Scouts Hosts At Banquet At Willamina

Statesman News Service
WILLAMINA — Seventy-two Cub Scouts, parents and leaders attended the annual Blue and Gold banquet. Phil Frost, Yamhill county scout executive, was guest speaker. He commended the group on their activities and the parents for their cooperation with the committee and leaders.

Frost also spoke briefly on the national Boy Scout jamboree. He told the group it was an honor to have Scoutmaster J. A. Jensen, Jr., chosen as a representative to the jamboree, as in Portland area only 33 leaders were chosen out of 5,000.

Al Newton, program chairman, introduced Pack Committee Chairman Al Yoast, who presented the following Scouts with badges they had earned: Danny Kihlstedt and Kenneth Turner, wolf badges; Lee Hirn, bear badge and gold arrow; Jerry Spencer and Stephen Yoast, gold arrows; Lee Baxter, gold and silver arrows; and Donnie Wright, lion badge.

New Scouts entering the pack Friday evening were Edward Earley, Lee Roy Stevens and Larry Drill. Boy Scout Rollin Hines received them into the pack. Rollin Hines and Bill Yoast are den chiefs.

Flax Growers Vote to Keep On With Quality Production

MT. ANGEL — Mt. Angel, the flax city, demonstrated its faith in the flax program Thursday night, when local growers voted without dissent to continue raising flax of ever-improving quality and to keep the local plants in operation.

One grower said: "We won't gain anything by delaying getting into this new graded flax business." Growers were assured that if the crop was not large enough to warrant operation of the local plant, it would be taken over by the state.

Giving a cross-section picture of the flax outlook as it appears today were State Budget Director Harry Dorman of Salem, Ray Smith, St. Paul, vice-chairman of the flax and linen board, and Lester Bunning, St. Paul, flax field man. All offered their help.

Mill to Open At Silvertown

Statesman News Service
SILVERTON — Evans sawmill at Silvertown will resume operations Monday on a full scale run. This will end a two months' shut down because of snow which interfered with logging operations.

The mill men in this area are of the opinion that logging and lumbering should be very good in the valley during the coming year.

BLOOD-COLLECTION UNIT

WILLAMINA — An urgent need for the donation of blood exists locally, according to S. James Osborne, executive secretary of the Yamhill county chapter of the American Red Cross, which is bringing the bloodmobile unit to Willamina on Friday, March 3.

The unit will be at the Rebekah hall on that date between the hours of 2 to 6 p. m. Local sponsors are Kiwanis club, the Civic club and the VFW post.

Prospective donors are urged to register before the unit's visit at Newby's Pharmacy, Willamina clinic, Willamina department store or Robertson's grocery.
