

New Minister Never to Hear Congregation

NEW YORK (INS)—The Rev. Dr. Edwin W. Nies, a practicing dentist who is totally deaf, was ordained to the priesthood recently at the Church of St. Mark's-in-the-Bowery, by the Right Rev. Horace W. B. Donegan, Bishop Coadjutor of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New York.

The service was simultaneously translated into the sign language for the benefit of those present who were deaf.

Dr. Nies, a member of the class of 1911 of Gallaudet college, the world's only college for the deaf, was born in New York City and became deaf in childhood from spinal meningitis. After taking a BA degree from Gallaudet, he studied dentistry at the dental school of the University of Pennsylvania, graduating in 1914. Since then he has been engaged in private practice in New York.

Dr. Nies always has been actively interested in church work. For many years he served as a lay reader at St. Ann's Church for the Deaf in New York, the first church of its kind in the world. He was ordained to the Diaconate by the Right Rev. Charles K. Gilbert, Bishop of the Diocese of New York, last June.

The Nies service marked the first ordination by Bishop Donegan of a candidate for the New York Diocese, and the first time in twenty-six years that there has been an ordination for the specialized ministry to the deaf in the diocese.
