

WOMEN'S

Society * Clubs * Music

The Oregon Statesman

SECTION

Miss Dorothy Pederson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pederson, who will be installed as worthy advisor of Chadwick Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls at formal installation ceremonies Tuesday night at the Masonic temple. Miss Pederson, well known pianist, will also be the guest soloist with the Salem high school orchestra, when it presents its first concert of the year on February 2. (Jesten-Miller photo.)

European Trip Subject of Talk . . .

Town and Gown members will hear Mrs. Mabel Hayles tell of her European trip at the regular meeting on Thursday afternoon in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church at 2 o'clock. Subject of the traveler's talk will be "Behind the Iron Curtain." Miss Mabel P. Robertson will introduce the speaker as program chairman. Mrs. P. H. Brydon has arranged the music. Victor Palmason will play a group of violin selections, accompanied by Mrs. Palmason. Greeting guests will be Mrs. Harry V. Collins and Mrs. Ernest C. Richards. The tea hour will follow with Mrs. Floyd P. Sampson heading the directorate. Mrs. David Cameron is in charge of the tea table and assisting are Mrs. Arthur Hay and Mrs. Gene Vendeneysde. Decorating the room will be Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. Ned Gerlinger, Mrs. R. D. Paris and Mrs. Elmer Hildreth. Presiding at the tea urns will be Mrs. James T. Brand and Mrs. Ernest C. Richards. The tea hostesses include Mrs. Albert C. Cragg, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. Harry Hanson, Mrs. Carl Chambers, Mrs. Kenneth Lottick, Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Chester Stackhouse, Mrs. Julian Smith and Mrs. Elizabeth Higbee.

Pictured at the right is Mrs. Earl C. Latourette, who was in Salem on Thursday to see her husband sworn in as associate justice of the Oregon supreme court. With Mrs. Latourette is Mrs. Hall S. Lusk, wife of Chief Justice Lusk and long time friend of the Latourettes. The Latourettes will divide their time between Salem and Oregon City. (Statesman photo.)

One of these five attractive girls will be chosen the Hi-Y Sweetheart on February 11. Left to right are Ginger Currier, Marilyn Power, Pebble DeSart, Alice Girod and Joan Marie Miller. The Hi-Y chapters which they represent are Claude A. Kells, Arthur Cotton, Alonzo Stagg, Abel Gregg and Harrison Elliott. The annual Hi-Y Sweetheart dance will be February 11 at the No-Name ballroom and the sweetheart's identity will be kept a secret until that night. The five candidates for sweetheart are popular Salem high school girls, Miss Currier the song queen, Miss Girod and Miss Miller, members of the rally squad, Miss Power, Clarion editor, and Miss DeSart, Viking year book editor. (Kennell-Ellis photo.)

Now making her home in Salem is Mrs. Clorinda Topping, who came here this fall from Portland to be on the Willamette university College of Music faculty as voice instructor. Mrs. Topping, well known soprano in the northwest, has been soloist with the Portland Symphony and did concert work prior to coming to Oregon ten years ago. (Kennell-Ellis photo.)

Three Club Dances Slated . . .

Dances are on the social agenda for the coming weekend. The Waverly club's dinner dance will be Saturday night at the Marion hotel. Dinner will be at 9 o'clock with dancing to Wolfer's orchestra. The decoration committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Boise and Dr. and Mrs. Charles Carey. The hostess committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Leland Shinn, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Skopil, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. John Kolb. The Cosmis club dance will also be Saturday night at the Mayflower hall with dancing to Claude Bird's orchestra between 9 and 12 o'clock. The committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Bostrack, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Higgins and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Finney. New officers of the club are Carl Wittenberger, president; Sherman Bostrack, vice-president; Mrs. Alvin Luhr, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Howard Mills, Mrs. Frank Finney, Richard King and Glenn Bowman, board members. The Cama club dance, originally scheduled for January 20, but postponed due to the weather, will be held this Friday, January 23 at Crystal Gardens.

Betty Childs to Be a March Bride . . .

By Jeryne English
Statesman Society Editor

Today's romantic news concerns the betrothal and coming marriage of Miss Betty Louise Childs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo N. Childs, to Frederick G. Bradshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick O. Bradshaw. The announcement was made known at a beautifully appointed tea on Saturday afternoon for which Mrs. Childs, her daughter and Mrs. Francis Kern were hostesses at the latter's Portland home on northeast Alameda Drive. Thirty Salem friends were bidden to the tea with calling hours between 3 and 5 o'clock. Ann Kern, daughter of the hostess, opened the door and passed out the announcement cards bearing the names of the engaged duo and the wedding date, March 4. The couple will be married in Salem at the First Presbyterian church.

Assist at the Tea

Presiding at the tea urns were Mrs. Duane Gibson and Mrs. H. G. Maison of Salem, Miss Margaret Kern and Mrs. John Holden of Portland. Assisting were Mrs. George Tomlinson of Salem, Mrs. R. H. Roberts, Miss Elsie Franz, Miss Francis Bennett and Miss Sue Wagner, all of Portland. A crystal eperne filled with Cecile Brunner roses, violets and freesias centered the tea table. Miss Childs and her fiancé are graduates of Salem schools and are both living in Portland, where she is with the child welfare bureau and he with the U. S. Rubber Co. The bride-to-be is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is also a member of the Salem Spinners. Mr. Bradshaw attended Willamette university and is a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy and served in the navy for three years following his graduation at Annapolis.

Newcomers being welcomed in the capital are Mrs. Brace I. Knapp and twenty months old daughter, Barbara, who with Dr. Knapp have moved here from Des Moines, Iowa. The Knapps have purchased a home on Canadalaria Heights. (Kennell-Ellis photo.)