Early Morning Thought

Hearty Breakfast Is Something to Get Up for; Gardener Has Good Excuse

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Early morning sunshine will probably bring out many an early gardener these next few months. And with every spadeful of dirt moved, and every flower set into the ground the appetite for breakfast goes up another notch.

Breakfast is a lovely meal — at least that's what some of us contend.

Fresh fruit, eggs in some interesting way, richly browned toast or a hot bread and a steaming beverage tunes the human system to a fine day.

Eggs as a goldenrod are not a new dish, but a welcome one. Add-chopped hard cooked egg whites to a medium white sauce. Slice bread, butter well, and remove crusts, force the bread slices into muffin tins. Put the tins into the oven until bread toasts.

Fill toast cups with the egg-cream sauce mixture, sprinkle with the egg whites which have been sieved and sprinkle with a little paprika. Serve with bacon strips alongside.

We like the smell and the looks of a panfull of link sausages and bananas at breakfast time. The links are partially cooked, then the bananas are put alongside in the skillet. The lid is put on and the meat and fruit cooked until done. If necessary, pour off some of the grease as it forms.

There's no law against pampering one's whims at breakfast either. Personally, we like a nice French artichoke with melted butter in the morning. Like the down Easterners, we also can care for a wedge of cold fruit pie, or any other sweet for our morning meal.

In the old days, the farmer had his eggs and bacon, chops and hash browned potatoes, cereal and fruit, hot cakes and syrup, hot breads and honey for his morning meal, and if you're a modern farmer (anything from the manager of a 100 acre ranch to a postage stamp sized back yard garden) you too are entitled to a husky breakfast.

Breakfast in our opinion, is a meal to eat in a leisurely manner. Ten minutes earlier rising should be more than paid for in the pleasure of a hearty breakfast.

From Portland comes news of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Schroeder (Patricia Melsinger) on Saturday, March 25 at the Emanuel hospital. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wiltsey of Salem and Mrs. Herbert Schroeder of Mill City.

Rotary Women Hear Musical Program

By Jerry English
Statesman Society Editor

A musical program, presented by students of the Willamette University School of Music, was a highlight of the Women of Rotary luncheon meeting on Monday afternoon at the Golden Pheasant. Mrs. Melvin Geist arranged the program which included numbers by a string quartet composed of Lucy Bellinger, cello, Frank Holman, violin, Betty Kuhlman, violin, and Doris McWain, violin. Grace Ashford sang, accompanied by Art Diamond.

The luncheon tables were festive with bouquets of daffodils and white hyacinths, arranged by Mrs. Henry Simmons and Mrs. Harris Lutz.

Guests present were Mrs. Lester W. Howell, Mrs. Phena Parker, Mrs. James F. Smith of Long Beach, Calif., Mrs. Reynolds Allen, Mrs. Donald M. Campbell and Mrs. John E. Hoxner.

Members attending were Mesdames Frank Burlingham, Ernest Crockett, E. S. Fortner, A. A. Lee, B. W. Clark, L. Franzen, Chester Pickens, Charles Fowler, Homer Smith, Jr., P. H. Brydon, Henry A. Simmons, Harris Lietz, Ivan Stewart, O. F. Franklin, Melvin Geist, Howard Maple, Howard Wicklund, Ivan Lowell, Ellis Von Eschen, Homer K. Smith, Elmer Berglund, K. H. Pickens, W. G. Allen, Gardner Knapp, W. W. Moore, J. Perry, Leon Gleason, George H. Grabenhorst, Fred Gibson, William McGilchrist Jr., N. S. Rogers, Floyd Bressler, Russell Kelley, Thomas McNeill, L. O. Arens, Arnold Davis and J. Lyman Steed.

Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr. presided at the business session in the absence of the president, Mrs. Ralph Coley. Plans were completed for the Good Hatters night in honor of the husbands to be held on April 25 at the Legion club. The dinner and program will take the place of the regular meeting in April.

Sunshine Girls Plan Projects

The Sunshine Girls, Junior missionary group of Calvary Baptist church, met Saturday, March 26, in the fireplace room. The newly elected officers conducted the meeting. Dr. Victor H. Sword spoke to the girls during the devotionals.

The members are preparing a program for Palm Sunday. Pencil erasers were brought for the missionaries in India. The girls are making scrapbooks for the Missions in India, the Philippines, and Mather school in North Carolina. The group decided to make plaster plaques to sell in order to purchase gauze for bandages.

Members present were Mari-dene Halvorsen, president; Pamela Lindholm, vice-president; Carol Sue Bennett, secretary-treasurer; Suzanne Biver, chaplain; Beverly Bishop, song leader; Charlotte Norby, Ina Randle, Beverly Matthews and Janice Shrake. Mrs. Ruth Dempsey is advisor to the group.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. Just what is the difference between "table d'hote" and "a la carte"?

A. "Table d'hote" means a set price for each meal, irrespective of which dishes you order. "A la carte" means that you order "according to the card," and pay for each dish ordered.

Q. Is it all right for social correspondence to use envelopes with colored linings?

A. Yes; if transparent envelopes are used, they may be lined with colored paper to make them opaque. But the quieter tones of lining should be used.

