

Grade School Plans Show For Keizer

Statesman News Service
KEIZER—Ralph Nelson announced the talent show to be given by school children Friday, March 17. Funds from the show will be for the purchase of musical instruments for the school. Plans are underway to arrange authorized polling stations within the district where voters may register for coming elections. Polls will close April 15, for voting in the May election. Refreshments were served by fifth grade mothers with Mrs. Andrew Beasley, Mrs. Hobart Jackson, Mrs. Karl Murphy, Mrs. Max Clark, Mrs. Wesley Gregg and Mrs. Wright Noel on the committee.

Church Elects New Leaders At Turner

TURNER—The missionary circle of the Turner Christian church met recently in the church parlor, with 18 present. As the study of the day was on home missions, the offering of $13.54 was given to Gertrude Reasoner, who is teaching religious classes to released students of the schools every Thursday. Future meetings of the missionary group will be held the fourth Thursday of every month. Don Teagarden of Eugene will again bring the gospel message at the Christian church Sunday. Mr. Teagarden has supplied here for the past two weeks. The pulpit committee has engaged Mr. Guy Armstrong of Glendale, Oregon, to preach the following Sunday, March 19. At the regular meeting of the Turner Christian board meeting, Robert Hendershot was elected to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mr. Albert Keppell as a trustee of the church. She Farrell and M. C. Farrell were elected deacons and Mrs. Guy Shields was elected deaconess. These members will serve until the next annual election. The board made plans for a fellowship dinner to be held in the church dining room March 31. Mrs. Guy Shields was appointed chairman of the program committee and Mrs. Bob Hendershot was made chairman of the refreshment committee.

Four Corners Firemen Hosts To Association

Statesman News Service
FOUR CORNERS—Four Corners volunteer firemen held open house Wednesday evening for the Marion County Fire Fighters association. Fire Chief W. R. Gould of the local firemen welcomed the visitors and introduced the speaker of the evening, Roland Blantz. Bill Cartright and his troop of amateurs took those present back to other days with their rendition of the almost extinct "medicine show." A "crab feed" was served by the local unit to all present.

Theatre Sold At Jefferson

Statesman News Service
JEFFERSON—Bob Halliday has sold his Mint theatre here and the theatre at Monroe and Ales to Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Bronson of Astoria who have already taken possession. The Bronsons and their son Lewis will move here. The Mint theatre will be closed until March 31 for improvement. A ramp will be put in the floor and lobby and aisle will be carpeted and new seats added. Bronson is also planning to put in new sound projectors to improve sound of movies. Halliday will go to work for a theatre company in Washington.
