Carrying the red and white silks of Charles S. Howard into the winner's circle for the third time in this classic of the turf. the dark wonder from Ireland came from behind to deal out a convincing defeat to the standard bearer of the feared Calumet

For what salve there was for the big three, Citation got sec-ond, Two Lea third and Ponder fourth as 11 candidates set out on the mile and one quarter grind. This was small satisfaction, however, because the three had been picked in some quarters to grab the top three spots and walk away with the entire purse. The Howard five-year-old hit the wire in new track record time of 2 minutes flat for the distance. Oddly enough it broke the record set 10 years ago by another great Howard horse, mighty old Seabiscuit, in capturing this same race. The Biscuit's time that momentous day was 2:01 1/5.

There was delight for the Noor backers, too, as he paid off $14.80, $2.10 and $2.10 across the board. There was gloom for the cinch bettors who picked the entry of Citation, Ponder and Two Lea to win. The entry paid off the least possible price for place and show