Q. Is it obligatory to have ushers in attendance at a small church wedding?

A. No; there may or may not be ushers, according to the preference of the bride and bridegroom.

Designing Woman

FANCY PANTRY

There's no better or prettier place to use a good built-in idea than in the small dining room. Something special can be made of even the smallest wall space without crowding the room. Here two narrow strips of wall are decorative and storage-wise to the ceiling, and they couldn't be handier because they're just a step outside the kitchen door. Serving pieces there's no room for in the kitchen show off in the dining room, and cabinet tops are extra serving counters — a built-in like this has butler's pantry usefulness along with its good looks.

Do you know how to mix paint to get the exact color you want? Do you know how to paint furniture the easiest and best professional way? Elizabeth Hillier's booklets, SMART AS PAINT — PAINTING PROBLEMS SOLVED, tells you how. This booklet is yours for 15 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to Miss Hillier at this newspaper. (Copyright, 1935 by John F. Dille Co.)

Men's Pajamas Will Be Cool This Summer. New Comfortable Styles

By Sue Gardner

American men will get a break in the new pajamas now coming on the market. Taking a leaf from the distaff side's book of summer sleeping wardrobe, the men will have a choice of air-conditioned, streamlined and comfortable styles for late spring and summer vacations.

Since so many men prefer sleeping "without tops" in hot weather, they will now be able to buy just the shorts or the slacks for sleeping. Another new development is the T-shirt top and the cotton broadcloth bottoms, which many will find more comfortable than the traditional loose jacket styles.

You will see sheer fabrics available in the summer pajamas for men and added comfort in deep armholes, flexible waistbands, plenty of shoulder room and deep crotches. Short sleeves and short legs in the summer fashions also add up to coolness.

Among the fabrics available in the new styles will be cotton and rayon in the lower price range and nylon in the higher price range. A specially constructed porous nylon is being featured in the cool fabrics, and this should be good news to the boys who found their nylon shirts too sticky for hot weather last summer. Many a girl who thought she could do with two nylon nighties last summer because of their easy washability, found them uncomfortable when the weather was hot or wet, but the porous quality in the new men's pajamas will make them a practical investment.

Openwork meshes, crinkle crepe, skip-dent sheers, rayon weaves and handkerchief clothes are included in the cool fabrics. Sport styles include such outfits as a glen plaid zippered jacket with solid trousers, cuffed in the plaid, all in cotton broadcloth. Your local menswear shops will have all of these styles available by Father's Day in June.

Bridge Clubs to Be Entertained

Several club groups will be entertained at bridge this week.

Mrs. Ralph Hamilton will be a hostess tonight at her Fairmount Hill home for members of her club. Dinner will be served with contract bridge following. Mrs. Velma Farmer will be an additional guest.

Mrs. Harrison W. Elgin, Jr., has invited her club to a dessert supper and evening of bridge tonight at her Kingwood Heights home. Mrs. Donald Crenshaw will be a guest.

Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine will preside at a one o'clock luncheon this afternoon at her Saginaw street home. Bridge will be in play following.

A hostess Wednesday afternoon will be Mrs. Douglas Chambers, who will entertain at a bridge luncheon for her club at her Court street home.

Mrs. Kenneth Perry has bridged members of her club to a bridge luncheon on Wednesday afternoon at her North Summer street home.

Mrs. Richard L. Cooley will honor her club at bridge and a late supper Wednesday night at her North Cottage street home.

Homer Smith, Jr., past commander of Post 136, American Legion, will be the guest speaker at the social meeting of auxiliary 136 tonight at the Salem Woman's clubhouse at 8 o'clock. Music will be the Treble Triads of Parrish Junior high school, under the direction of Mrs. Madalene Suko. Mrs. Dow H. Lovell, chairman of the community service committee, is in charge of the evening's program.

St. Helena's Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. James C. Stone, 1115 North Capitol street, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. George L. Hill will be the co-hostess.

Joyce Reeves Tells Troth

At the party for which Miss Joyce Reeves was hostess on Sunday afternoon in honor of Miss Lenore Wilson, who will be married on March 31 to Howard Olson, she took the occasion to surprise her friends with the announcement of her engagement to Vernon Persinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Persinger of Montrose, Michigan.

Miss Reeves is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay E. Reeves and a graduate of Willamette university. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority and is teaching at Hillsboro this year.

Mr. Persinger, who is a member of the Leslie Junior high school faculty, served with the marines during the war. He is a graduate of Bowling Green State university in Ohio. No date has been set for the wedding.

Poppy Committee Meets

Mrs. Carroll M. Robinson, poppy chairman for American Legion auxiliary, unit 136, held a committee meeting at her home to make plans for the annual sale on May 26 and 27. Captains were appointed and plans made for the program and social meeting in May. Attending were Mrs. Jack Simpkins, Mrs. Ira Goff, Mrs. Donald Reinke, Mrs. Joseph DeFilippi, Mrs. Jack Johnson, Mrs. Myrna Males and Mrs. Robinson.

Mrs. L. V. Benson is spending several weeks in Keota, Iowa visiting with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bell.
