CALDWELL, Idaho, Jan. 21 (Special)—Willamette's Bearcats stormed from behind tonight to top College of Idaho's Coyotes, 57-46 and rack up their fifth straight Northwest Conference basketball win.

The teams were unable to go through with the scheduled first game of the series Friday night when the Willamette team train was held up by snow slide in the Pendleton area. Officials decided to make up the game March 6th if the outcome might have any bearing on the final standings.

Through slightly more than half of tonight's game Clem Parberry's Coyotes looked like they were going to plaster Coach Johnny Lewis' gang with their initial loop loss.

The Idahoans led at the intermission, 24-21, but through most of the initial period they held margins ranging up to nine points as the Bearcats had a rough time trying to hit the hoop.

Three minutes into the second half the WU's for the first time caught up with the Parberry's as Doug Logue dropped in a lay-up to knot it at 24-24. It was then that Dick Browner pumped in two quick buckets from in close to send the Lewis bunch away to a lead they never relinquished.

With Ted Loder, Browner, Doug Logue and Chuck Robinson doing the pacing, the Willamettes stretched their margin to 10 points in the next eight minutes and kept that advantage the rest of the way.

Browner and Logue hit 13 each to lead the 'Cats but Loder and Robinson were close behind with 12 apiece. Bob Lee led the Coyotes with nine.

Guard Lou Scrivens did a bang-up defensive job on Lloyd Neville, the foe's sensational first-year scoring ace. Neville got but three points all evening. Willamette's shooting was not at top form, particularly in the initial half but the work of the entire club under the backboards was close to magnificent.

The Bearcats complete their road trip with a Monday night encounter with Whitman at Walla Walla. They'll return home Tuesday.

She Sparks Gal Hoop Stars

Gene Love (above) 6 feet, four-inch "showgirl-comedienne," is the spark of the famed Olsen's Red Head girls' cage club which appears in Mt. Angel tonight against the Mt. Angel All-Stars. The tilt is set for the Mt. Angel high school gym at 8 o'clock.

Prize List Best Yet

City Pin Meet Looms

Fast approaching is the annual City Bowling tournament which will be held this year on the new University Alleys and which is set to get under way Feb. 18th. Carrying the biggest prize list in history, the meeting will extend through March 5th.

Entries close Feb. 10th, announces Don Duncan, City association secretary. Keglers—both men and women—will roll with averages which are in effect as of Feb. 1st. Handicaps will be built upon 70 per cent of the difference between averages and 200. Entry fee is $3.00.

Departing from the usual procedure, top scores with handicaps included will earn the money prizes. But they scratch scores (minus handicaps) will draw the rating as titlists.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Detroit Lions tonight obtained exclusive draft rights to Doak Walker, All-America back from Southern Methodist in a negotiation with the Cleveland Browns. Detroit, who only last night acquired Leon Hart, Notre Dame's "outstanding player of the year," announced acquisition of the rights to Walker by giving Cleveland's second choice in tonight's National-American Football league draft.

Coach Bo McMillin of the Lions and Coach Paul Brown of Cleveland got together after Commissioner Bert Bell had announced plans for the player draft. They settled one of the pressing player problems of the league. Both had claims to the player, the Browns in an All American conference draft, and the Lions in a National Football league draft.

Brown and McMillin huddled and made a quick deal. At Dallas, Tex., Walker said he would be "interested" in any offer to play pro football, but doesn't know for sure whether he will.

Glenn Davis, famous "Mr. Outside" backfield star of Army's wartime teams, went to the Los Angeles Rams by agreement. Davis, who has not indicated whether he will play professional football was drafted originally by Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Dan Reeves, president of the Rams, said he acquired rights to negotiate with Davis from San Francisco. In return Emil Sitko, Notre Dame's All America full-back, and Jim Winkler, Texas A. & M. tackle, revert to the 49ers.

Angel Stars To Meet Gals

MT. ANGEL, Jan. 21 (Special)—William Bean, manager of the Mt. Angel All Stars basketball team announces an unusual game for Sunday night, at 8 p.m. in the Mt. Angel Prep gym when his boys take on much-advertised Olsen's Redhead all-girl team.

