

Lebanon Sets Turkey Day For Feb. 15

LEBANON — A tentative program for the city's 12th annual Turkey day, February 15, has been released showing four major speakers, business sessions and an entertainment period on the agenda.

The day long program will commence in the city hall auditorium at 10:30 a. m. when George Britton, president of the chamber of commerce, will welcome the anticipated 250 growers. A response will be given by Avery Swink, local turkey raiser. Drawing of a door prize will follow, and the appointment of a nominating committee.

First topic discussed will be "Reducing costs through feeding and management." This will be discussed by James Harper, Oregon State college.

A free turkey dinner to all growers and delegates will be served during the noon hour at both the Methodist and Presbyterian churches by ladies of the respective churches.

Afternoon sessions will commence at 1:30 when Ted Bolobonoff, noted violinist, will be heard in short recital. This will be followed by the first afternoon topic, "Selling Oregon hatching eggs and poult," by W. H. Schweider, president of Oregon Turkey Improvement association. Election of officers will be held at 2:20.

C. W. Norton, president of Northwest Dairy and Poultry Products, will then discuss the effect of government support prices on the turkey industry.

Noel Bennion, Oregon State college poultry specialist, will talk on the 1950 turkey situation and outlook, and summarize the day's meeting. Adjournment is planned at 3:30.

JEFFERSON — The fourth grade contributed $1.60 made from their toy show January 13, to the local March of Dimes. The room has been studying Eskimos and has made an Eskimo mural. They plan to present a play, with Carolyn Adams announcing. Sharon Hansen will give a reading, "An Eskimo and I."

The grade school Cubs have been invited to play in the Lebanon invitational tournament next week. They are also invited to the George Fox college tournament at Newberg March 2, 3 and 4.

Don Reed attended the Marion county "B" league meeting Wednesday night, helping plan the baseball schedule for spring and county basketball tournament at Willamette university February 17, 18, 22 and 23.

The budget committee meeting with the school board Monday night did not complete the budget and another meeting of the group is called for Friday night to complete the budget. Don Reed and Pat Beal will attend an all-day education conference at the University of Oregon Saturday, staying over for the Oregon - Washington basketball game that evening.

The FFA basketball team will play Albany here Monday night, January 30, at 7:30.

Proceeds, less expenses, from Tuesday's double header game between the Lions and Deaf school A and B teams here will be given to the local March of Dimes. High school students will be charged 10 cents for this game. First game begins at 7:30 p. m.

Next Tuesday morning the chairman of the budget committee, Joe Vasek, Varion Goin, chairman of the board of education and Pat Beal, school superintendent, will present the local school budget to the county rural school board for zone 3 at a meeting at Cloverdale school.

The film, "Green Pastures in Oregon," was shown Thursday morning to grades 5 to 8, and to the agriculture classes.
