Discussion on Program

"Our Business Relation" will be the theme of the panel discussion which will highlight the dinner meeting of Salem's Business and Professional Women's club, Tuesday night, March 28, in the Cave room of the Senator hotel. The subject, in keeping with the national program for the year, will be developed by three well-known Salem businessmen: Leo Page of the Ladd and Bush National bank will deal with financing and sources of capital; J. L. Franzen, Salem's city manager, will speak on rules and regulations of a city; O. E. Snyder, general manager of the Blue Lake cannery, will discuss needs and market demands. The program is arranged by the education committee co-chairman, Mrs. Agnes Booth, who will also introduce the speakers.

Twelve members of the Salem club motoring to Albany Sunday to attend the Central Willamette District conference of the state organization are: Miss Betty Eloffson, Mrs. Eugene Estes, Mrs. Mabel Clock, Miss Vada Hill, Mrs. Beryl Muehlaupt, Mrs. Marion Wooden, Mrs. Ora McKenzie, Mrs. Grace Clark, Miss Alberta Shoemaker, Mrs. Sue Booch, Mrs. John Versteeg and Miss Eleanor Roberts. Miss Aida Fabero, a Filipino student studying in Oregon on the state BPW Oriental scholarship fund, will be guest speaker at the conference.
