

Annual Dinner On Tuesday

One of the larger affairs of the coming week will be the annual YWCA membership dinner meeting in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock.

The guest speaker will be Mrs. Wilson Compton, wife of the president of Washington State college, who will be the house guest of Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand during her stay here. Singing will be by Betty Starr Anderson, who will be accompanied by Miss Alice Cray Brown.

Mrs. A. A. Schramm, president of the YWCA board, will preside and also introduce the new staff members at an informal reception preceding the dinner. They include Miss Gertrude Acheson, executive secretary; Miss Joyce Lamoreaux, program director for young adults; and Miss Norma Wallace, director of the younger girls program.

At the meeting election of board members will be held. To be re-elected to the board are Mrs. Schramm, Mrs. John Caughell and Mrs. Carlton J. McLeod. New members to be elected are Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, Mrs. Wallace Carson and Mrs. William C. Crothers.

Snikpoh Play to Be February 10

"Years Ago", a comedy of the early 1900s, by Ruth Gordon, is the title of this year's Snikpoh play to be presented in the Salem high school auditorium February 10. Miss Gordon is also the author of "Adam's Rib."

Sue Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Perry, occupies the leading role in the comedy as Ruth Gordon Jones, a 16-year-old stage-struck girl. Robert Chivers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred F. Chivers, is Papa Jones and John Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross H. Wood, plays Katherine Follett.

Myrtle Clemons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Fluit, is Anna Witham; Fred Whitmarsh is played by Richard Geer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Geer; Don Davis, son of the E. V. Davises, is cast as Mr. Sparrow; Robert Doughton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston F. Doughton, is Mr. Bagley; and Bill Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Macy Rogers, takes the part of Miss Gavin.

Director of "Years Ago" is Miss Margaret Burroughs, drama instructor at the high school. Miss Lella Johnson, mathematics instructor, is the business manager.

Tickets will go on sale Monday, February 6, in the center hall of the school and all seats will be reserved. Patrons may secure tickets by phoning the high school and having them held.

Salem Central WCTU will meet Tuesday afternoon in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church at 2 o'clock. Mrs. H. R. Mitchell will lead the devotions. Guest speaker will be Miss Margaret Leonard, assistant to Rev. Lloyd Anderson of the First Baptist church, who will talk on "Decline or Deliverance." All interested persons are invited to attend.

Spinsters will meet Monday night at the home of Miss Patricia Viesko on South High street at 7:30 o'clock. Assisting hostesses are Mrs. Robert Elgin and Mrs. Roger M. Schnell. A white elephant sale will be a feature of the evening.

THE ART WORLD

An exhibition of oils and tempera by Beatrice Appia, woman painter of France, is now being shown at the Elfstrom galleries. The exhibit came directly from Paris and the 22 pieces depict the countryside of France, and seasons of the southern part of the country. Miss Marion Morange of Willamette university, who studied in France, is a friend of the painter and was instrumental in securing the show for Salem.

The paintings will remain on exhibition until February 18.

Church Groups Will Meet

SILVERTON—The Zion circle of the Immanuel Lutheran church will meet Tuesday afternoon in the Fireside room of the church with Mrs. George Anderson and Mrs. Sam Baller as hostesses. Immanuel Ladies Aid will meet Thursday at 2 o'clock with Mrs. L. Rogdeberg and Mrs. Hannah Thompson as hostesses.

Mrs. Nels Langsev and Mrs. Ingeborg Ormbrek will be hostess for Trinity Ladies Aid society at Trinity church at 2 p. m. Wednesday, February 1, and Mrs. Hans Olsen and Mrs. I. W. Hattberg will be hostesses at the Hattberg home, Friday night, February 3, to Trinity Dorcas society.