The girls led by Gene Love, 6 feet 4 inch "showgirl-comedienne," play according to men's basketball rules and tour the country, playing the better teams, girls and men alike.

Other featured players on the Redhead team are Betty Bradshaw, Tommy Woods and Vivian Bates.

The Mt. Angel All-stars include Bede Annen, Larry Traeger, Ed Berning, Pete Ruef, Francis Hauth, Will Epping, Carl Beyer, Jim Bielemeier and Leonard Lutz.

Proceeds from the game will go into the Mt. Angel recreational fund.

Armed Close Second 3 Rings Wins Hialeah Romp

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 21 (AP)—Three Rings, Mrs. E. L. Hopkins' race setting year old, won the $10,000 Royal Palm handicap at Hialeah today but Calumet Farm's gallant Old Armed won the hearts of 16,911 fans by placing second only three quarters of a length behind the winner.

Mrs. Tilyou Christopher's Renown II was third, a length behind Armed.

Armed, still the world's leading money-winning gelding, was the sentimental favorite in the mile and a furlong test despite the fact his last race victory was in 1947.

Three Rings' impressive victory was the second straight triumph. Two dollar backers received $4.80, $2.60 and $2.20 across the board for tickets on Three Rings. Armed, the slight favorite, paid $2.80 and $2.30 and Renown II returned $2.60.

ROOKS TOP FROSH
CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 21 (AP)—Oregon State's Rooks took a first half lead and held it tonight in defeating the Oregon Frosh, 40 to 34, to split their two game series. The Rooks led 24-17 at the halftime.

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 21 (AP)—Columnist Walter Winchell said today Welterweight Boxing Champion Sugar Ray Robinson had offered to defend his crown and donate all proceeds, including his purse, to the Damon Runyon cancer fund.

Winchell said the Negro boxer also offered to donate his purse and gate receipts to the Runyon fund in the event he tonight in a crack at Jake LaMotta's middleweight title and wins it.

The columnist and radio commentator said he received this telegram from Robinson and his manager, George Gainford:

"Billy Graham, New York welterweight contender, has openly challenged me today to fight for the welterweight championship. I am willing to accept the challenge and defend my title for the Damon Runyon fund in June with the proceeds including my entire purse to be donated to the fund.

"In the event I fight for the middleweight championship in June, and be fortunate enough to win the title, I will defend the middleweight title against a worthy opponent for the fund instead of the welterweight championship."

Four Matches, March of Dimes

Mat Card Set for Tuesday

Mat customers will be treated to three items of importance during their Tuesday night convalesce at the armory,

(1) the grudge main event between The Great Atlas and Lee (Pile Driver) Wallick, (2) four matches in all, with each one boasting topnotch operators and (3) a chance to help along the county's "March of Dimes" drive. Part of the proceeds are to be given to the "Dimes" drive, according to Matchmaker Elton Owen. Consequently, a jam-packed house is anticipated.

The card itself, and particularly the Atlas-Wallick brawl, should have little trouble luring the spectators. Mr. Ego and the Wallick roughian came to the parting of the ways last week when as partners they spent as much time meowing at one another as they did at their opponents. When they lost the match Atlas blamed Wallick for it and they had a hot set-to in the dressing room. Owen signed 'em immediately for the Tuesday mainer.

The prelims, first one starting at 8:30 o'clock, puts Maurice LaChapelle in with George Strickland, the latter the likeable who was grappling with Cowboy Tommy Heins here last week when Tommy suffered a broken leg; George (The Muscle) Dussie on with Carl Grey and Lee Grable on with the sensational Ted Bell. Grable is the well-constructed capable from Phoenix, Ariz.

Harry Elliott will referee, and Owen reminds that the card will be produced come snow, ice or flood.

Schroeder 2nd, Talbert 3rd Pancho Formally Voted 49's Leading Amateur

NEW YORK, Jan. 21 (AP)—Pancho Gonzales of Los Angeles and way points was formally inducted today as the Nation's No. 1 ranking amateur tennis player for 1949.

Without a dissenting vote, the U. S. Lawn Tennis association at its annual meeting decided that Pancho richly deserved the honor and voted to rescind a rule which would have deprived him of the honor on a technicality.

