

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

ACROBATIC FIREMEN—Japanese fire-fighters perform acrobatic feats of balance and agility during a fire-fighting exhibition held on the Imperial Palace Plaza, Tokyo.

GOVERNOR'S SAILBOAT—Governor Herman Talmadge of Georgia studies a model sailboat built from used safety matches by two inmates of Talmall Prison, Reidsville, Ga., and presented to Governor. Photo taken at his office in Atlanta.

OLD STATION TO BECOME HOME—Miss C. Louise Follet supervises fireplace construction in abandoned railway station she is converting into a home at New Rochelle, N. Y.

DP AND DOLLY—Vera Chrapotowsky, 20 months old, carries her doll in her knapsack as she arrives at a New York pier with her parents, displaced persons from the Ukraine.

READY FOR THE RUN—Girl skipper of the Whalaroo, airplane-motored ice sled, waits for her co-pilot before starting a test run on Georgian Bay, Ontario, Canada.

SIAMESE FAMILY—Simmy III and Sahra, Siamese cats owned by Mr. and Charles Walters, of Rome, N. Y., preside over ceremony as their nine-weeks old kittens pose for first portrait.

MUSEUM EXHIBIT—John Jamieson repairs a totem pole as pet chickens follow him about the grounds of the Museum of the American Indian, Heye Foundation, in New York.

CARNIVAL RULERS—Moritz Mueller, Prince, and Irene Henne, Princess, salute their subjects from throne after being crowned rulers of pre-Lenten carnival at Munich, Germany.

TRADE BOARD HEAD—Carl Bostrom (above), 49, who started his business career as a $7 a week messenger at 14, is the new president of the Chicago Board of Trade.

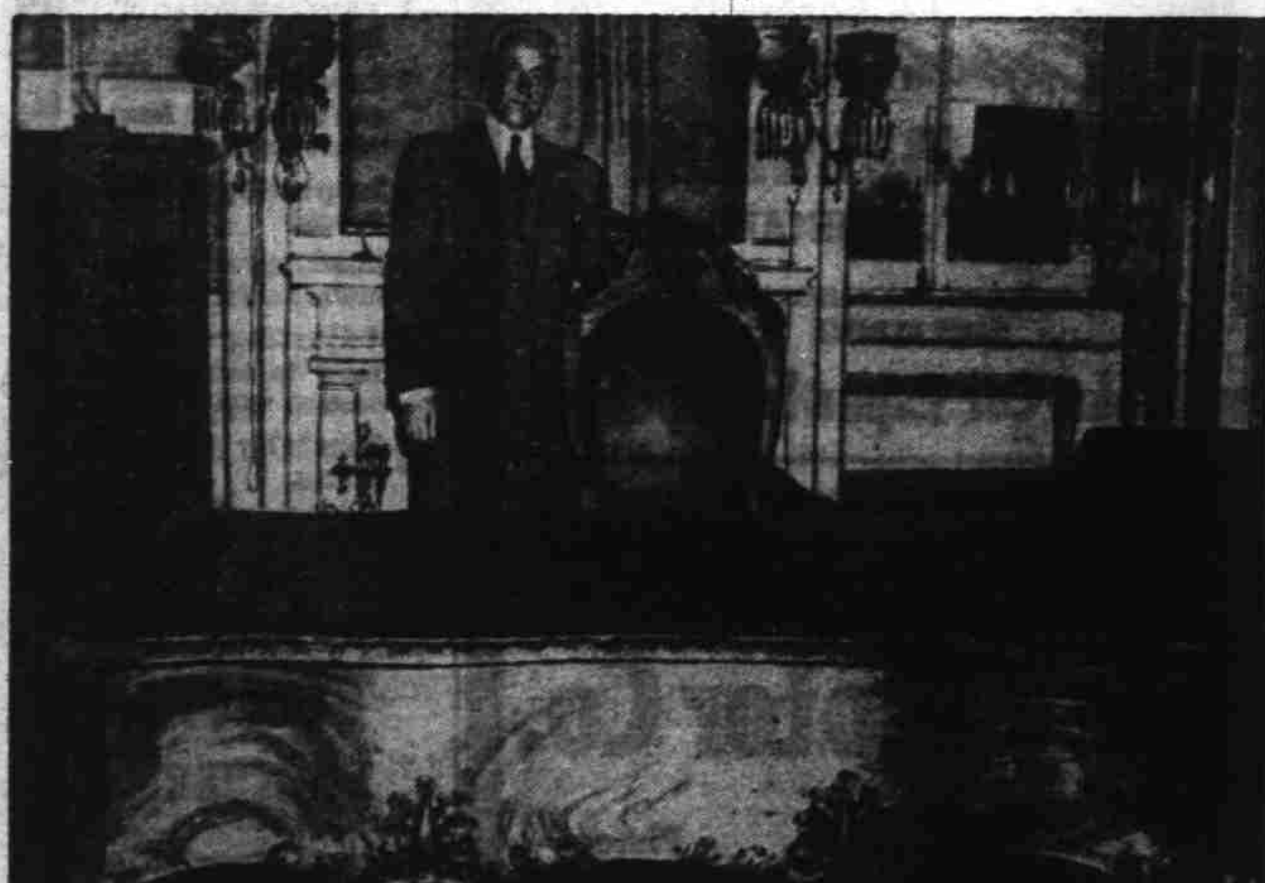

GERMAN POLICEWOMAN—A woman member of the Communist "people's police" directs traffic in Soviet sector of Berlin. Building in background was Luftwaffe headquarters.

