

C of C Installs New Officers At Silverton

Statesman News Service
SILVERTON—New officers of Silverton's Chamber of Commerce were installed at the organization's annual oyster dinner Monday.

Taking office were Roy Davernport, president; Victor Sather, secretary; and William Miles, treasurer. Allen Gribble, past state president, was installing officer. Allen Foster and Ab Brourbonnias are directors for three-year terms.

New committeemen are: Ways and means, Ralph Bauer, Brourbonnias; Arthur Gottenberg, Louis Jory, O. W. Olson, Clayton Miller, William Jones and Kenneth Coombes; river pollution, Dr. Loar; fish and game, Clark Bachman, Miles Tobias; legislative, Alf O. Nelson, Reber Allen, Allen Gribble and George Christianson; soil conservation, Harry Riches, Alfred Jensen; entertainment, Otto Dahl, William Block; building, Olum Larson, Arthur Gottenberg, Allen Foster, Lloyd Mosier; publicity, George M. Christianson.

Mrs. Allen Gribble was installed as new auxiliary president; Mrs. Clark Bachman, vice-president; Mrs. Ab Brourbonnias, secretary; and Mrs. Arthur Gottenberg, treasurer.

Dr. David Charlton spoke on river pollution and the Rogue river dam proposal. The state chamber spent $200 fighting the dam legislation.

Lawrence Larson, Silverton chef, and his committee served the oyster dinner.

Christian Church Circle Holds Meet at Amity

Statesman News Service
AMITY—Lydia circle of the Christian church held its January meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Silhavy south of Amity.

A covered dish luncheon was served at noon. Mrs. James Wells conducted the devotionals.

ALTAR MEET POSTPONED

SILVERTON—Santa Monica's Altar society and Sunday night's card party at St. Paul's Catholic parish were postponed until the weather is more favorable. An old time dance is scheduled for February 18 at the parish hall if weather permits by that time. Ebans Brothers orchestra will furnish the music for this.

MRS. BURRIER IMPROVED

SILVERTON—Mrs. Arnold Burrier, secretary of the Silverton Woman's club, was reported improving in Silverton hospital where she has been confined with a sinus infection.

Valley Obituaries

E. C. (Bob) Milander

ALBANY—E. C. (Bob) Milander, former Albany resident, was killed in a plane crash at Chipley, Fla., January 18, his mother, Mrs. William Lucht of North Albany, learned this week. Surviving besides his mother is his wife; two daughters and a son; two brothers, John of California and Walter Milander of Albany, and a sister, Mrs. Frieda Barnes of Tangent.

Mrs. Idabel Weygandt

DALLAS—Funeral services for Mrs. Idabel Weygandt, 78, who died at her home here Sunday, will be held Thursday at 2:30 p.m. from the Henkle and Bollman chapel. The Rev. N. C. Swenson will officiate and burial will be in the IOOF cemetery. Mrs. Weygandt, a resident of Dallas for five years, was born near Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 18, 1871. She left Iowa in 1888 and had lived in Oregon since. She was a member of the Apostolic Faith church for 30 years. Surviving are her husband, Walter Weygandt of Dallas; a daughter, Villa Davis of Dallas, and three sisters, Mrs. Martha Brown, Maxwell, Iowa; Mrs. Frances McNutt, Salem, and Mrs. May Smith, Dallas.

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Hiebert

DALLAS—Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth E. Hiebert, 85, Pratum, will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. from the Evangelical Menomnie Brethren church with the Rev. A. P. Toews officiating. Interment will be in the Dallas IOOF cemetery. She died in Silverton Monday following a short illness. Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Helen Gossen, Dallas; Mrs. John Steiner, Silverton; and Mrs. Elizabeth Busselle, Portland; two sons, Pete of Dallas and Frank Hiebert of Dallas; a sister, Mrs. Nettie Wein, Salem; a brother, Peter D. Enns, Mt. Lake, Minn.; 15 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Richard William Wallinger

DALLAS—Funeral services for Richard William Wallinger, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Wallinger of Dallas, were held Monday from the Salt Creek Baptist church. The Rev. Emanuel Wolf, pastor, officiated, and interment was in the Dallas IOOF cemetery. Surviving besides the parents are a sister, Alice Lofe, and his grandmother, Mrs. Marie Wallinger, New Haven, Conn.

Income Tax Returns

Made Out By Consultant
J. W. Coburn

1570 Market Ph. 24548

Gervais Phone Company Elects 1950 Directors

Statesman News Service
GERVAIS—Members of the Gervais Cooperative Telephone association elected three directors for 1950 in a meeting Monday.

