

Engagement of Couple Told

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thompson of Highland Park, New Jersey, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Susanna DeVoe, to George C. Huggins, jr., Salem, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Huggins of Coos Bay.

Miss Thompson is a graduate of Duke university, where she was a member of Delta Delta corority. She is now teaching health and physical education in the Marshfield junior high school, Coos Bay.

Mr. Huggins is a veteran of the naval air corps and a graduate of the University of Oregon, where he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He is presently with the Huggins insurance firm in Salem.

An early fall wedding is planned by the engaged duo.

Chi Omega alumnae will be entertained Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Robert Moe, 3460 Center street, with Mrs. George L. Hill as co-hostess at 8 o'clock. At the business meeting plans will be discussed for the spring project of the group and a late supper will be served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Karl Becke will be hostess to members of the Modern Drama class at a dessert supper Tuesday

Coeds Plan Hawaii Trip

Salem coeds are interested to learn that plans are now underway for a 1950 tour of the Hawaiian islands and a summer session at the University of Hawaii. Five Salem coeds made the trip last summer. The tour begins June 26 when they board a Pan American plane for the islands and will return the middle of August on the Matson liner, Lurline. Mrs. Myra Roach, Gamma Phi Beta housemother at the University of Oregon, states that a limited number of openings are available.

Auxiliary to Plan Tea

Salem Memorial hospital auxiliary will meet at the chapel Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for the regular meeting. All auxiliary members are invited to attend. Mrs. P. W. Geiser is chairman of the tea committee and assisting are Mrs. Adam Hertz, Mrs. J. P. Hayward, Mrs. H. A. Cross and Mrs. L. F. Heuperman. A board meeting was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Edward Goeckner on Wednesday when preliminary plans were made for the annual spring silver tea for which the auxiliary members will be hostesses on April 20 at the Orchard Heights home of Dr. and Mrs. Willard N. Thompson.
