

One Will Be Queen...

Outstanding event of the school year at Salem high school is the annual Civics club carnival and the climax of the evening will be the announcement of the queen, chosen from a field of eighteen princesses who are pictured on our page. Jim Roth, president of the Civics club, will crown the queen at the carnival Friday night. Above are four of the princesses, Jeanette Sullivan, who represents Commercial club; Joan Marie Miller, Girls Letter club; Betty Cooley, Tri-Y; and Nancy Miller, Philhistorian.

Tea to Fete Wives of Bar . . .

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Outstanding social event on the calendar for this week will be the informal tea at the Fairmount Hill home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding Thursday afternoon in compliment to the wives of the Marion county bar members. The tea will also be a get acquainted affair for the women and calling hours are from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Special guests at the tea will be wives of the board of governors of the state bar, who will be in Salem with their husbands for the annual meeting, and wives of the supreme court justices.

Mrs. Spaulding will greet guests at the door and introducing to the line will be Mrs. George Rhoten. Receiving will be Mrs. Wallace Carson, whose husband is president of the board of governors, Mrs. Norman Winslow, whose husband is president of the Marion county bar association, and Mrs. Hall S. Lusk, wife of the chief justice of the Oregon Supreme court.

Presiding at the tea urns the first hour will be Mrs. Rex Kimmell and Mrs. George R. Duncan, wives of the circuit judges, and Mrs. Douglas McKay and Mrs. Robert L. Elstrom will pour the last hour. Mrs. E. M. Page and Mrs. Frederick Lampert will invite guests into tea and in charge of the dining room will be Mrs. Paul Hendricks and Mrs. Donald A. Young.

Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. Bryan Goodenough, Mrs. John Heltzel, Mrs. Steve Anderson, Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. Urlin S. Page, Mrs. Allan Carson, Mrs. Lawrence Brown, Mrs. Peery T. Buren, Mrs. Lawrence Osterman, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. Charles Heltzel, Mrs. Edward O. Stadter, jr., Mrs. Reginald Williams, Mrs. Sam Speerstra, Mrs. W. W. McKinney and Mrs. Joseph Felton.

Leona Todd of the Latin club and Marlon Haering of the Palateers club, are two more of the eighteen princesses in the running for the Civics club carnival queen. Skits will be presented by the various clubs following the coronation.

To Honor Visitor . . .

Miss Gloria Spencer is entertaining as her house guest this weekend Miss Martha Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Walters of Portland. Miss Spencer and Miss Walters were classmates at St. Helen's hall and the latter is now a freshman at the University of Oregon. The visitor was here for the Freshman Glee presentation at Willamette university Saturday night.

This morning Miss Spencer, a freshman at Willamette, will entertain at a brunch at the Oak street home of her mother, Mrs. C. B. Spencer, for the pleasure of her house guest. Bidden to honor Miss Walters are a group of Willamette coeds including Miss Sue McElhinny, Miss Kathy Person, Miss Elizabeth Morley, Mrs. Amarylis Lilles, Miss Janet Rogers and Miss Bonnie Brown.

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

The princesses were caught by the photographer one day in their cotton dresses as a prelude to spring and going up the steps left to right are Edna Manning, Crescendo club; Jo Anne Maiek, Home Economics club; and Lajune Rahtz, French club. Leelyn Burdette is general chairman of the carnival with Bernice Imlach the co-chairman.

Four more candidates for the queen of the Civics club carnival, which will carry out the theme this year of "Fairyland Follies" are left to right, Pebble DeSart, who represents, Stage Craft club; Joy Curr, Hi-Y; Gwen Fry, Science club; and Alice Girod, S club.

Each princess will be presented singly on the Salem high school stage Friday night and among them will be left to right, Doris Lane, Vikettes; Beverly Folston, Spanish club; Mary Campbell, Que Dice; Bonnie Belle Stewart, Enikman staff photographer; and Margaret Bown, Aesculapians. (All candid photos by Don Dill, States-

Harriet Huston Engaged . . .

Taking the romantic spotlight today is attractive, brunette Harriet Huston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston, whose engagement to Richard William Laird, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Laird of Portland, was revealed at an informal tea on Saturday afternoon at the Huston's suburban home on North River road.

The wedding of the young couple, who have been a steady duo for sometime, will take place in August. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Salem schools and attended the University of Oregon. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority and the Spinsters.

Mr. Laird graduated from the University of Oregon in 1948 and his fraternity is Beta Theta Pi. For two years he served in the naval air corps. He is now engaged in the advertising business in Portland, where the couple will live following their marriage.

A few of the bride-elect's friends were bidden to the announcement tea with calling hours between 3:30 and 5 o'clock. Parchment scrolls, bearing the names of the engaged duo, were passed to the guests. Mrs. J. Lyman Steed presided at the tea and assisting were Miss Huston's two sisters, Miss Virginia, who is home from the University of Oregon and Mrs. Maurice Fitzsimmons, who is here visiting from Coos Bay (Picture on page 8).

Reveals Plans . . .

Attendants for the wedding of Miss Beverly Kenney, daughter of the Norman A. Kenneys, and Gerald Bull, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Bull, are being announced this weekend by the engaged couple. The ceremony will take place at the First Baptist church on Monday, April 10 with Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson officiating at 8 o'clock.

Miss Roseanne McMeekin will sing and Mrs. John M. Schmidt, jr. will be the organist. Lighting the tapers will be Miss Betty Twedt and Miss Doris Kimble.

The bride-elect has asked her sister, Mrs. Donald Johnson (Dorothy Kenney) of San Francisco to be her honor matron. Bridesmaids will be Miss Patricia Larson and Miss Lois Mulcahy.

Kenneth Bull will be here from Minneapolis to be his brother's best man and ushers include Darryl Willecke, Robert Guenther, Walter Judd and Donald Wagoner. A reception will follow in the church parlors.