Unit Leaders to Learn Lessons

Eleanor Trindle, Marion county home extension agent, will hold two meetings this week to make preliminary plans for the better dress workshops in March. These meetings will be held at Miss Trindle's home at 1965 South Commercial street January 31 and February 3 at 1:30 p. m. Two representatives from each of Marion county's 28 home extension units will attend. Sending representatives on January 31 are: Sidney Talbot, Central Howell, North Howell, Stayton, West Woodburn, North Santiam, Mehama, Donald, Aumsville, Hayesville, Lansing Neighbors, East Salem, Union Hill and Four Corners. On February 3 women will come from Hubbard, Turner, Silvertown Hills, Trinity, Marion, Clearlake, Pratum, Macleay, Thomas, Silvertown, Edina Lane and Lancaster.

The women attending will serve as project leaders and conduct better dress workshops in their own units during March.

MT. ANGEL — The Trinity Lutheran Ladies Aid society will meet on February 1 at 2 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Lyle Landsem. The society will be under the direction of the new president, Mrs. Herman Goschie, and the pastor will hold the opening devotion and also lead in the educational topic. One of the aims of the group now is to acquire a carpet for the new church. Its total financial assistance to the congregation, including its mission and charitable offerings, amounted to $1,572 last year. It has a membership of 44.

Seen and Heard...

By JERYME ENGLISH

HOME AGAIN . . . Arriving in Salem this morning by train are the L. V. Bensons and Glenn McCormicks, who have been sojourning in Honolulu and the other Hawaiian islands the past few weeks . . . They made the trip both ways on the Lurline and when docking in Los Angeles were welcomed by the Harry Schenks, former Salem residents, who will home the first of March . . . The Merrill Ohlings, who flew over to Hawaii several weeks ago arrived before the other two couples, so were on hand to greet them with the traditional Hawaiian leis . . . The three couples spent several days seeing the sights together . . .

Also due home this morning are Ted and Mae Chambers, who have been gone a month. They went by train to New York City, Washington, D. C. and Florida . . . then took a plane over to Nassau for a week's sojourn and we understand Mrs. Chambers has a grand tan . . . They came home the southern route by way of Texas and New Orleans . . . As a welcome home party Miss Dorathia Steustoff will entertain at dinner today for the entire Chambers family . . . Richard and Kay and their three children and Doug and Vivian and their three sons . . .

The Robert Josephs arrived home during the week from a trip south to San Francisco and the Monterey peninsula . . . Highlight of their trip was the Bing Crosby tournament and seeing the beautiful Pebble Beach, Cypress Point and Monterey golf courses, all over looking the ocean with gorgeous panoramic views . . . In Pebble Beach the sun was so warm that Peg got a sun tan . . . Once on the 18th green Bob and Peg were standing next to Bing Crosby and exchanged a few words . . . Esther Williams, the movie star, who was official scorekeeper for Sam Snead, is as pretty and as attractive as her pictures according to Peg . . . her husband, Ben Gage, also played in the tourney . . . In Monterey the Josephs visited Major and Mrs. Howard Adams and in the bus depot who did they accidentally meet but Frank Cross, who now lives in the peninsula city . . . He and Helen say they will never live any place else, they have really fallen in love with the place . . . In San Francisco the Josephs saw a television show being made and also saw basketball, hockey and other games on television screens.

Following the sun . . . Planning to leave Wednesday for the south will be the Arnold Kruegers . . . their first stop will be San Francisco then Los Angeles . . . Palm Springs is their destination, where they will sojourn for several weeks . . . they will be home the first of March . . .

A GRAND SUCCESS . . . That is the consensus of members of the newly organized Tuxedo club, which held its first dinner dance a week ago at the American Legion club . . . Unbelievable . . . everyone arriving on time (eight o'clock) . . . and dinner served promptly at 8:30 . . . A grand orchestra and only one or two couples sitting out a dance at a time . . . a congenial crowd and membership limited to fifty couples . . .

Among those present . . . Mrs. S. D. Wiles in a becoming ice blue satin strapless gown . . . Mrs. Horace McGee in a good-looking black gown accented with gold brocade and lace bands on the bodice and pockets . . . Mrs. P. H. Brydon attractive in a mist blue taffeta with sequin trim . . . Mrs. Black velvet for Mrs. C. Ronald Hudkins . . . Pretty Mrs. Maynard Shiffer in a frost green taffeta with tangerine bow at the neckline and cascading to the hemline . . . Black with a chartreuse and black print bodice for Mrs. William Crothers, who had a breakfast party for over thirty following the dance . . .

