Midway Point Gained In Annual Tourney

The Salt Lake City (Murray Buick) colorbearer, manned by former Utah university case experts, ran up a 92-55 triumph against Elizabeth N. J. (St. Adalberts), Leon Watson rattled off 25 tallies for the winners.

The second game was a better contest for non-partisan spectators to watch, Seattle (Alpine Dairy) outscoring Laramie, Wyo. (Kuster Hotel), 52 to 41. Laramie had the top scorer with Bob Hatfield's 14 while Bob Gaston hit 12 for Seattle.

Scoring again hit a jet-propelled tempo in the third contest in which Los Angeles (Clifton) crushed a scrappy Arkansas State Teachers college team from Conway 83 to 58.

Allen-Bradley of Milwaukee, another seeded entry, had a close call before defeating Nebraska Wesleyan, 62-55. The Nebraskans led 32-30 at intermission, and Milwaukee didn't get the lead until seven minutes before the final whistle when Bob Davis' field goal put it in front, 42-42.

San Francisco's Stewart Chevroleters romped over Gordon Stores of Alamosa, Colo., 50-23. The low-scoring half ended 12-5 for San Francisco when Alamosa tried to pull its defense out by stalling in midcourt.

Canada Nears Hockey Title

LONDON, March 21 (AP)—Canada's favored sextet virtually clinched the world amateur hockey championship tonight by trouncing Britain, 12-0. The Canadians, only unbeaten team among the six finalists in the championship round robin series, notched their fourth victory in blanking the Britons.

It was Britain's second loss against two defeats and eliminated it from the race.
The United States' entry had only a bare chance of winning despite their 10-5 triumph over Switzerland earlier today. The Americans have a 3-1 record and at best can only tie Canada if the Canadians lose their final game and the Americans win.

Comeback Decision Due Boxing World Waits For Louis to Speak

NEW YORK, March 21 (AP)—Spring is in the air, summer is coming along with the fat outdoor-fight gates, and Joe Louis says he'll give the lowdown on his future intentions Saturday at Waco, Tex.

That's what the man said Monday night at Odessa, Tex. That's what the Brown Bomber has been saying, and the public has been reading and wondering about for many months.

Will Louis try to regain the world's heavyweight boxing crown from Ezzard Charles?

Paunchy Joe, who still can punch at 227 pounds, has been touting the wide open spaces, bowing over pugilists with one hand and collecting folding green from his exhibitions almost since June 25, 1948, when he announced his retirement with "tonight was my last fight."

That was immediately after he knocked out Jersey Joe Walcott. Since then his comeback has been on the verbal merry-go-round and now-he-said-it-and-now-he-didn't-for almost two years.

"And if Louis intends to fight Ezzard," croaked Jack Miska, "he'll just be part of the string." Miska refused to comment further on reports that Louis is ready to announce his intention of fighting his successor as heavyweight champion of the world (less N.Y. state).

EL PASO, Tex., March 21 (AP)—Marshall Miles, Joe Louis' manager, said today he wasn't so sure the former heavyweight boxing champion would be able to announce a "comeback" Saturday night at Waco.
Miles said he still needs to contact Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing club, regarding any such plan.
Louis has said he planned to make a definite decision on any "comeback" attempt and would announce it Saturday at Waco, last stop on his current exhibition tour. He's here for one of the exhibitions.
