Key Tilt at Villa with Loss-less Lava Bears; Jayvees in Prelim

More crucial Big Six league cage warfare faces the Salem high Vikings tonight at the Villa when the undefeated Bend Lava Bears drop in for an 8:15 o'clock skirmish. The Benders, coached by Roger Wiley of recent U of Oregon playing fame, bring with them a 2-0 record in league play to date, after wins over Corvallis and Albany. The victory over Corvallis was accomplished in all overtime game, 53-51. By means of comparison, the Vikings toppled Corvallis 35 - 29 here early this week.

The Salems will be tossing their perfect 3-0 league record into the fray. Coach Harold Hauk's crew has been buzzing along in great style in league play, their latest conquest at Eugene Thursday night, 52-39. A victory over Bend tonight will push the Viks far in front of the circuit derby.

The Lava Bears won't be by any means the tallest team Salem has faced this year. But it might be one of the fastest. Wiley has only two six-footers in his starting lineup, Reg Halligan and Ed Kribs, both at six feet even. Center Jack Robison is 5-11 and guards Al Christiansen and Bob Hawes are 5-8 and 5-11 respectively. Larry Carroll, a 6-foot, 2-incher is a frontline reserve, however.

Against these lads Hauk will toss starters Doug Rogers (6-3), Wayne Walling (6-5), Jim Rock (6-2), Captain Daryl Girod (5-11) and Larry Chamberlain (5-9). Sterling reserve service can be expected from Layton Gilson, Dick Norton, Gordy Sloan and Deb Davis.

Loren Mort's Jayvees will play the prelim game at 6:45 o'clock with a team to be selected by Athletic Director Vern Gilmore, possibly from the City league.

WU's Held Up at Pendleton Enroute To Coyote Lair; Linfield Victor

CALDWELL, Idaho, Jan. 20 –(AP)– Stranded by weather at Pendleton, Ore., the Willamette university basketball team has notified Coach Clem Parberry of College of Idaho it will not be able to meet his Coyotes here tonight.

Parberry said the two teams will meet here tomorrow night, but did not know when tonight's game will be made up.

The Willamette squad is travelling by train.

Pow-Wow at High School

Big-Six Meeting Today

Representatives of the six schools in the Big Six athletic league will convene today for a meeting at the senior high school at 2 p.m. Schools sending representatives are Salem, Eugene, Bend, Albany, Corvallis and Springfield. Salem's Vern Gilmore, as president of the circuit, will be in charge of the pow wow. Harold Hauk, Viking basketball and baseball mentor is league secretary.

A number of items are on the agenda, but to be chiefly discussed are the playing schedules for track, baseball and other spring sports, and for football next fall.

German Promoter Out; Bout Still in Offing

FRANKFURT, Germany, Jan. 20 (AP)–Fight Promoter Heinz Schuble was ousted today from the German professional boxing association but the scheduled bout between Jersey Joe Walcott of Camden, N. J., and German Heavyweight Champion Hein Ten Hoff may be held anyway. Schuble made the arrangements for the Hoff-Walcott fight for Stuttgart, Germany, May 7.

But Schuble was convicted by a German court last Wednesday on a charge of attempting to print counterfeit money in 1948. He was sentenced to nine months imprisonment but the court ruled that he was to be freed on three years probation.

Erich Doering, president of the boxing association, said Joachim Goettert, veteran Berlin sports figure, had taken over promotion of the bout.

But Louis Says 'I've Had Enough'

Charles Challenges Joe to Title Bout

NEW YORK, Jan. 20 –(AP)– NAB Heavyweight Champion Ezzard Charles tonight challenged Joe Louis to a title fight.

Speaking on a national radio program (We the People—NBC) Charles in the course of an interview with Master of Ceremonies Dan Seymour said:

"I'm challenging Louis to fight me for the title. I've had 71 fights and I've won 67. I've licked Gus Lesnevich, Joe Maxim, nad Joe Baksi."

"All the big ones except Louis," said Seymour.

"Yea. Joe still packs a terrific wallop. But I'm sure I can give him a fight. There's no such thing as friendship in the ring, so if my old pal Louis is listening in tonight I just want to tell him this: Joe, come on out and fight."

In Stockton, Calif., where he appeared in an exhibition tonight, Louis commented:

"I've had enough. I won't come out for Charles or anybody else. I think that Charles is the best heavyweight around today"

Angels Tighten Grip on Lead

MT. ANGEL, Jan. 20-(Special)- Norb Wellman dunked 19 points through the hoops here tonight to pace Mt. Angel to a 53-32 win over Estacada in a Willamette Valley league game. The victory was the fifth straight in league play for the Angels since losing to Molalla in their loop opener.

Mt. Angel got off to an early lead tonight and stayed out front all the way. At halftime it was 25-11.

The Estacada juniors won the preliminary from Mt. Angel's Jayvees, 46-31.

Armed Faces Hialeah Test

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 20 -(AP)- Armed, Calumet Farm's grand old campaigner, heads the field of nine routers tomorrow in Hialeah's $10,000 Royal Palm handicap—richest purse thus far in the Florida winter season.

The nine year old "Golden Gelding," one of the greatest crowd-pleasers of all time, has been top weighted at 121 pounds for the mile and a furlong test.

SPARTS SCHED TOUGH

EAST LANSING, Mich., Jan. 20 -(AP)-Michigan, Minnesota and Notre Dame topped a nine-game 1950 football schedule announced today by Michigan State College.

The East Lansing school had to get Western Conference approval of its Sept. 23 date here with Oregon State, the game being set a week ahead of the regular date for opening of big ten play,

Ol' Luke Signs 21st Contract

CHICAGO, Jan. 20 -(AP)- The record book shows Shortstop Luke Appling of the Chicago White Sox is 40 years old. Some sly folk say he's 42. Old aches and pains, himself, likes to guess he is "about 38."

