

Hazel Green Scout Leaders Attend Meet

HAZEL GREEN — Hazel Green Boy Scouts were well represented at the Silver Falls district committee meeting Tuesday. Attending were committee members, Otis Phillips, Rudy Wacken, Lacy Bowsby, Elmer McCloughry, Harry McKibben, Jesse Carter and Donald Bowsby.

Contrary to an announcement made at the last pack meeting, weekly den meetings of Cub pack 87 will be held weekly as additional den mothers have been secured to assist Lois Wacken.

How to make tomato soup was featured in a meeting of the Happy Home Makers 4-H cooking club at the home of Mrs. Henry Rasmussen Tuesday.

Final plans for the Blue and Gold banquet at Mayflower hall Tuesday, February 7, were made in a meeting at the home of Mrs. Rudy Wacken Tuesday. Attending were Mesdames Lacy Bowsby, Harry McKibben, Leo Hawley, Jake Haurly, Orin Phillips, Jesse Carter, Ted Lowry and Elmer McCloughry.

Mrs. Carl Ziebert is recovering at Salem Memorial hospital from a serious attack of pneumonia. Her brother, Julius Statum, plans to visit with friends and relatives here for a few days before returning to his home in Cumberland, Wis.

Turner—M. Sgt. and Mrs. W. R. McKay, Dennis and Judy have been visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scheaffer. He will sail for Japan soon.

On Freedom's Road

Five-year-old Ollie Cleghorn, of San Angelo, Tex., peers out from behind bars but to her they represent the road to freedom of action. Ollie was stricken with polio during the 1949 epidemic. Thousands of children like Ollie look to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis for assistance. The March of Dimes (Jan. 16-31) is the sole source of funds for the National Foundation, whose epidemic funds were exhausted by last year's toll of cases.

Falls City Family Returns from Trip

FALLS CITY — Mrs. Merle Savage and children returned home Saturday after visiting relatives in the east for two months. Mrs. Kenneth Cummings of Cutler City spent Monday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Letterman in Falls City.

Mrs. G. E. Wilson and Mrs. Floyd Johnson are on jury duty in Dallas.

Mrs. Calvin Bones and daughter, Barbara of Taft, spent a few days visiting Mildred Wray.

Fire Auxiliary Nets $28.50 from Sale

JEFFERSON — The woman's auxiliary to the volunteer fire department made $28.50 from their food sale Saturday in the city hall. The money goes toward a fund to buy equipment for the department.

City councilmen and firemen and their families will hold a potluck supper Friday night at 6:30 in the city hall. Instructions are to wear overalls and print dresses and come prepared to "let your hair down."

OCE Teacher Registration Up at OCE

MONMOUTH — A jump of nearly 28 per cent in students registered in teacher training courses was revealed today in final registration figures for winter term at Oregon College of Education. A total of 454 are studying education courses this year, compared to 355 last year.

In all, 564 students signed up for the term, an increase of 16 per cent over last year's figures for the same term. 110 are taking lower division work.

The increase in total enrollment followed a pattern set in fall term, when OCE's classes were swelled by a 20 per cent jump.

OCE continues to attract veterans, as indicated by an increase of 1.59 per cent in enrollment over last year. There are 192 veterans studying here now: 163 men, 8 women attended under PL 346, while 9 men and 1 woman are carried under PL 16. Five are registered under state aid, and six are going it on their own.

Twenty-one transfer students are at Monmouth. Of these, 13 are from other schools within the state system of higher education, four from other Oregon colleges, and four from other states.

ORCHARD HEIGHTS — The Mountain View Community club and Orchard Heights Farmers union will sponsor a pie social Friday, January 27, at 8 p.m. in the Mountain View schoolhouse. Proceeds will go to the March of Dimes campaign for polio relief. The public is invited.

Valley Briefs

Fruitland—The Fruitland Woman's circle will meet Thursday, January 26, at 2 p.m. in the church annex.

Eugene — Co-chairman of the promotion committee for the annual "Heart Hop" at the University of Oregon is Jeanne Hoffman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Hoffman, 515 Rose st., Salem. Miss Hoffman is a sophomore sociology major.

Union Hill—Mrs. Donald Jaquet will be hostess to members of the Union Hill Woman's club at her home at Victor Point Thursday, January 26, starting at 1:30 p.m. Members are asked to bring their favorite recipe.

Liberty-Salem Highs — Cub Scout pack 19 of Liberty-Salem Heights will meet Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Liberty hall. Parents are asked to attend.

Hazel Green—Musical numbers by the Wiltsey House of Music and an act by Don Schmidt will be featured in a meeting of the Hazel Green Community club Friday night. The Happy Home Makers 4-H cooking club will sell home-made candy. The refreshment committee will serve cake and coffee.

Powell Elected President of Garden Club

JEFFERSON — Alfred Powell was unanimously re-elected president of the Jefferson Friendly Garden club Monday night in their January meeting. A local grocer, flower growing is his hobby, and has given much time and thought to organizing the club and seeing it successfully through its first year. Named to serve with him as vice president was Mrs. George Mill. Mrs. Charles Sarver was chosen secretary and Mrs. Helen Caywood, treasurer.

An invitation for the club members to attend the grand opening of Gilmore's new florist shop in Albany Friday and Saturday was read. The club voted $10 toward the local polio fund, and decided to hold a plant and bulb exchange at the February meeting. Maurice Townsend was given a vote of thanks for cleaning off the snow from the city hall sidewalks during the storm.

Refreshments were served by the committee, Mrs. Guy Roland, Mrs. Earl Lynes and Mr. and Mrs. Les Shields.