MATCHING JEWELS—Offered in the season's new jewelry abroad is this combination of bib necklace and matching bracelet of gold mesh and diamonds shown in Paris.

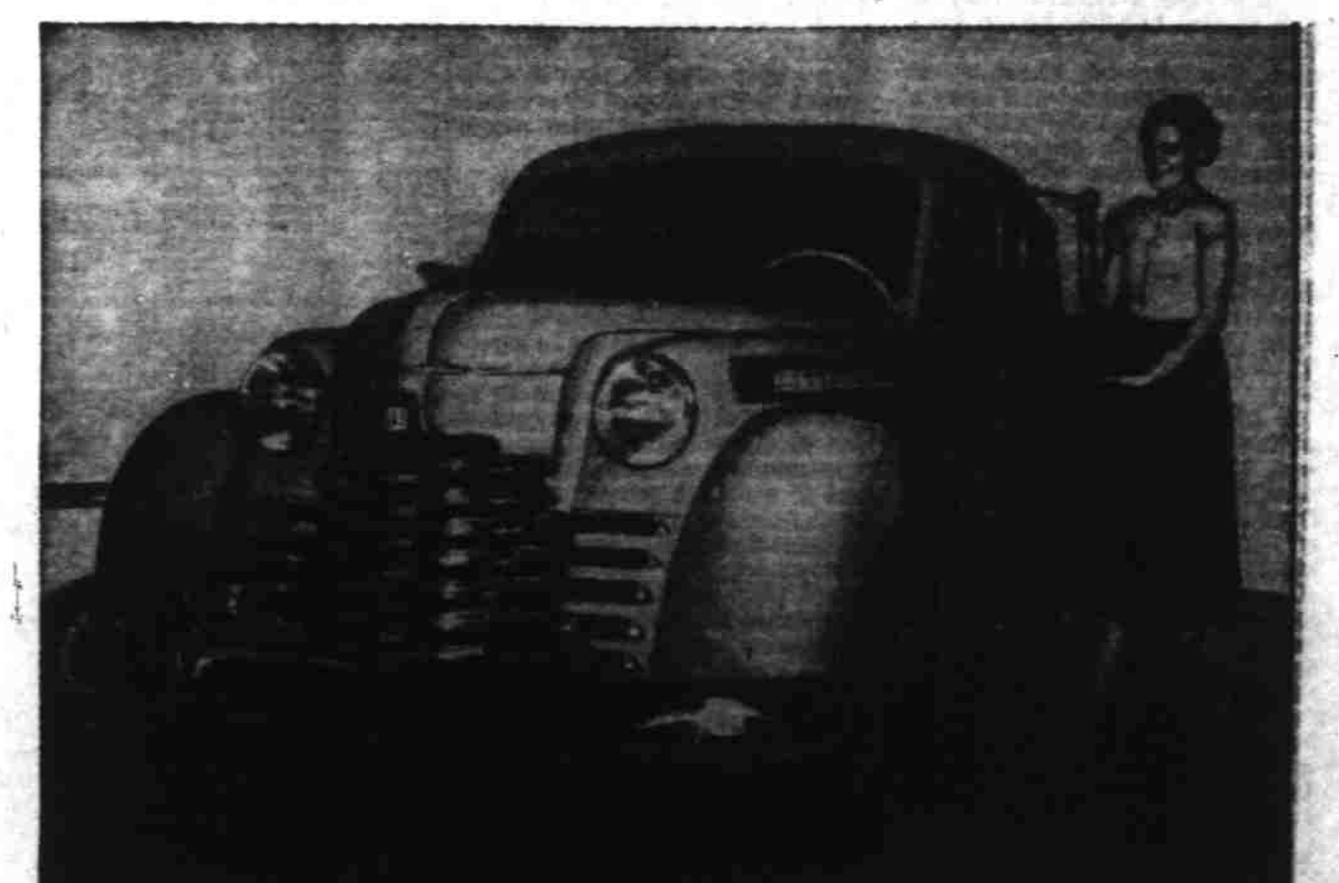

SHEET MUSIC COLLECTOR—C. Clyde Marshaw, of Highland Park, Cal., shows some of the 50,000 copies of sheet music he has collected since he started his hobby in 1923.

ONE-PIECE DESK—U. S. Senator Millard E. Tydings of Maryland stands at a desk carved from one piece of mahogany presented to him by President Elpidio Quirino of the Philippines.

VILLAGE IN APARTMENT—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Barnett and their children, Carol, 5, and Alan, 8, inspect the village Mr. Barnett built in their New York City apartment.

NEW GERMAN AUTO—Shown recently at the Opel plant, Rüsselsheim, Germany, was this 1950 Olympia sedan with a speed of 70 miles an hour and fuel consumption of 25 miles to gallon.