No matter. Appling, the old man river of the major leagues, today signed his 21st White Sox contract.

And Sunday night, Appling will receive the J. Louis Comiskey Memorial award for long and meritorious service to baseball from the Chicago Baseball Writers at their diamond dinner.

As far as the White Sox are concerned, the long and meritorious service hasn't ended yet. "I'll be in there as many games as they let me," said Luke after signing his 1950 contract and then turning blandly to General-Manager Frank Lane and asking "What's in this, anyway?"

Lane wouldn't say if Appling got a raise, but he did insist the old gentleman from the south didn't take a cut.

EOCE Quintet Edges Wolves

LA GRANDE, Jan. 20 -(AP)- Eastern Oregon outlasted a closing rally by Oregon College of Education here tonight to win a 57-53 Oregon Collegiate conference basketball victory.

Eastern Oregon led at the half, 29-18, and increased the margin to 39-21 before Eastern Oregon starters began fouling out. Before the game ended, all five starters had fouled out.

Oregon College of Education closed the gap to 53-50 before running into the final two-minute foul rule.

Harrell Smith of O.C.E. led scoring with 13 points.

Unknown Leads at Long Beach

LONG BEACH, Calif., Jan. 20-(AP)-Favored Sam Snead and the fellow big name professionals took a back seat today to a little known golfer from El Paso, who cracked par by nine strokes to lead the way through the first round of the $10,000 Long Beach Open.

Jack Harden was the big noise as he toured the Lakewood Country club course, and its par 35-36—71, in 31-31—62, a new competitive and course record for this layout of the lakes.

Snead took his best cracks and emerged with a respectable 68, but it left him six blows behind the leader, trailing nine others and tied in the 68 bracket with 10 others.

Nearest to the flying Harden was Bob (hole-in-one) Hamilton, 1944 PGA champion, with 31-34—65. He sank the tourney's first hole in one on the 147-yard ninth. Four strokes back of the leader were last year's runner-up, Jimmy Demaret, with 34-32—66; National Open champion Cary Middlecoff, with 31-35; Raymond Gafford of Fort Worth, with 33-33, and Marty Furgol, Albuquerque, N. M., 32-34.

Ike Beats Bratton Via TKO

CHICAGO, Jan. 20 –(AP)– Ike Williams, world's lightweight champion tonight scored a technical knockout over Chicago's Johnny Bratton in the eighth round of their scheduled ten round non-title battle in the Chicago stadium.

Bratton quit after one minute and 44 seconds of the eighth. He grabbed his jaw in his gloved fist and motioned to the referee, Norman McGarrity, that the jaw might have been broken. Then Bratton deliberately walked to his corner.

Bratton suffered a fractured jaw two years ago in a stadium battle with Beau Jack, the one-time shoe shine boy of Augusta, Ga., and a former lightweight title holder.

Dr. T. R. Hinchion, examining physician for the Illinois state athletic commission, said preliminary examination indicated Brattons left lower jaw had been fractured. He was to undergo X-ray examination later. Williams' victory ended a string of six consecutive knockouts scored by the Chicago welterweight.

SEATTLE, Jan. 20–(AP)– Freewheeling Frank Guisness cascaded 27 points tonight in leading the University of Washington Huskies to a 69-49 basketball victory over the University of Oregon Webfoots.

A crowd of 11,000—high for the season—saw the Northern division leading Huskies overpower Oregon all the way. The halftime count was 37-23 in Washington's favor.

After an opening flurry in which the Webfoots swapped the lead three times with Washington, the Huskies moved ahead at 7-6 at the end of four minutes. From there on they built the margin up steadily until it hit 25 points near the end of the tussle.

It must have seemed to the often-befuddled Oregonians that there were a half dozen guisnesses on the floor. The Vancouver, Wash. sophomore connected for 14 points in the first half. He was impartial, scoring both from midcourt and under the loop. Time and again he broke free to dribble in for his specialty shot: a leaping, underhand lay-in. He ran a string of nine free throws without a miss.

The Webfoots could not work the ball through Washington's airtight defense for close tosses and many of their long shots rimmed the hoop and fell away.

Will Urban led Oregon in scoring with 13 points and Sophomore Center Jim Vranizan had 11. La Don Henson seconded Guisness on the Washington side with 11.

Coach John Warren tried the two-platoon system in the first half but found nothing could stop the winning surge of the Huskies.

Second-Half Drive Carries WSC Through

PULLMAN, Wash., Jan. 20 –(AP)– The Washington State Cougars developed a red hot streak in the second half tonight to race past Oregon State 53 to 39 in a rough, foul-filled basketball game.

The Cougars pulled into second place in the Northern Division of the Pacific Coast conference by winning tonight and the loss dorpped the Beavers to third.

The officials called 53 fouls, 28 of them on Oregon State, and Cougar accuracy at the free throw line in the second half formed a good stretch of that hot streak. They made 15 free throws in the final 20 minutes.

WSC took a 5 to 3 lead after six minutes and was never headed. But the Cougars couldn't shake the pesky Beavers until midway in the final period when they began to turn the affair into a rout.

It was 22 to 17 at the half for WSC but OCS's Bob Payne put in an underhand setup promptly at the start of the second period to close it to 22 to 19. The Beavers never got any closer.

Washington State held a 10-point edge, 45 to 35, when Payne and Len Rinearson fouled out with six minutes to play. When they left the Beavers' chances of winning went with them.

OSC used three men at center to guard Gene Conley and the tall Cougar pivot was held to three field goals.

The two teams meet here again tomorrow.