Pancho, after winning the national championship in a breathless five-set final with Ted Schroeder, turned professional and began a lucrative exhibition tour with Jack Kramer and others of Bobby Riggs' money troupe. The rule, discarded at today's meeting, said that any player who turned pro before October 15 would not be eligible for national ranking.

As amended, the rule now says a player must retain his amateur standing only through the national championships.

Had Gonzales been tossed out to the ranking, Schroeder would automatically have ascended to the No. 1 spot and all others ranked would have moved up one notch. Now they remain right where they were.

Schroeder is No. 2, Billy Talbert No. 3, Frankie Parker No. 4, Gardner Mulloy No. 5, Arthur Larsen No. 6, Earl Cochell No. 7, Sam Match No. 8, Eddie Moylan No. 9, and Herbert Flam No. 10.

Snead Four Strokes Back Burke Snares Lead In Long Beach Play

LONG BEACH, Calif., Jan. 21 (AP)—Jack Burke, Jr., of White Plains, N.Y., fired his second sub par 67 in succession for a 36-hole total of 134 and moved into the lead of the $10,000 Long Beach open late today.

Once again the 27-year-old baby faced pro, who learned to play golf from his father in Houston, Tex., clipped four strokes off the par 35-36-71 test of the Lakewood country club.

Just one stroke behind at 135 was Dave Douglas of Newark, Del., whose 65 was the lowest score registered today.

Jack Harden of El Paso, Tex., whose spectacular 62 led the field in the first round, fell back and took 77 strokes for a total 139.

The contingent of pros on the newly launched 1950 winter tournament trail continued to wreck par, but the law of averages began to catch up with some of them.

Sam Snead, the favorite, failed to gain much ground as he took a 70 today. He started out six blows behind Harden this morning, but with a total of 138 strokes, he still four strokes off the pace.

Burke, third in the Long Beach play a year ago, tonight was two strokes under his 1949 medal score and equal with the 134 Ben Hogan held at the halfway point as he went on to win the 1949 tournament. Hogan is sitting this one out.

In the shakedown of performances, seven players were tied at 138.

They were Jimmy Demaret, with 66-70, who lost in a playoff to Hogan here last year; Fred Haas, Jr., of New Orleans with 70-66; 21-year-old Paul O'Leary from Bismark, N.D., with 69-67; Johnny Palmer of Badin, N.C., 67-69; National open champion Cary Middlecoff, 66-70; Dick Metz, Arkansas City, Kas., 68-68, and amateur Frank Stranahan, 69-67.

Tied at 137 were Stan Leonard of Vancouver, B.C., the western Canadian open king; Ray Galford of Fort Worth, Tex., Smiley Quick of Culver City, Calif., and Opening series will have Medford, Ore., at Pittsburg, Cal.; Klamath Falls, Ore., at Marysville, Cal.; Eugene, Ore., at Reno, Nev., and Redding, Cal., at Willows, Cal. Other home openers will be May 2 at Medford, Klamath Falls, Eugene and Redding.

League President Jerry Donovan said the all-star game—north vs. south—will be July 10 at Medford. The annual Shaughnessy playoff will start two days following the season's close at the home of the highest percentage club.

He said the schedules call for all series to be of three games with one holiday and 10 Sundays on home schedules. Not more than three consecutive series will be played at home or on the road.

Umpires selected include Doc Shaw, John Miller, Wimpy Wilburn, Joe Burdick, Joe Christoph, John Whittam and Bob Griesel.

Simmons Likes Tribe Chances

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Jan. 21 (AP)—Al Simmons, the new coach of the Cleveland Indians believes the tribe has a "very real chance" of topping the American league this year.

Simmons, who makes his winter home here, said today he looks for a four-way for the pennant. He expected Detroit, New York and Boston to be tough but said Cleveland will be very good also.

"I think we've got a good chance to be up there," Simmons said.

Is the Time
To Think of Safer Driving

Old Man Winter has REALLY been rough on your car! Driving in snow, ice and slush creates many abnormal mechanical strains and can be directly responsible for damaged steering and poor front end alignment. To continue driving your car in such condition is not only hazardous, but also poor economy!
