

The three Leon Perry boys are together constantly and are always off on their bicycles to the neighbors, to a show, to school or to their grandparents. Left to right are Stephen, Dennis and David (Kennell-Ellis candid)

Jeanne Foster Tells Troth . . .

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Wedding bells will ring in the late spring for pretty, brunette Jeanne Marie Foster, whose parents, Colonel and Mrs. Eugene I. Foster, are announcing their only daughter's engagement this weekend to Clyde G. Herr, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Herr of Watsonville, Calif. The bride-elect, who has been living in San Francisco the past year and a half, and her fiance revealed their betrothal to a group of their friends in the bay area at a party Saturday night.

The couple met while attending high school at Watsonville, when Colonel Foster was commander at Camp McQuaide. The bride-to-be attended the University of Southern California and the University of Oregon. Her sorority is Kappa Alpha Theta. She is a graduate of the Rudolph Schaefer School of Design in San Francisco and presently is employed at the H. Liebes Co. as assistant buyer in the baby and teen-age department.

Mr. Herr received his degree at Pomona college and during the war served in the naval air corps. He is now in partnership with his father in the wholesale bakery business in Watsonville, where the couple will live following their marriage.

Mrs. Foster plans to go south on Wednesday on the Shasta Daylight to spend a week with her daughter and to make preliminary plans for the wedding.

Bridal Party Selected . . .

Invitations were in the mail this week to the wedding of Miss Shirlee Reimann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo D. Reimann, and William A. Green, son of Lester M. Green of Portland, formerly of Eugene, which will take place on Friday, March 24 at the First Baptist church. Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson will officiate at the nuptials, which will be followed by a reception in the church parlors.

Mr. Reimann will give his daughter in marriage and she has asked her sister, Mrs. Oscar C. Christensen, Jr. (Mary Reimann) to be her matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Mary Louise Lee, Miss Jerry Trapman and Mrs. Lester D. Green (Marylou McKay), the latter two Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sisters of the bride-to-be. Lighting the candles will be Miss Louise Westgate, a sorority sister, and Miss Bernice Imlah.

Lester D. Green will stand with his brother as best man and ushers will be Ronald Johnson of Pendleton, Eddie Peterson, a Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity brother, and Oscar C. Christensen, jr.

A favorite pastime after school for the Donald Burke sons, Kerry and Jimmy, is drawing and painting. Jimmy draws model cars to scale, while Kerry has more fun coloring . . . Both are students at Sacred Heart Academy. (Kennell-Ellis candid.)

Dances Slated . . .

Two club dances are on the social agenda for Friday night. Cama club members will hold a dance at the Crystal Gardens ballroom with Claude Bird's orchestra playing between 9 and 12:30 o'clock. A snack bar will precede the dance and the committee in charge includes Mrs. Arnold Jarvis, Mrs. Leonard Gottfried, Mrs. Louis Cross, Mrs. Donald Stepp, Mrs. Earl Viesko, Mrs. Frank Gerdon, Mrs. Robert Irwin and Mrs. Robert Green. The host committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ramage and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Geer.

Bon Heur Dance

Bon Heur club will entertain with a St. Patrick's dance on Friday night at the Veteran's hall. Wayne Strachan's orchestra will play between 9 and 12 o'clock. The committee for the evening includes Mr. and Mrs. Harold McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Philippe, Mr. and Mrs. Max G. Scriber, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Welling and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Sientz.

Brothers And Sports..

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

Jim and Gene Bowers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bowers, are anticipating the opening of the coming fishing season and are pictured here with their poles and equipment seeing that all is in order for opening day. (Kennell-Ellis candid.)

Scott and Stanley Page have several hobbies, which they enjoy after school hours with a game of badminton always a favorite before dinner or in the early evening hours. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. U. Scott Page. Scott is attending Salem high school and his brother is a Leslie Junior high student. (Kennell-Ellis candid.)

A group of Salem women will be in Portland Wednesday to attend the spring fashion luncheon and table setting display at the Cosmopolitan club. The benefit affair is being sponsored by the Portland Jayceettes for the Portland Symphony orchestra fund. Among those who have made reservations from here are Mrs. Grant Rogers, Mrs. David H. Cameron, Mrs. Carl W. Emmons, Mrs. W. L. Lewis, Mrs. Ralph Schlesinger and Mrs. Sol Schlesinger.

The Social Whirl . . .

On the social agenda for this week are informal luncheons, dinners and at homes.

Mrs. Arthur Jones will entertain in the first of a series of parties on Tuesday afternoon at her Belmont street home for a group of her friends. Guests have been bidden to a one o'clock luncheon with covers placed for 12 and bridge will be in play following.

A Bridal Luncheon

Mrs. Wayne Loder will be a luncheon hostess on Wednesday afternoon at her Morningstar home for the pleasure of Miss Patricia Vandeneynde, spring bride-elect of Ted E. Reed.

Covers will be placed for Miss Vandeneynde, her mother, Mrs. Gene Vandeneynde, and sister, Mrs. John Steelhammer, Mrs. Robert Needham, Mrs. Vernon Drey, Mrs. Peter Geiser, Mrs. Leonard Hicks, Mrs. Byron Menis, Mrs. Carlton McLeod, Mrs. Merle Brown and the hostess.

Open House Slated

Invitations were in the mail this last week to an open house for which members of Beta Phi chapter of Delta Gamma sorority on the Willamette university campus will be hostesses on Sunday, March 19 between 3 and 8 o'clock at their Court street house. Miss Patricia Parsons is general chairman of the affair.

The creekside home of Dr. and Mrs. Jerald S. Backstrand offers much opportunity for their sons to play a game of baseball on the closed in front lawn. Here are Elliott, Jim and Jay just before going in for dinner after a game. (Kennell-Ellis candid.)

When not in school Tom and Bruce Patterson practice basketball by the side of their South Church street home, where they have a backboard on the garage. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. Deane Patterson and Tom is manager of the Leslie Junior high team. (Kennell-Ellis candid.)