Keizer School Filling Boxes For Europe

By Ralph Broadston and Merritt Linn
Statesman News Service
KEIZER—Keizer grade school pupils are now busy filling gift boxes for the Junior Red Cross European relief project. Each room has at least one box to fill.

A successful March of Dimes drive at the school ended Tuesday.

The new west wing of the school opened last week, providing five classrooms, a supply room and a teachers' room.

Members of the safety patrol engaged in a basketball tournament last week. Winners were Mrs. MacNamara's fifth grade, Mrs. Evans' sixth grade and Mrs. Carmalita Weddle's eighth grade.

Mrs. Goddard's eighth grade pupils were rewarded with a skating party at the North Salem Rollerdom for selling the most subscriptions in a recent magazine drive.

MRS. WARNER ILL

SILVERTON—Mrs. Albert Warner, who lives on a small ranch between Silverton and Salem, was taken to St. Vincent's hospital at Portland this week for observation. She has been at a Salem hospital for some time but her physicians advised specialized attention.

GREEKS WELCOME GRADY—Henry F. Grady, U. S. Ambassador to Greece, is carried shoulder-high by Greeks on his arrival at Salonika for a week-long lecture tour of their country.

Auburn Cub Committee Has Monthly Meet

Statesman News Service
AUBURN—The Cub scout committee meeting which is held each month on the Monday night following the monthly pack meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loran Richey on Monroe avenue.

Committee members present were E. C. Sunderlin, Mrs. Douglas Freeburn, Charles Barney, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Prunk and Mrs. Richey. Plans for the February 24 meeting were made.

The "Blue and Gold" banquet will be held and all work of the Cubs this month will be in preparation for the dinner. The Cubs will make the decorations; the den mothers plan the meal, and Ted Lannigan will act as program chairman.

Valley Births

Statesman News Service
SILVERTON—Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lais of Hubbard are parents of a new son born Wednesday, February 1, at Silverton hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Williamson of Salem are parents of a new daughter born at Silverton hospital Wednesday, February 1.

MARY SWIGART HONORED

EUGENE—One of 87 freshmen women on the University of Oregon campus who was invited to the Smarty party given Tuesday is Mary Swigart, daughter of J. F. Swigart, 1485 S. Liberty st., Salem. The annual Smarty party is given by Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, for all freshmen women receiving a grade point average of at least a 3.00 for fall term. Miss Swigart is majoring in music.

New Silverton Pastor Will Arrive Feb. 12

Statesman News Service
SILVERTON—The Rev. Joseph Luthro has written members of Trinity Lutheran congregation here that he will leave February 2 from Anchorage, Alaska.

He will drive over the Alaska highway, expecting to arrive at Silverton prior to February 12 for his installation here. He has been serving a congregation in Fairbanks, Alaska, for the past five years.

John L. Maakestad of Stanwood, Wash., had accepted the call to the Fairbanks congregation and would be installed there shortly. The Rev. Mr. Maakestad has a number of friends at Silverton.

Buena Vista Civic Group Makes Plans

Statesman News Service
BUENA VISTA—The Buena Vista Woman's club met last week at the Community hall with Mrs. Howard Powers and Mrs. J. W. Graber as hostesses.

An invitation was read from the Monmouth Civic club asking the club to be their guests February 9. Alice Pendlebury, exchange student from England, will be the speaker. Members of the club and patrons of the Buena Vista school district are also invited to meet Monmouth and Independence patrons at the Monmouth public school auditorium at 8 p.m. February 8.

Problems of interest to the new high school union district will be discussed by Dr. Julio Bortolazzo of Jefferson high school in Portland; Dr. Wendell Van Loan, superintendent of Corvallis schools; and Ray Hardman of the Corvallis schools. The February 1 meeting was postponed till February 8.

Those present were Mesdames Milo Graber, Leland Prather, Clyde Wallis, William Short, John Schirman, Luther Osborn, Harold Busby, Victor Bride, Cecil Hultman, Fred Detering, Joans Graber, Gilbert Loy, Raymond Hall, Elmer Busby, Orville Wells, Harold Withrow and Howard Powers.

Mrs. Allie McLaughlin, who has been a guest at a Salem hospital for the past three months, returned to her home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallie Grieb arrived from Denver, Colo., recently to make their home in Oregon. Mrs. Grieb is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Long.

