

Kirby Upset, Florida Meet

Hopkins, Bauer Win As Gals' Event Opens

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 25 (AP)—Jean Hopkins, 29-year-old Cleveland, O., amateur, staged a back nine rally today to upset favored defending champion, Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta, Ga. 2 and 1 in the first round of championship play in the 18th annual Helen Lee Doherty women's golf tournament.

Medalist Marlene Bauer, who with her sister Alice made her first appearance on Florida golf courses, continued to set the pace with her one over par round that beat Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga. 4 and 2. The petite 15-year-old, voted the woman athlete of 1949, carded a one under par 71 over the par 36-36-72, 6,347-yard Miami Country club course yesterday for medalist honors. Today she led one up at the end of nine holes with a 37 and was even par through the 16th hole—where the match ended. Thus she has carded even par for 34 holes.

Alice Bauer, her 22-year-old sister who has beaten Marlene four of six times in final playoffs, decisively defeated Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee, Mich., 6 and 4.

Thirty-two low medalist play scorers competed in the championship flight. The 16 winners of today's round meet in the championship flight tomorrow while the 16 losers make up the first flight.

Maxim Ponders Ring Offers

"Solomon gave me my chance to win the world title and I would like nothing better than to fight for him some more," said Maxim. He got approximately $25,000 for last night's bout, one of the biggest, if not the largest, purses of his nine year career.

What Maxim and Kearns had in mind was a shot at the winner of the Bruce Woodcock-Lee Savaud fight which will be staged here in May for the British and European recognition as world heavyweight champion.

"We want that one," said Kearns, "because then we would have just as much right to claim the heavyweight championship as Erard Charles (the NBA title holder). And if we win that we would be ready to take Charles on anytime."

Leahy Was Hungry—But Not Talkative

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 25 (AP)—A welcoming relegation met Notre Dame Coach Frank Leahy at Charlotte airport at noon today and invited him to a luncheon.

"I'm not very hungry," replied Leahy, arriving to speak at tonight's Charlotte Quarter. ack club meeting.

"How about a sandwich—something light?" somebody proposed.

"Does that mean a speech is involved?" asked Leahy.

"Not at all," put in Mayor Victor Shaw.

"Then I'm hungry," grinned Leahy.

So they all went to lunch.

'Skins Deal Must be 'Good' To Lure COP's Eddie LeBaron

STOCKTON, Calif., Jan. 25 (AP)—Eddie LeBaron, College of Pacific's mighty mite, plans to sell chicken feed — not play for it. LeBaron, three-time Associated Press Little All-American quarterback, was drawn by the Washington Redskins in the National-American Pro Football league draft.

"I seriously doubt if the Redskins can interest me," the 160-pound Eddie said tonight. "I'm waiting to see what they say. But I'll have to be a pretty good deal."

LeBaron, voted the outstanding player in the Shrine's East-West charity game at San Francisco Dec. 31, said he has been offered a partnership in a hay and feed business here. He cal-

Phoenix Meet Starts Today

Snead Favored But Ben Big Attraction

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 25 (AP)—Sam Snead held onto his favorite's role for the $10,000 Ben Hogan open gold tournament today as he fired a three-under-par 69 in the preliminary pro-amateur event.

But the sweet swinger from Greenbrier, W. Va., and most of the galaxy took notice of the fellow for whom the tournament was named.

Ben Hogan, saying he felt 100 percent better and thought he had the flu licked, went around the 6,620 yard Phoenix Country club course in even par 71 figures. That showed one and all that Bantam Ben stood ready for the start of the 72 hole grand tomorrow.

"I think I've got it licked," said Ben referring to the aching flu which had him down the last two days.

Sunny skies and warm but breezy weather greeted the pros and amateurs.

Veteran Lawson Little, Monterey, Calif., former National Open champion, went around the course in a five-under-par 66 that was matched by Dale Anderson of Hinsdale, Ill.

Card Skipper Likes Dodgers

HOUSTON, Jan. 25 (AP)—Eddie Dyer thinks young talent makes the Brooklyn Dodgers the team to beat in the 1950 National league pennant chase.

The St. Louis Cardinal manager also thinks Boston and Philadelphia will be tough. The big problem for the Braves and Phillies, he believes, will be finding good pitching.

