the cheese. Pound with edge of a saucer, working in as much of the cheese as possible. Pound until veal is about half of original thickness. Season and dip in egg and crumbs. Sauté slowly in butter until meat is tender and browned on both sides.

And a luscious sounding pie is included:

HONEY BLOSSOM PIE

1 cup strained honey
1/2 cup cornstarch
Few grains mace
2 cups hot milk
Salt
4 eggs
1 teaspoon butter
Few grains cardemon

Mix honey and cornstarch to smooth paste, add salt and egg yolks which have been well beaten. Add milk and stir over fire until thickened. Remove from fire, add butter, mace and cardemon and pour into baked pie shell. Cover with a meringue made from the four egg whites over which is poured 1 tablespoon honey, 1/2 cup sugar and a few grains salt. Let stand until the sugar dissolves, then beat for a long time until meringue is very light and smooth. Put into 450 degree oven and let brown. Since the meringue will not be thoroughly cooked, it is essential that it be beaten thoroughly to eliminate raw taste and to prevent shrinkage from browning.

Mrs. Reva Davidson returned

Tuesday from San Francisco on the Shasta Daylight, where she visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don McMannis (Janet Davidson), the latter a former Salem resident. She also was a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kirk.

The Marion county district conference of the American Legion and auxiliary slated for Sunday January 22 at Mt. Angel has been cancelled.

Degree of Honor installation scheduled for January 23 has been postponed until Monday, February 13 due to the weather conditions.

Miss Nancy Brown is Engaged

Romantic news has come from Boston telling of the engagement of a Salem girl, Miss Nancy Jean Brown, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Earl T. Brown, Salem, to William Hall Kautz, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Kautz of Mercer Island, Seattle.

The couple plan to be married early in June and spend the summer in Europe.

Miss Brown is a graduate of Salem schools and of Pomona college. She is now in Boston completing the work for her master's degree in social work at Simmons college.

Mr. Kautz's undergraduate work at Massachusetts Institute of Technology was interrupted by three years of military service. At present he is a full time member of the teaching staff at MIT and is doing research for a doctorate in electrical engineering.

Willamette Class Party Tonight

Sophomore and junior classes of Willamette university will entertain with a party tonight at the No-Name ballroom. Wayne Meusey's combo will play and there will be new, old and square dancing, refreshments and prizes. At intermission there will be special entertainment features. The class with the fewest members present will clean up Sunday morning.

Sponsors for the dance will be Prof. Mark Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Cross and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Patton. The committee for the dance includes Ellen Reynolds, Dona Stoddard, Lou Prediletto and Jack Brown.

Mrs. Olson Installed President

In a formal setting of candlelight and baskets of gold and white flowers, officers of Salem chapter, American Gold Star Mothers, were installed on January 19. Due to the inclement weather Mrs. Magdalena Butler, of North Bend, state president, was unable to be present and Mrs. Ben Larkins, past president of Salem chapter, presided. Mrs. Laura Johnson, also a past president of Salem chapter, was the installing chaplain. The color bearers were M. E. Clemens, chief electricians mate, naval reserve and commander of Marion Post, 661 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Eugene M. Jarvis, radioman second class. Lighting the tapers were Miss Patricia Olson, daughter of the incoming president, Mrs. Lincoln Olson, and Miss Doris Lappin, daughter of the incoming corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jake Lappin.

Preceding installation Wayne Meusey sang Schubert's "Ave Maria." At the close of the meeting Raymond Dahlon, accompanied by Mrs. Arlene Toelle, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

During the social hour refreshments were served from a table covered with a gold cloth and centered with a bouquet of daffodils and heather. Serving were the three daughter-in-laws of the new president, Mrs. Leo Olson, Mrs. Thaine Olson, and Mrs. Dale Olson, and Miss Karen Young, daughter of the new first vice-president, Mrs. Frank Young.

The Designing Woman

By Elizabeth Hillyer

Picture hanging is usually a two-man job. One person holds the picture against the wall while the other calls signals from the middle of the floor, then the two change places. This works pretty well for a one or two picture hang-up, but what happens to a big idea of hanging three or more?

Long before you lose your amateur standing as a decorator, you know that one small picture alone on the wall does little or nothing to decorate a room. Pictures all over the room hung singly or in midjet pairs only clutter it. But organize pictures in well designed groups and you have something there, big enough and striking decoration that makes a real difference in the style of the room.

Start picture group designing by cutting paper patterns of all the pictures you think you might use. With the patterns, you can make a one-man job of hanging dozens of pictures and be sure they'll be exactly where you want them before a nail is pounded in the wall. Affix patterns on painted walls with scotch tape, or on papered walls with fine pins. Experiment all you please until the design is well balanced, measure and shift until distances between pictures is right. Continued rearrangement results in the perfect without leaving a plowed field of abandoned nail holes.

Gather up scattered pictures around the house and see what you can do with them. Many which are unimportant alone may count decidedly in a group. It could be that pictures that are put away and almost forgotten are the answer the next time you stare blankly at a wall space that stares back just as blankly at you.

It's found money — when you restore a dingy old piece of furniture to beauty with a refinishing job. Send for Elizabeth Hillyer's book, FURNITURE REFINISHING—HOW TO DO IT YOURSELF and learn better. The booklet is yours for 15 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to Miss Hillyer at this newspaper.