Mill City Brothers On Same Transport

Statesman News Service
STAYTON—Word was received last week by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Payton from the navy department that their son, John, has been assigned to the transport USS Gen. H. W. Butler.

Another son, Alan, in the navy since 1937, is on the same ship. Alan completed two years of recruiting duty at Salt Lake City last September 1. His brother

Valley Briefs

Frutland—Mrs. Roy W. Barber returned home Tuesday from Silverton hospital where she was under observation and treatment for several days.

Macleay—A meeting of Macleay Grange, scheduled for Friday night, has been postponed until further notice is made.

Clear Lake—The Clear Lake Community club meeting scheduled for February 5 has been postponed indefinitely.

Amity—Mrs. C. G. Mack, formerly of Amity, suffered an ankle fracture at her home in Denver, Colo., and will be forced to wear a cast until March.

Orchard Heights—A pie social will be held Friday at 8 p.m. in the Popcorn school with funds from the sale going to the Summit Sunday school. Polk County Judge Hayes will speak on his recent trip to Europe.

Pedee—Mrs. Sidney Howard suffered a severe burn on her left forearm and hand Sunday when she spilled a pan of boiling water.

Pedee—The Rev. Fred C. Durdie attended the Washington-Oregon Evangelical United Brethren ministers' mid-winter conference in Eugene last week.

Pedee—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Burbank, Lyle and Eldon of Portland spent the week end with their daughter, Mrs. Francis Dyer and family.

Ilanha—Jon Tucker, son of Sol Tucker, is recovering in Salem Memorial hospital from a leg fracture suffered in a fall from a horse Saturday.

Lincoln—The February meeting of the Lincoln home extension unit has been postponed because of weather conditions.

Lincoln—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Williams, formerly of Lincoln, have moved to their new home in San Diego. A brother, Charles Williams, returned home after accompanying them to California.

John, was the last recruit he signed on before leaving for sea duty again.

Flax Growers Cancel Meet At Jefferson

Statesman News Service
JEFFERSON—The annual meeting of the Santiam Flax Growers has been postponed one week, until February 8.

David Arnold and Norman Cole have enlisted in the army air corps and are stationed at San Antonio, Texas. Also signing up and leaving soon to join the army air corps at San Antonio are Jerry Higgins, Bobby Higgins, Jim Sullivan, Lloyd Rosenau and Bob Brown. All of the boys are members of the 1949 high school graduating class.

A letter this week from the Karl Steiwers spending the winter at Indio, Calif., tells of Mrs. Steiwers stubbing her toe on a downtown sidewalk and breaking her arm. She was in the hospital a few days, but is now home at their Buena Vista Court cottage and is being cared for by Mr. Steiwer. They also write that his father, John Steiwer, 94, is critically ill at a Portland hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wied are parents of a daughter born January 31 at Albany General hospital. She weighed six pounds, 13 ounces, and is their first child.

Below zero weather here Monday night, froze and burst water pipes, and cancelled school and other meeting dates until the zero weather is over and highways are passable. From four to eight degrees below zero were reported at different hours.

Light travels about 5,880,000,000,000 miles in a year.

25 YEARS OF THE WORLD'S FINEST Business Engineering

GEORGE S. MAY COMPANY
Western Division
271 Gray Street, San Francisco 2, Calif.
Established 1925

WHY WAIT TILL USED CAR PRICES TUMBLE?

Trade now! Save $100 to $400 on this "better than ever" MERCURY!

HERE'S HOW EASY IT IS TO GET YOUR MERCURY

YOUR PRESENT CAR + AS LOW AS $49 A MONTH

COME IN FOR A SPECIAL APPRAISAL TODAY

You'd like to trade your old car for a brand new 1950 Mercury! Who wouldn't today!

But why wait until your old car drops another three or four hundred dollars in value? Trade now! Get the new 1950 Mercury you want! And get yourself a better deal in the bargain!

And what a value that new 1950 Mercury is. Better than ever in everything. Better in styling—inside and out. Better in comfort. Better in economy. Better in performance. Yes, and even better than ever in that famous Mercury dependability, too.

You couldn't ask for a better buy—or a better time to buy it. So come in today. Get our special deal. Drive home your new 1950 Mercury—the best buy in the West!

NEW MERCURY VALUE, PLUS MERCURY DEPENDABILITY MAKES IT THE BEST BUY IN THE WEST!

WARNER MOTOR COMPANY
430 N. Commercial Street

Income Tax Returns Made Out By Consultant J. W. Coburn 1570 Market Ph. 24548