As for St. Louis' chances, Eddie said today:

"We're not conceding anything to anybody. We'll be better—maybe not good enough but better."

"Unless we get too many bad breaks we'll be up there."

Four Players Think They're Worth More

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25 (AP)—President Bob Carpenter of the Philadelphia Phillies is learning that it costs money to field a winning ball club.

The Phillies finished third last year and Carpenter as yet hasn't found a player who thinks he personally didn't account for the club's lofty finish.

The attitudes run something like this:

Fitcher Ken Heintzelman: If I hadn't won 17 games, would we have finished? Outfielder Del Ennis: I hit .302 and batted in 110 runs. That helped more than a little to finish third.

Willie Jones: I'm rated the best third baseman in the National league by some. That ought to rate me more cash.

Jim Konstanty: I saved 13 games in relief and won nine others. We'd never have made the first division without those.

A club spokesman said Carpenter hadn't even heard from Shortstop Grammy Hammer.

"He'll probably see that Phil Rizuto got $35,000 from the New York Yankees and want at least that much," the spokesman said.

Carpenter seems to feel there isn't too much of an argument with most of his players but he's rather incensed about Heintzelman's attitude.

"We gave Ken a nice raise in this year's contract. And at the end of last season he received a $2,500 bonus for his good work.

After all he never was anything to talk about when he came to us from Pittsburgh and we have nothing to make us believe he'll be as good in 1950 as he was in 1949. Heintzelman is no kid."

Snow Scarce as World Slat Tournament Looms

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Jan. 25 (AP)—Despite temperatures in the mid-fifties, officials of the jumping phase in the World Ski meet next week decided today that the jumps definitely will be held here.

A sudden heat wave today turned the streets of this snow-starved village into miniature rivers and forced officials to close the jumping hill after four U. S. sojourners had gotten some practice.

Ice crushing machines will be used to provide a surface for the hill.

An international exhibition is scheduled for Sunday, Jan. 29. The jumpers in the combined class are slated to do their stuff on Jan. 31 and the world's best jumpers will compete on Sunday, Feb. 5.

No decision is expected until Saturday regarding the cross country races. One is a 31-mile marathon test and natural snow will be needed for that. Before today's thaw the New York commerce department estimated the area had three inches of old snow on the ground. Skiing was rated as poor.

Art Devlin of Lake Placid, Merrill Barber of Brattleboro, Vt., Keith Wegeman of Steamboat Springs, Colo., and Wilmer Hampton of Leavenworth, Wash., got in practice jumps today before the heat forced a halt.

"It wasn't the best practice but at least it was practice," Devlin said. Foreign competitors grumbled about conditions.

Elk Hunters Fail To Send Reports

PORTLAND, Jan. 25 (AP)—The state game commission pointed out today that fewer than half of Oregon's elk hunters had mailed in their reports as required by law.

Director C. A. Lockwood advised that if hunters mislaid the report postal card they could send a note to the commission telling whether or not they hunted, and whether they made a kill. If the animal was shot, the commission also wants to know the approximate location and the animal's age.

Reports so far from 16,980 hunters show 7,257 kills, 9,104 failures and 619 who had licenses but did not hunt.

Aerial Survey Set, Antelope

LAKEVIEW, Ore., Jan. 25 (AP)—An aerial census of the antelope herds that roam southern Oregon, northern California and northern Nevada will be conducted next month.

Wildlife experts decided here today the food habits and results of antelope hunts also will be noted, and used in planning for management of the herds.

The planning will be done by the Interstate Antelope committee, which held its second annual meeting here today. Twenty-two game officials from Oregon, Nevada, California and the federal fish and wildlife service attended.

2 OSC Stars Nix Pro Ball

CORVALLIS, Jan. 25 (AP)—Two Oregon State college gridsters are turning down offers of professional football jobs.

Dick Gray, one of the three famed Gray brothers, said he was rejecting the draft by the Cleveland Browns in favor of high school coaching. Ed Carmichael, also tapped by the Browns, said he wants no more football at all. He plans to enter walnut ranching at Modesto, Calif.

The two other Beavers drafted by pro teams intend to say "yes." Ken Carpenter expects to sign a contract with the Browns as soon as he finishes pitching for the Beaver baseball squad this spring. Tom DeSylva will sign with the Philadelphia Eagles.