The new short length . . . chosen by several and most becoming . . . Mrs. Forrest Bodmer in black velvet . . . the off-shoulder neckline and ankle length skirt scalloped . . . and mitts to match . . . Mrs. Al Shaeffer's day length evening gown of quilted ice blue satin . . . and Mrs. George Terry Hill distinctive in a black ballarina length gown . . . off-shoulder with one strap and a red flower at the waist . . .

FASHION FOCUS . . . Seen at the bank one day blonde Joan Voigt smartly dressed in a grey princess style coat with grey Persian lamb trim and carrying a barrel muff of the same fur . . . her hat, shoes and gloves all of grey . . . At State and Liberty . . . A chic twosome in red coats . . . Mrs. Leon Perry and Mrs. W. T. Waterman . . . the latter's coat a shortie . . . Adding a bright note of color while walking in the rain or "slush" . . . Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr. in a portrait blue raincoat and parasol style umbrella, a Christmas gift from her husband . . . A symphony in black was Mrs. Brown E. Sisson in from Lebanon for the day . . . The Sissons hope to come back to Salem in the spring and take an apartment . . . good news for their many friends here. EXTORTIONAL TEA . . . a week ago when blonde Betty Childs, who has been making her home in Portland for several years, revealed her engagement to a Salem man, who is also living in Portland, Frederick G. Bradshaw . . . The news was told at a tea at the beautiful Alameda home of Mrs. Francis Kern in Portland with Miss Childs and her mother, Mrs. Leo Childs, assisting hostesses . . . A number of Salem people motored down for the event, but found the Alameda hills pretty slick and icy . . . but they all made it with some assistance now and then . . . A very spring like atmosphere inside . . . violets, roses, bouvardia, freesias and daffodils for the decor . . . all artistically arranged by Mrs. Kern . . .

Receiving . . . Betty in a becoming quaint style gown of grey brocade taffeta with full gathered skirt with folds at the side and a portrait style neckline with stand-up collar . . . Mrs. Childs choosing violet with pink camellias and the benedict-elect's mother, Mrs. Frederick O. Bradshaw, in navy blue and corsage of pink camellias . . . Foursome . . . two from Salem . . . Mrs. Duane Gibson in a purple crepe gown with pink hat and Mrs. H. G. Maison in navy blue . . . Betty has just little over a month to complete her trousseau shopping and there will be a round of parties in her honor both in Portland and Salem . . . The popular young couple will exchange their vows in Salem on March 4 at the First Presbyterian church.

An auction was the event of the Thursday evening meeting of the Hollywood Merry-Ro-Round club when they met at the home of Mrs. Harold Holler on Sunnyview avenue. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Rex Peffer, Mrs. Sam Rehfeld, Mrs. Paul Barham, Mrs. Oscar Forgard, Mrs. Clayton Gibb, Mrs. Ed Curtis, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. Ernest Cronm, Mrs. Gordon Brecoff, and the hostesses, Mrs. Lloyd Laudie and Mrs. Harold Holler.

Mrs. George Schwarz will open her North Capitol street home to the Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae on Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Charles Heltzel will be the assisting hostess. Any new Thetas in Salem are invited to attend and are asked to call Mrs. Donald Fisher for transportation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Price of The Pas, Manitoba, are visiting for a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Arneson. Mrs. Price was Miss Eileen Dewart before her marriage, and was a nurse at Salem Memorial hospital.

HELPERS HOLD MEETING — BRUSH COLLEGE—Brush College Helpers met at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Carlson January 26. Mrs. Frank Kron and Mrs. Karl Harritt were co-hostesses for the 1:30 dessert luncheon. Mrs. Karl Harritt led the devotions and the program was sponsored by Mrs. W. Lantis. Guest was Mrs. Tuit of Kentucky who will be with her daughter, Mrs. Carlson.
